"The most beautiful campus in the State of Oregon" is once again left behind by eight-four seniors, which constitute the Class of 1941.

As these seniors leave for the last time, they realize that they have completed four years' work in a school noted not only for its beauty, but for its history, as well.

The "Class Rock" in the Southeast corner of the campus is more than just an old, gray rock. It designates that area as a part of the old Oregon Trail. On the opposite, or Northwest, corner is the ground where the historic Santiam Academy once stood.

But the Academy is no longer in existence, and where it once stood, a new, modern, Vocational Training Shop is being erected.

The bell, which now rings only when L. H. S. is victorious in an athletic event, was shipped from New York to Oregon via Cape Horn, for use in the Santiam Academy Building.

Student Council

Once again the school year closes, and with it closes another very successful year by the Student Council, governing body of Lebanon High.

The council is made up of either presidents, representatives, or both, of various classes and organizations. This year there were nearly thirty members of the group.

For the first time in L. H. S. history, the council had a regular meeting place—used exclusively by the organization.

Senior Class History

On the 15th of September, 1937, a hot sultry autumn day, freshman students numbering 125, from many different schools, assembled together to experience a new adventure. After having found their bearings the freshman organized under the supervision of Miss Schiltz and elected their officers: President, Bill Pengra; Vice-president, Marybeth Whetstone; Secretary, Virginia Gorman; and Treasurer, Bob Sylvester.

As time drew nearer for initiation, the atmosphere around the freshman seemed a little bit strange, but they bravely took it for a week, presenting an assembly on Friday and later the "greenies" received generous helpings of green ice cream.

Sixteen members of the band were freshmen and were really proud and boastful when they returned from the state band contest with top honors. Harold Post won the cornet solo in the class B division.

The class was well represented by vocal students, a freshman girls' quartet, composed of Joan Schenk, soprano; Marjorie Stringer, second soprano; Lorelei Stewart, alto; and Marjorie Sutter, second alto, were well praised on the successful work that they had done.

This year ended with many new friends formed, talents revealed and final preparations being made for a sophomore year.

In September of 1938, the sophomores—with five less members than the previous year—enrolled to begin another nine months of school with Miss Bennett as advisor and the following officers: Bruce Campbell, President; Chet Simpson, Vice-president; Walter Johannsen, Secretary; Ruth Schackman, Treasurer, and Marian Standley, Representative.

Again this year the sophomores boasted sixteen members in the band. The same freshman girls' quartet was in existence with Had Reeves and Gene McKinney, also entering in the picture of music in the boys' quartet.

The class was well represented in sports with Chet Simpson, Robert Standley, John Mackey, Jack Lemons, Hal Michels, and Harold Post out to try to win letters.

This year saw the leaving of many old students and the arrival of new ones.

In 1939, 105 enthusiastic juniors marched to school with the hope of making this their biggest year. They had plans and ideas that would fill the year. Mr. Scott, new to the students, was advisor and supervised the first class meeting which was for the purpose of electing officers, results which were: President, Jack Lemons; Vice-president, Geneva Brown; Secretary, Ruth Schackman; Treasurer, Gene McKinney; and Representative, George Dewey.

warrior

The juniors marked off their first date on the calendar by presenting the class play, "Aaron Slick from Pumpkin Crick" with Jim Winn, Dorothy Burton, Marjorie Stringer, Bob Davis, Marybeth Whetstone, Lorelei Stewart, and Jack Lemons portraying leading parts and other juniors enacting their parts well in making the play a success. Mr. Scott was director.

Many dances were sponsored which were said to be the best dances of the year.

The need for money was partly solved by selling hot dogs and ice cream in the halls during the noon hour.

Why the need for money? To sponsor the outstanding event of the year, the Junior-Senior Prom which was held May 10 at the close of May day when Queen Betty I and her royal court were guests of honor. The theme was carried out in Hawaiian style with Al Benning's orchestra furnishing the music.

The operetta, "The Mikado", had several Juniors playing leading parts, those being Joan Schenk, Gene McKinney and Had Reeves.

Ten juniors were selected as member of the National Honorary Society, Geneva Brown, Dorothy Burton, Dorothy Coyle, Joan Knowlen, Harold Michels, Jeannette Pape, Harold Post, Ruth Schackman, Lorelei Stewart and Lucille Warnke.

Lorelei Stewart was the choice of the student body for Strawberry Queen candidate.

The climax of the year, came with the Junior Senior picnic which was held on May 17 at the coast.

