Student Body Council

This year the Associated Student Body of Lebanon Union High School has had a very successful year under the leadership of the 1950-51 officers: president, Wally DeKuyper; vice-president, Dick Lewis; secretary, Betty Anne Lindley; treasurer, Beverly Canoy. The duties of the officers and the council are to govern the student body in a democratic way. This year, the 43 members with the aid of Mr. Cash and Mr. Page, have done an excellent job.

This year there was an amendment to the Student Body constitution. It is as follows: "Article 4, Section 1, shall read: The student governing body shall be composed of two groups: the presidium and the council.

"The council shall consist of the elected or appointed student official, a representative from each active club, president of each class and the representative of each class, who shall be elected on the basis of one representative for each 75 members or fraction over 50. No class shall have less than one representative. The student-body vice-president shall preside over this council and the student body secretary shall be the secretary of this body.

"The presidium shall consist of the class presidents and the president of the student body. The student body president shall preside and the secretary of the student body shall be the non-voting secretary of this body.

"The principal or his deputy shall act as advisor for each of these groups.

Section 2 shall read: "The duties of the presidium shall be: To convene the council; to draw up the budget for the association; take any steps necessary for the well-being of the association; make all necessary committee appointments and nominations; execute the commands of the student body.

Any measure not passed by the unanimous approval of the presidium must be submitted to the council for ratification.

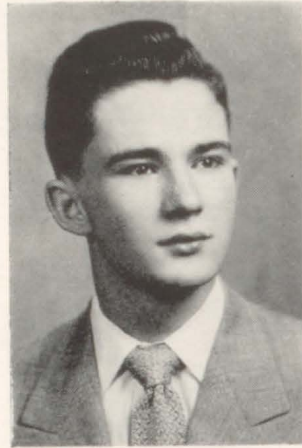

Any measure passed by the unanimous consent of the presidium may by a two-thirds vote of the council be annulled.

Title changed to Student Governing Body.

Senior Class Prophecy

One of the outstanding books on any public library shelf now is, "What Happened to the 119?" It was edited by RODNEY BEAN who the former writer of the lovelorn column which many have been indebted to. One who has been particularly helped by his column is CHARLES BLAKE. Rodney was a member of the Class of 1951 at Lebanon Union High School and has gathered these outstanding facts concerning his classmates. Fifteen years have slipped by and several alumni of '51 have gotten this book in their possession. Let's look in it too, should we?

President DICK LEWIS of the White House is trying to end a controversy between Senator BETTY CRAY and Senator BOB MONROE. It seems Betty is against the issue prevailing at L.H.S. between Orchestra Instructor RICHARD ETTERS and the students. Rich is quite perturbed at the great amount of tardiness in his class and so he is setting up a law which says an hour must be made up for every minute late. (That's funny, I wonder why he would be infavor of such a thing as that?)

ELAINE MASDEN is playing all-star on the "Women's Amazon Basketball Team." BILL BAKER is the coach. Also playing on this team are DELCINA BURRELL and JORDYE JORDAN.

Also on the sports page is DORA KENNEDY, defending the women's heavyweight world boxing championship. Her manager is FRANK FLEMING. We find her opponent to be "Run 'Em Ragged" ROSSOW. DOROTHY'S manager is LOWELL SWANSON. (Oh, my! I wonder how that came out.)

SHIRLEY O'BRIEN SPENCE entertained an afternoon bridge club at her home today. Present were ARDITH BENZ FRUM, JOYCE ENSLEY FALIERT, NORA DONOVAN NOKONSK, DELORES PINKERMAN O'HEARN and the former LORRAINE FERGUSON. The main subject of discussion was "Who has been married the longest?"

KAY LINN ROSS made a resolution in May of 1951 that she would never date again. Well, 15 years later we find her with her husband, JIMMIE GORMAN, on a chicken ranch, and boasting of having the largest eggs at the county fair. Of course, they have a couple of wonderful hired hands, BOB HINMAN and MARY ANN HERRON. You can hear them every evening as they milk cows, singing that current hit, "Marcia," composed by BUD WEAVER and made famous by that ever popular sining star, GARY HOLMES who dedicated it to his wife, MARCIA OSBURN.

F.B.I. man BILL SMITH is trying to break up the gambling ring reputed to be headed by CHARLES PEOPLES and his gang consisting of CHARLES LARSON, ANTHONY HUMMEL and JIM LEWIS. They are obtaining money by the hundreds by people placing their bet on whether Postum is better for you than coffee. The F.B.I. man has been working with the local detective, PATSY McCOY in pinning these men down. (Oh, well!)

TOMMY SUMMERS and his wife GWEN HILLS are happily situated in their mansion designed by BUD GILLIAM. By the way, Bud had to turn architect because he had to remodel his house several times due to the fact that his family is increasing in number.

MARY MOHOFF did an excellent job on interior decoration and design. Gwen is not kept busy with house work for she has an efficient maid, PAT BLACK. To make things complete, they have an experienced chauffeur, JIM MASON.

(Look at this chapter of the book, would you?)

DON E. WHITE and DON J. WHITE have gone into partnership, with their business being the making of ladies' slips. Their idea of going into partnership was because they both had so much in common — names, that is!

A Child Clinic has been started under the supervision of LOIS BREMER THORPE, BETTY POWELL, MARLENE DUNCAN, and MARY JO LINDSAY HIBBERT.

One of the most remarkable things has happened in our world of science. A rocket designed by CAROLYN LANDY and built by the CARLSON & SMITH (DARRELL and DEANE) Manufacturing Company has made its first successful round trip to the moon. CARLSON'S wife, BETTY ANN LINDLEY, honored the designer, Miss Landy and the pilot of the rocket, BOB CHRISTENSEN, along with other celebrities at their home. Present were Governor of the State DICK THOMA and wife NONIE TRAVIS. Also, in attendance was the newspaper editor WALLY DE KUYPER and three beautiful actresses, MARLENE SHARTEL, MARIE WHITE, and LORNA YOAKAM. Official photographer for the affair was DOUG JONES. It seems that most of his pictures were not of the group and the celebrities, but of his lovely assistant JOYCE CONNET. Cater was furnished by PHYLLIS SIMMONS and DICK SCHAEFER. Special entertainment was furnished by that famous Metropolitan opera star, KEN WILKINSON and accompanist, MARY JANE HOCHGRAEF. On hand also, in the vocal line, were the BALDWIN TRIO of Hollywood (MERRILEE, MELODEE, and JEANETTE). Music was also provided by TED GROSHONG and his orchestra. The professional dance team consisting of VIRGINIA HILTON, DEE HAYES, and BURNEY HODGES were the hit of the evening. Most of the gowns seen on the women were styled by SHIRLEY PAYNE SPIKER, New York dress designer. PEGGY ROSS, hair stylist, was responsible for the exquisite hair styles. (That event will, no doubt, go down in history.)

There is no longer an Arthur Murray's School of Dance but a DICK ANDRES' Dancing School. Instructors for him are DONNA RICE and LURLYN PRESTON.

MARY WING is herding a bunch of children — no! — not her own, for she is a school teacher getting grey hair fast. (We warned you, mary.)

President of the Local Old Maid's Society is MARGARET PEERY. (That might be hard to believe, but listen to this . . .) Other prominent members are JESSICA SIMMONS, BARBARA RUCKER, JOHANNA SMITH, and JOAN BAKER. They meet quite often encouraging one another. Ex-member of this club is JERENE STRANGE.

Back at L.H.S. and head of the Library is BEVERLY DAVIS. Her assistant is PATSY MORRIS.

We should all be proud of the record PHYLLIS SPRAGUE made at the Olympics. She ran 5 miles in less than 10 minutes and, mind you, she was the only girl who entered. Also making a record was LARRY RICHARDS who high jumped 6 feet.

Yes, after 15 years PEGGY GRAHAM is still looking for that tall, tan, terrific, and prosperous farmer. (Maybe she hasn't tried college yet.)

JACKIE BARNES is now stationed at San Diego.

DOROTHY GROVE has landed a job at General Mills counting out Wheaties to see that the right amount gets in the box. Assisting her is ELAINE SUING. WILMA GREER has an excellent job. She is the one who punches the holes in your cheese. Speaking of holes, WALTER SCHMIDT is still trying to find out where the hole goes when you eat a donut. He has been talking about setting up a donut shop for further investigation. Did you know that BETTY FULLER is the new president of Fuller Brush Corporation? It seems that presidency is her line of work for I understand that she just turned down the offer of another year as president at Harvard University.