On September 16, 1940, 93 seniors entered the halls of dear old L. H. S. for the last time, but more serious and sophisticated (maybe a bit sad too) than they were four years ago.

Mr Bryan was class advisor with officers being: Geneva Brown, President; Ruth Schackman, Vice-president; Ruth Zimbrick, Secretary; Walter Johannsen, Treasurer, and Dorothy Burton, Representative.

Although the seniors' duty is to initiate the freshmen, juniors and sophomores joined in a two-day initiation of the new members of L. H. S. which they took bravely, but not too gladly.

This year as in the past, the senior class was represented by several orators: Dorothy Burton, Joyce Den Herder, Geneva Brown, and George Dewey. The former three participated in the American Legion and Willamette State Forensic Contest and George in the latter contest and the F. F. A. Speech contest.

On March 1, the seniors journeyed to Salem for a day where they enjoyed a tour of the more important state buildings.

A thrilling and exciting play was presented on April 4 under the able direction of Kee Buchanan. It was altogether a new and different "Molly O'Shaughnessey", with Marjorie Stringer, Howard Hughes, George Dewey, Gene Fitzwater, Walter Johannsen, Wayne Miller, Harold Michels, Lorelei Stewart, Gene McKinney, Dorothy Burton, Lucille Voegelein, Geneva Brown, Jeannette Pape, and Doris Taylor, and many others taking part. The scene was set in Klamath County in the early 1890's with cowboys, rustlers, gunfire, and mystery keeping the scenes filled with surprises and fun.

The seniors were represented well in sports with seventeen lettermen in the class, several of them winning letters in three sports.

Several customs have been changed this year, one of them being that the class of '41' will wear caps and gowns for graduation, being the first class to do this. The other change is the holding of a class night on June 2 at which the awards will be presented and the class will and prophecy read.

With the officers of the class five seniors were appointed to form a standing committee to help with the solving of class problems. Those seniors were: Jeannette Pape, Wilma Green, Marjorie Stringer, Doris Taylor and LeRoy Eubank. They selected as their class colors maroon and blue and camellia for the flower. "Tonight We Launch, Where Shall We Anchor?" was chosen for the motto.

Commencement will be held Wednesday night, June 4, in the high school auditorium.

"Tonight We Launch, Where Shall We Anchor?" That depends on you. Will you keep going ahead looking for that anchorage with success spelled behind you or will you stop and stay at the first port you come to. Don't sink either, rise and steer toward that landing which means "SUCCESS" to you when you reach it.

Senior Class Play

Above is the picture of the 1941 Senior Class play, "Mollie O'Shaughnessy", which was presented April 4, in the High School Gymnasium.

The play was a drama of the old west, bordering on the melodramatic side. The setting for the play was in Oregon.

The title role was played by Marjorie Stringer, with George Dewey as the hero.

A large cast was used on stage, plus extras off-stage, furnishing musical effects.

Old-fashioned programs, long, narrow ones, were used, and peanuts were given out to the audience during one of the intermissions.

Musical numbers provided entertainment during the intermissions.

Junior High--Upper Division

Immediately after school was resumed last fall, the eighth grade held a meeting and elected the following class officers: President, Rodney Cox, vice-president, Ethele Donnelle; secretary-treasurer, Betty Irvine; student-council-representative, Beverly Keebler. A. V. Simons has served as class advisor.

The class has shown great interest in community and national events of importance. Previous to the national election, they did their own voting.

They are looking forward to the class picnic which is to mark the end of another pleasant year spent on the beautiful campus of Lebanon High School.

Junior High--Lower Division

About two weeks after school began, the seventh grade had a class meeting to elect officers. At this time Mr. Bryan and Mr. Coe gave talks on what qualities to look for when electing officers. The following officers were elected: President, Joan Voegelein; Vice-president, Paul McCracken; Secretary, Dorothy Miller, and Treasurer, Dean Ward. Representative to the Student Council is Dick Hewett.

With the advice of Mrs. Binshadler, the class took up the theme of "Homes" and discussed how we should act and of what importance home is to us.

This term the boys organized a basketball team, and combining with the Upper Division, won six out of ten games played.

Band

For the fifth consecutive year, the Lebanon High School Band has come home from a band contest with a "Superior", or "I" rating. This year the contest was held in the auditorium of Corvallis high school, and Lebanon was the only entry in Class "B" to win a First Division rating.