(We're nearing the end of the book but here's something interesting in the following chapters.)

It's almost the quarter in the great Notre Dame football series and there goes JIM BECKER down the field with something in his hand — a water bucket.

After digging gold these many years, HELEN FORT has finally gotten a mine of her own.

BILL BLACKLAW'S latest French bathing suits are being modeled by the famous New York models, LEONA NEUSTEL and PATTY JO RUTH.

The great Robert's Flea Circus has come to town with the nationally known flea trainer, LOIS ROBERTS. Flea scout is PATSY BURR.

Dr. BENNIE FIELDS is in his office on Lebanon's Main Street. He has proven to be the most outstanding doctor of the year by America. Much of his success is due to the able assistance of Nurse EARLETTA SAXTON.

BEVERLY DOWNER is still making cakes for the Ladies' Aid. She's in hopes that some day her belief about "the way to a man's heart is through his stomach" will repay her for all her efforts.

LLOYD BARRY and MERL TUCKER have been working on a lipstick that is guaranteed to stay on and on and on. LOIS BISHOP and BONNIE LUDTKE have been testing it to see if it really works.

DONNA ATHEY is engineer of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

BOB COLVIN, ED COMBER, MELVIN SYLVESTER, and OREN ELLISON have spanned a bridge from New York to Europe because they were determined to get to Europe on dry land.

THELMA CALLAHAN and JAN WILEY are running a correspondence school in their home town.

Well, folks, that's the answer to the title "What Happened to the 119?" I'll have to admit it is quite a book.

Junior Class History

JOHNNY STOLSIG
President

The Juniors had a very successful year under the guidance of their advisors: Mrs. Janke, English III; Miss Piluso, commercial instructor, and Mr. Gerfen, United States History teacher. The class chose the following to be their officers for the year: President, Johnny Stolsig; vice-president, Jim Whitmore; secretary, Lorraine Baldwin; treasurer, Marlene Farmer; representative to the Student Council, Bob McCracken, and sergeant-at-arms, Richard Campbell. This group made up the executive council.

The main objective of the year was to raise money for the Junior-Senior Prom. They sold refreshments at ball games; put dues at one dollar, and presented the Junior play, "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay," with Eva Lou Sparks and Cynthia Rust taking the lead parts in it. The play was a big success and really helped toward the prom.

The prom finally arrived after changing the date many times because of other activities. The class chose the theme "Once Upon A Time" with the Cinderella part being stressed. The class chose Lorraine Baldwin and Dean Beck to be their co-chairmen for the prom. Marlene Farmer was the decoration chairman. Joyce Bateson and Donna Anthony took care of the refreshments. The decoration committee was made up of these students: Claude Swanson, Jim Southworth, Duane Christensen, Luther Baggett, Rodney Weist, Jim Jacobson, Bob McCracken, Roy Wilbur, Bob Trigg, Harvey Rose, Jerry Simi, Larry Moynihan, John Brown, Claudina Davis, Arlie Huff, Alice Schmidt, Dorothy Frank, Fern Dennis, Deloris Welch, and Eva Lou Sparks.

Rose Dean reigned as queen over the prom on May 5. Her court consisted of Lorraine Baldwin, Deloris Welch, Dorothy Frank, Eva Lou Sparks, Beverly Jordan, and Mary Brown.

Another happening for the Junior class was the selection of the class rings. They chose a ring which might be had either with a set or plain. The ring is somewhat on the rectangular shape with a Warrior-head on top, and the numerals on each side. The plain ones have a very pretty design on the top with high side guards. The ones with sets came in red, blue, or black.

The Junior class was very well represented in the field of sports with the following boys making the "A" squad of the football team: Jim Price, Richard Campbell, Bill Carroll, Wally Mitchell, Bob McCracken, Jim Whitmore, Jerry Simi, Dean Beck, Bill Temple, and Richard Pierce.

Many other Juniors were on the "B" squad team and are insuring themselves of a better foundation for playing next year. The captain of next year's team is Richard Campbell.

In basketball there were three boys playing on the "A" squad. They were Johnny Stolsig, Jim Whitmore, and Wayne Klavano. The "B" squad was just about completely made up of Juniors and we hope to see a lot of those boys return next year for the "A" squad.