The numbers played at Corvallis were: March, "El Cabellero", the Overture to Beethoven's "Eroica", or third Symphony, and "Transcendence" Overture.

The band this year has the largest number of seniors graduating that it has had in history. The following will leave: Trumpets: Hal Post, and Blake Holbrook; Clarinets: Harold Michels, Betty Ford; Drums: Leroy Eubank, Lucille Voegelein; Tuba: Norma Ramsey; Trombones: Virg Wills, Walter Johannsen; Flute: Had Reeves; French Horn: Wilma Green.

But winning another contest wasn't all the High Schol band did this year!

After more than a year of hard work by a faithful group of parents known as the "Band Boosters Club", the L. H. S. Musicians were presented with

warrior

eleven hundred and fifty-five dollars worth of uniforms. These new uniforms are blue, with red stripes down the pant legs, and red citation cords on the shoulder. The hats are blue, with a red band around them. In addition to the regular coat and pants, each bandman has a Sam Browne belt.

Unlike the previous set of uniforms, these are all wool.

Thanks go to the Boosters club, without whom the band could not have purchased these fine uniforms.

The officers of the Boosters are: President, H. I. Ramsey; Vice-president, Mrs. E. H. Bohle; Secretary, Mrs. C. B. Post; Treasurer, Mrs. J. H. Irvine.

Money for the uniforms was raised by at least one benefit each month, dating from the formation of the club, January 9, 1940.

These benefits were in the form of rummage sales, parties, dances, softball games, pie socials, boxing matches, cooked food sales, etc.

Besides the money raised for the uniforms by the Boosters, the Lion's Club and the City Council made donations.

Uniforms were purchased through the J. C. Penney Company.

In addition to the officers named above, there were three directors: Mrs. Ed Leckband, Fred Johannsen, and Hugh Kirkpatrick.

The band this year was under the direction of Tom Landles, a graduate of the University of Oregon Music School. Landles plans to further his musical education by studying next year at Columbia University, New York City.

French Horn Quartet

The only subsidiary of the band that was very active this year was the French Horn Quartet, composed of Nancy Kirkpatrick, Wilma Green, Jim Southwick, and Betty Brown.

Nancy Kirkpatrick, first horn, has played in the band five years, is a Junior, and plans to continue her study of music after completion of high school. Besides the band, she is in the A Capella choir, girls glee, girls trio, and does solo work.

Wilma Green, second horn, is the only senior member of the quartet. She plans to study at the Northwestern School of Commerce, Portland, next fall. Wilma has played in the band three years. She was a May Day princess.

Jim Southwick, third horn, is completing his second year in the band. He is a former cornetist. Besides his band work, Southwick is Sports Editor for the Hi-Light.

Betty Brown, fourth Horn, is a freshman, playing her second year in the band and quartet. She is a former mellophone player, having changed to French horn last year.

A'Capella Choir

Congratulations are in order for the A'Capella Choir for their excellent work during this year as they have kept a grand record at the top in musical ratings for the last few years as well as this year.

The choir was given high rating at the District Music Concert held in Corvallis in April. Due to the Forest Grove Tourney held on the same date the choir was unable to participate in it as they had done in former years.

Under our same director, Miss Alice Holmback, the chorus has done excellent. Although Miss Holmback conducts the Glee Club, the Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs besides many smaller ensembles, she is to be congratulated on the splendid way in which she has conducted the chorus. Lucille Warnke is regular accompanist.

The chorus composed of fifty voices has presented several concerts in a joint Glee-Band Concert.

Glee Club

The second period Glee Club composed of fifty voices has been active in school assemblies as well as joining with the A'Capella Choir in singing chorus parts for the high school operetta, "The Pirates of Penzance". At Christmas time they went caroling, serenading shut-ins and cheering the sick.

The Glee Club consisting of mostly beginners in vocal singing learn fundamentals of sight reading, tone quality, and ear training as well as a deeper appreciation of music and a knowledge of musical terms. After a year or even sooner they are then transferred to the A'Capella Choir where they really learn to use these fundamentals in singing.

A Girls' Sextet has been formed from this group which includes Marie Beale, Ruth Schackman, Mary Ellen Bryant, Beulah Hardy, Gloria Lee and Donna Saxton.

Miss Alice Holmback, Supervisor of vocal instruction of the high school, is director.

Girls Glee Club

The Girls Glee Club which is composed of fifty voices from both the Glee Club and A'Capella Choir was organized this year under the direction of Miss Alice Holmbach.