Backing the teams was the Pep Club — the "Warriorettes." The Junior "Warriorettes" were Joyce Bateson, Dorothy Frank, Donna Netland, Alice Schmidt, Ilene Daily, Eva Lou Sparks, Deloris Welch, Lorraine Baldwin, and yell leader, Agnes Backmon. Ilene Daily represented our class in the Rally Squad. The new girls taken in at the beginning of the year were: Beverly Jordan, Marlene Farmer, and Violet Zolnoski.

The Junior class was represented in such clubs as Hi-Y; Letterman's Club; Palettes; Fire Squad; Girls' Athletic Association; Library Club; Trade and Industry; Machine Shop; Stage Crafters; the Girls' League Council, and Thespians.

They had their fingers in the music departments, with many of the Juniors participating in the operetta, the orchestra and the high school band.

The class had no problems when it came to deciding upon a class clown for the G.A.A. Carnival — they chose Luther Baggett. He was a great success.

Junior's

Sophomore Class History

BURL LOTT
President

The Sophomore class of Lebanon High School has had a successful year under its able advisors Miss Mary MacLean, Mrs. Claudia Cleveland, Mr. Albert Neuman, and Mr. Rulon Parham.

The last of the Freshman year a meeting was called to elect the new officers for the next year. Those winning the election were: President, Burl Lott; vice-president, Kirby Avritt; secretary, Shirley Jamieson; treasurer, Treva Kennedy; and sergeant-at-arms, Jack Ward. Our treasurer has moved so right now the class is minus one officer.

The football game with Cottage Grove and the dance afterwards was the first game sponsored by the sophomores. The chaperones at this dance were Miss MacLean, Mrs. Cleveland, and Mr. Parham. These three advisors have worked hard this year and we want them to know that we really do appreciate it. The selling of ice cream at the basketball game with Corvallis and the dance after the game were also sponsored by the sophomore class. Both these evenings were successful for the class as well as for the school.

The sophomore girls getting Girl-of-the-Month cards were: courtesy, Minnie Swanson and Lois Wing; friendliness, Pat Dodds and Bonnie Stryker; personality, Janet Humphreys and Sharon Trottier; dependability, Mary Lee Adkins and Mary Jo Sprague; patriotism, Madeline Baily and Betty Baldwin; sportsmanship, Ruth Miller and Louise Bishop; leadership, Janet Connet and Carol Wilshire; unselfishness, Katherine Davis and Eleanor Wheeler.

Four of the sophomore boys were on the wrestling squad. They were John Baker, Vern Dykstra Christie Messmer and J. C. Thorpe. J. C. brought recognition to himself, his class, and his school by winning the 96-pound championship for the state. Playing for the varsity squad in football were Butch Kilmer and Leonard LaFond. Those sophomore boys on the track squad were Bob Caldwell, David Stanley, Dick Stanley, Bill Fenner, Burl Lott, Jim Wise, and Dale Pieschke. And last on the baseball team are Doug Kinnee, Don Schaefer, Jim Saxton, and Christie Messmer.

One of the main events of sophomore history was the class assembly. The theme of the assembly was the old Yukon Territory, complete with gold diggers, sheriffs, wanted criminals, and a chorus of hilarious can-can girls who were really a group of boys dressed in feminine attire. It proved to be a lot of fun for the people who were involved. This assembly completed our activities for the Sophomore Class of '51.

SOPHIES

Freshman Class History

JOE SPRAGUE
President

The freshman class has had a wonderful year, under the guidance of Miss Mary Stadelman and Mr. Bob Hawk.

The 1950-51 freshman enrollment this year was about 197.

The first meeting of the year was to elect class officers. They were selected as follows, president, Joe Sprague; vice-president, Joe Canaga; secretary, Dick Johnson, who later resigned and was replaced by Geraldine Downer; treasurer, Barbara Elmer; student council representative Beverly Johnson.

Freshman initiation was different this year. The girls had to wear green ribbons and the boys, green ties. An assembly was given in their honor. A freshman king and queen were chosen. They were King J. L. Gamblin and Queen Geanine Gibson. Geanine was escorted through the afternoon's activities by the student body president, Wally De Kuyper. J. L. Was presented with the cutest chick in L.H.S., a hen.