Regular practices are held each week outside of class which takes extra time for the students as well as the director; but wonderful results have come from this cooperative spirit that the girls have in making this club a most successful one.

They entered the District Music Contest held in Corvallis in April and received a high rating.

This club indeed should be honored for its splendid work. Orchids to the instructor who has conducted this chorus and sincere thanks to Lucille Warnke regular accompanist.

Some of the songs which they have found are favorites are: "Ava Maria", "On Wings of Song", "Prayer from Hansel and Gretel", and "Gypsy Love Song". These songs have been used in their concerts which were presented in the joint Glee-Band concerts.

Operetta

Another Gilbert-and-Sullivan operetta was given here this year, and again it was successful.

This year's production was the "Pirates of Penzance", about a young man, Frederic, who is about to leave the pirate band, because he has reached the age of 21 birthdays.

His maid, Ruth, and the Pirate King discover that he was born on leap year, on the twenty-ninth of February, and although he is twenty-one, going by years, has had only five birthdays.

The cast was: Pirate King, Raymond Gilbert; Frederic, Had Reeves; Samuel, Leslie Wertz; Major-General, Phil Ashton; Mabel, Nancy Kirkpatrick; Ruth, Janet Keebler; Edith, Charlotte Bohle; Kate, Dorothy Gable; Isabel, Laverne Stewart; Captain of Police, Dalton Johnson.

Girls Trios

This year there are two trios in Lebanon High School. There has been only one trio composed of Dorothy Grable, Charlotte Bohle, and Janet Keoble, all of which are juniors in high school.

In the newly organized group is Nancy Kirkpatrick, Pauline Sanders, juniors, and Laverne Stewart, sophomore, all outstanding in music.

All the girls are active in the various musical activities including their operetta work. Charlotte and Nancy play in the L. H. S. band, Nancy playing in the french horn quartet. Dorothy and Nancy will enter the contest this year at Corvallis as soloists.

As well as being outstanding in music, they rate high in the clubs and functions of the school. Pauline is secretary and Charlotte is treasurer of her class. Dorothy is President of A'Capella choir and Pauline of G. A. A. Laverne, Pauline, and Charlotte are members of student council.

The annual Mayfair activities of Lebanon High for 1941 were held May 9, with Queen Lorelei I and her court ruling throughout the day.

Among the affairs of the day were a general assembly, the registration of eighth graders, and open house at the high school all day.

Coronation ceremonies were held in the morning, with vocal and instrumental groups supporting the program, and the Junior-Senior Prom was held in the evening to end a pleasant day's activities.

HI-Y

The newest organization in Lebanon High School is the Hi-Y Club, composed of eleven boys from the upper classes.

The organization was inducted by the Albany and Corvallis Chapters in a Candle-Light ceremony, held in the Home Economics building, April 9th.

The meeting night of the Hi-Y's is Wednesday. Lawrence Page is the faculty advisor.

New members will be inducted soon to replace those leaving by graduation.

Officers are: George Dewey, President; Denny Miller, Vice-president; Bob Shores, Secretary - Treasurer; Harold Michels, Sergeant-at-Arms.

Basketball

Crowds at basketball games were larger than any time in the past. The largest crowd was at the Albany game, which Lebanon won.

Letter winners were as follows: Chet Simpson (Captain), Harold Michels, Bob Scindley, Denny Miller, Bill Bauman, Joe Mangold, Earl Plagmann, and Bud Trom.

Once more an extremely popular and successful basketball season has passed at Lebanon High.

The Berrypickers finished second in the District Seven competition; Corvallis won.

Lebanon lost a 42-29 decision to the C. H. S. Spartans in the closing week of the season, and with this defeat went the chance to represent District 7 in the State Tournament for the second successive year.

Pigskin Eleven

According to pre-game statistics, Albany, the traditional rival, was about 40 points better than Lebanon, but it was only in the last two minutes of play that they were able to score, making the count 6 to 0, Albany. This was the team's best game of the season.

DENNY MILLER—Hard driving left end. Denny, a junior, was very effective in breaking up opponents end runs. Much is expected of him next year.

LLOYD MILLER—A senior who played left tackle. Lloyd was an asset on defense and showed up very well on offense.

GENE MCKINNEY—A senior, played left guard, where has an iron man on defense. Gene's blocking was exceptional on offense.

CLINTON SMITH—A junior, was outstanding as a center. He was not known to make a bad pass from center in the whole season's play.