A few games were played on the stage. The one the boys enjoyed most was when they got to shoot water pistols. In the afternoon there was a dance.

The freshman boys have been very active in sports this year. Joe Sprague made the "A" squad in football. Victor Dickson, Bobby Guggisberg, Dale Hasenyager were on the "B" squad in basketball. In wrestling J. D. Griffith made the team. In baseball, Kenneth Kirkelie, Mervel Stone and Bill Cole, manager. In track, Victor Dickson, Richard Whitmore, Kenny Cooney, Don Gilbert, Bob Tucker.

The freshman class assembly was held in March. The prep band played a number to start the assembly. Bob Flagel was master of ceremonies. Phyllis Greer sang the Lord's Prayer. Mildred Lanning did a skating number. The skit, "The Operation," was put on. The patient was Barbara Galarneau; Dr. J. D. Griffith; receptionist, Marceil Smith; nurses, Dorothy Hinman, and Marciel Smith; other patients were Marilyn Furlong and Sandra Kuehl. Barbara was Mrs. Wally De Kuyper. She came to the doctor to tell him her baby had a cold; she ended up having an operation.

Mildred Lanning gave a reading on a sewing project. Marciel Smith, Dorothy Hinman and Marilyn Furlong closed the assembly by singing "Harbor Lights," accompanied on the piano by Beverly Johnson.

The freshman class has had two parties, a dance and a skating party.

The freshman girls did the May Pole dance. It was colorful and entertaining.

The freshmen have enjoyed their first year of high school very much and are looking forward to their sophomore year.

FROSK

Eighth Grade History

JIMMIE BEATON
President

We, the eighth grade class of '51., started out somewhat bewildered, but at the closing of the year feel more adjusted to the procedure of high school. At the first class meeting we elected our class officers. Those elected were as follows: President, Jimmie Beaton; vice-president, Jack Pittsley; secretary, Doris Pomeroy; treasurer, Donnie Carroll. The secretary acted as representative to the student council.

Dues were collected and Christmas presents were given at the Christmas assembly by our president to our class advisors, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Doak, and Mr. Simmons.

We elected Wally Slocum as our class clown to represent us at the G.A.A. Carnival. We also sponsored a popcorn stand.

Our yell leaders were elected at the beginning of the basketball season. They were: Marcelyn Wright, Shirley Burr, and Patty Dixon. Our athletic department tried hard and showed good sportsmanship.

There was a good turnout in the music field, both choral and instrumental. There are several of our girls participating in the different sextet groups.

Our class presented an original assembly on April 6th. There was little enthusiasm at first but the class discovered good talents. Instead of the usual emcee, a clever system of vaudeville cards were used to announce each act. Patty Dixon and Neta Weber introduced Jimmy Beaton who led the flag salute. "Thoughtful Moments" followed with Eloise and Evelyn Crover playing a piano duet, "Ave Maria." The next act, "Fancy and Snappy," consisted of a tap-dancing trio, Mary McDonald and Lynn Stegeman dancing to the tune of "While Strolling Through the Park," and Donna Childs as a Negro dancer tapping to the tune of Chattanooga Shoe Shine Boy." La Wayne Dimock gave a cute reading, "The Gal Said No!" "Flying Batons" followed with the majorettes Marcelyn Wright and Shirley Burr performing. A short skit, "Pete, the Midget," was presented by Wally Slocum, Terry Korton and Fred Williams. A piano solo by Artes Miles was followed by Patty Dixon, Betty Jean Wilkinson and Sherrill McClain, singing, "My Heart Cries for You."

Gwendolyn Wilson gave a reading, "Tell Me, Pa." A group of 8th grade band members called "Jazz Makers" played "The Man on the Flying Trapeze," with a dummy moving across the top of the stage. Dave Riley and Bob Smith then presented a musical number, "Guess Who," in which Dave was supposedly singing "How Soon." "Turns and Twists" a tumbling act, was presented by a group of eighth graders, accompanied by Doris Pomeroy at the piano. "Musical Gayetts," consisting of Marilyn Williams, Mary McDonald, and Wayne Lamphere, an accordion trio, played "Whispering Hope," "Rainbow at Midnight," and "Saxophone Waltz." Mixed Chorus sang "May the Good Lord Bless and Keep You," and "Mocking Bird Hill." The whole group sang "So Long, It's Been Good to Know You," which brought the assembly to a close.