DICK BROWN—The only freshman on the team, played right guard. Dick played in the first football game he ever saw.

BOB THOMA—A junior who played right tackle. Bob, a two hundred pounder, was good on defensive play, breaking up opponents plays regularly.

BOB STANDLEY—Another senior member of the squad. Bob was a great asset as a defensive end

Football

HAROLD MICHELS—A senior and the other co-captain. Mike was a good pass receiver and also an excellent open field runner.

TED DAILY—A sophomore right halfback. He played well in all games making good yardage on off tackle slants.

GEORGE DEWEY—George is a senior, and although he is light, he played fullback where he was especially effective on fake reverses.

CHESTER SIMPSON—Chet, who is a senior and played quarterback, was chosen Lebanon's most valuable player.

Baseball

For the second consecutive year the baseball season of the Lebanon High Berrypickers has been very successful. The season opened with a decisive 8-2 victory over Junction City in a rain-soaked game, and not until eight games later were the local boys defeated.

Then, handicapped by injuries, the Berrypickers slowed down in their winnings and continued at about an even pace in wins and losses. Once again, however, the team is at full strength, and are expecting it to continue at its early season pace .

Boxing

Lebanon High School's leather pushers slugged their way to grand total of forty-one wins, twenty-six losses, and three draws. After defeating Salem twice, they tied with a strong Corvallis squad, only to outslug them in a return bout. In the next match, Lebanon upset Sweet Home by an overwhelming majority, only to be handed their only defeat of the season when they went to Sweet Home for the next to the last match of the season.

Of the twenty-one mitt-slingers to receive school letters, only three of them will graduate this year. A special tribute is to be paid to these seniors, George Dewey, Jack Lemons, and Earl Plagmann. Other letter winners are Dwayne Gessler, Donald Cox, Dale Plagmann, Charles Ensley, Bob Smyth, Dalton Johnson, Pete Smyth, Leonard Roe, Walt Postal, Lloyd Koepke, Dick Brown, Gerald Warnke, George McDonald, Warren Barnts, Charles Long, Fred Baca, Lawrence Wise, and Don Penfold.

Scores of the matches fought this year are as follows: Salem 4, Lebanon 9; Salem 7, Lebanon 8; Corvallis 4, Lebanon 4, and three draws; Corvallis 4, Lebanon 8; Sweet Home 2, Lebanon 8; Sweet Home 5, Lebanon 4.

Junior Division Baseball

Perhaps the reason for the successful baseball teams at Lebanon during the past few years is the fact that the school also possesses a Junior Division nine.

Every member of this Junior Division team is capable for one of next year's varsity spots.

This is only the second year the Junior high athletes have had their own page in the annual, but deserve it fully as much as any other organization in the high school.

Daily practice and frequent games have kept the junior nine busy, but at the same time has given them fine training for position on the varsity nine.

Pete D'Alfonso is the coach.

Junior Division Basketball

Another of Coach D'Alfonso's activities is the Junior division basketball squad. Pete's boys have won a greater percentage of their games this year, and have several Junior High, Lower Division boys who will carry on next year, as well as some fine players from the grade school teams who will be in Junior High next year.

All this, of course, is what goes in making the varsity the fine team that it is.

Each member of the present high school basketball first-string was an outstanding player on a Junior High team, either in Lebanon or other schools.

Acknowledgment

The 1941 Warrior Staff wishes to express thanks to the teachers, principal, superintendent and the Lebanon School Board for the backing they have given us.

We also would like to express our appreciation to our advisor, Mr. Hickcox, who, though very busy with other problems, always found time to help out when help was needed.

Appreciation should also be expressed to Mr. Van Loh, the printer, who did such a fine job of printing, and who always co-operated to the utmost.

The staff wishes to thank the following reporters for their aid in this publication: Harold Post, Harold Michels, Gerald Warnke, Shirley Dillard, Laverne Stewart, Lois Keyser, Miss Phipps, Lucille Warnke, and Marjorie Connet.

Also we wish to thank the sponsors who have so generously contributed in the realization of this yearbook.

QUEEN RUTH I

Ruth Schackman, a senior at Lebanon High, was born near Lebanon during the Strawberry Fair in 1923, and since has been a resident of Lebanon and vicinity throughout her school years.

Governor Sprague has consented to come to Lebanon to crown Ruth I Queen of the Strawberry Realm for 1941, at ceremonies to be held at the High School Auditorium, Thursday, June 5, at 8:00 p. m.