Our first party was a skating party held on January 18. There was a large turnout and the party was enjoyed by everyone. We are planning another party to close the year. It will be a picnic with skating afterwards.

Members of the class participated in most of the various activities offered by the school.

Three of our eighth graders held offices in the beginning glee. They are Marilyn Williams, president; Lynn Stegeman, vice-president; and Betty Anderwert, treasurer.

The eighth graders took an active part in the May Day activities. They gathered the flowers for the queen's platform. Members of the class appeared at 5:00 o'clock to help with the decorating. The class came in fourth place in the May Day track meet.

We, the 8th grade class of '51 feel that we have played an important part in rounding out the school year, and we hope to play a larger part next year.

Band

J. D. GRIFFITH
 President

The Advanced Band of Lebanon Union High School began the school year of 1950-51 with a bang. It performed at all rallies and many of the football games at Newport Field.

It began working on concert music shortly after Thanksgiving and gave a short concert with the prep and beginners band at Christmas time.

When basketball season got under way the band went back to practicing marches to play at games. The band accompanied our team to the District 7 play-offs and then to the state contest to play at the Lebanon-Marshfield game at McArthur Court in Eugene.

At the close of basketball season, practice on state contest numbers began in earnest. The state contest was held at Corvallis on April 28.

Another concert was presented in May to raise money for the Band Boosters Club.

Their last performance of the year was in the Strawberry Fair parade on June 9.

The officers for this year were, president, J. D. Griffith; secretary, Mildred Grove; treasurer, Barbara Gamberg; representative, Phyllis Sprague; reporter, Ted Groshong; librarian, Gary Shanks.

Orchestra

Eighteen members comprise this year's orchestra class which is under the direction of Mr. Bolobonoff. These students are scattered through the first, second and third periods.

This is the second year for the orchestra class at L.U.H.S. This year's class is considerably larger than the first year's, the present membership being three times that of the preceding year. The longer the orchestra class is offered the larger the classes will naturally become in the future years.

Mr. Bolobonoff has given musical recitals that encourage the group to play solos.

The class works on music that is divided into parts so that instruments can play but still have the same type of music. Also they work on one-part music and scale.

The orchestra class played for the Girls' League play, senior tea, Music Boosters, and on May 7th played for the Music Boosters' concert at the Elks Temple. They are members of the civic orchestra.

Officers for this year are: President, Richard Etters; vice president, Alice Pearl; and secretary, Judy Schmele.

Much talent composes the orchestra class, but other students are encouraged to take advantage of this class. Mr. Bolobonoff, being in his second year at L.U.H.S., has done very well with the orchestra and should be duly praised.

Girls' Chorus

MARILYN GILLIAM
 President

Sixty girls voices under the direction of Miss Kirkpatrick make up the Girls' Chorus. These include freshmen, sophomores, juniors, and seniors.

The Girls' Chorus was very active. Their first appearance was made at the annual Christmas concert. They sang the "23rd Psalm," "Wind at Night," "Winter Wonderland," and "Sweet Little Jesus Boy."

For the Christian Endeavor convention held in the Christian Church, they sang "When Day Is Done," and the "23rd Psalm." They also attended the district chorus contest held in Corvallis High School. They received a "2" rating. They did an excellent job singing "Sing, Robin Sing," and "Wind at Night."

In the operetta, "Meet Arizona," presented March 15 and 16, they took the part of the Mexicans. Two members of the Girls' Chorus played leading roles. Luan Chandler played the part of Maria, and Alice Schmidt was Emily. The Chorus also were invited to sing for May Day activities.

Many members of this chorus group were organized into trios and sextets. Alice Schmidt, soprano; Marilyn Gilliam, second soprano; Lois Wing, alto, made up the trio. Others participating in sextets were Luan Chandler, Louise Bishop, Deloris Downing, Ramona Durham, Darlene Powell, Charlotte Willis, and Sandra Kuehl. They were very active. They sang for the spring concert and at many clubs in town. The trio went to contest and received a superior rating of "1."

A picnic was held at the end of the year at Bates Park.

The officers for the 1950-51 year were, president, Marilyn Gilliam; secretary, Maxine Peoples, and treasurer, Eleanor Wheeler.

The Spring Concert was held May 18. A couple of the songs were "Down in the Glen," and "Younger Than Springtime."

"Meet Arizona"

It takes a bit of Mexico, some of Vermont, an Indian, and a lot of Arizona to set the plot for "Meet Arizona," this year's operetta presented by the choruses of Lebanon High School, March 15 and 16, to capacity crowds. "Meet Arizona" is a touch of the "wild and woolly" West; of gay fiesta; and of romance, comedy and mystery.

The stage was a typical dude ranch setting. In the distance could be seen the sands and cactus of Arizona with the the "RIDE 'EM HARD DUDE RANCH" center stage.

Costuming was very striking but strictly dudish. Taking the role of cowboys were the boys of Mixed Chorus, all dressed in boots and spurs. All the girls of Mixed Chorus were Vermonters come West to step into the life of dudins. Adding color to the stage setting was the elaborate and gay costuming of the Girls' Chorus who took the role of Mexicans.

Make-up for the cast was handled by the make-up staff, Dee Welch, Julia Culbertson and Marilyn Furlong. Accompanists for the operetta were Toni Smith and Eleanor Wheeler.

Main characters in "Meet Arizona" were as follows:

Larry Benson, Kenneth Wilkinson; Lettie Blair who exchanges Vermont for Arizona, Mary Wing; Rennie, a romantic cowboy, Bob Hinman; Emily, a typical dudine, Alice Schmidt; Aunt Lavinia who is wild and woolly, Ilene Daily; Cappy, little Cupid, Dean Beck; Arizona Tom, admired by all the dudines, Bob Trigg; Bertie, the one-man crowd, Johnny Stolsig; Carlotta, who always gets mad, Leona Neustel; Antonio, who loves Carlotta, Jim Whitmore; Maria, easily driven to tears, Luan Chandler; Carlos, a Mexican, Darrell Carlson; Jack Guldy, a schemer, Richie Osburn; and Tonita Sunrise, of Indian descent, Joan Baker.

The operetta was under the complete direction of Miss Nancy Kirkpatrick, head of the vocal music department.

Mixed Chorus

DARRELL CARLSON
President

Mixed Chorus, this year, is made up of 48 members, most of them juniors and seniors. Students in this group have all had previous training in chorus before they entered this course.

This chorus has given some notable performances, under the fine direction of Miss Nancy Kirkpatrick.

Officers for this year were: President, Darrell Carlson; vice-president, Ken Wilkinson; secretary, Ilene Daily; and treasurer, Donna Jean Netland. Toni Smith has done a wonderful job as accompanist.

The mixed chorus has turned out some fine concert performances. They did an excellent job on the Christmas concert and "Spring Fantasy." They presented their successful operetta, "Meet Arizona," March 15 and 16.

Our Christmas assembly, this year, was put on by the mixed chorus. Numbers included: the "Hallelujah Chorus," "Silent Night," "Deck the Halls," and "Christ of the Snow."

On May 18 the chorus sang for the spring concert. Their selections were: "Forest Hymn," "Lonesome Valley," "Cool Water," "Lady of Spain," and "Oh What a Beautiful Morning."

From the district contest, held March 10 at Corvallis, they brought home an "Excellent" rating.

"On the Bridge at Midnight"

"On the Bridge at Midnight," written by Samuel French and directed by Ralph Wood, was proudly presented by the Senior Class of 1951. It was an old fashioned melodrama, consisting of three acts. The story surrounds Queenie De Lorme, Beverly Jordan; and Horatio Wainright, Bob Monroe. Queenie and Horatio fall in love and then Horatio brings her home to his aristocratic mother, Mrs. Wilda Wainright, played by Bev. Downer. Mrs. Wainright dislikes Queenie and so looks at her with disgust through her lorgnette and helps the villain, Mervin Parsons, played by Wally De Kuyper, try to break up Horatio's marriage. Queenie's friend, Gypsy Heather, played by Kaye Ross, comes to stay with Queenie and is also dreaded by Horatio's mother because she is a cheap actress. Gypsy helps to frame the villain and helps Queenie win Horatio back. She does and they start a completely new life.

Others contributing to the comedy were Halstead, the dignified and reserved butler, Jim Gorman. Mrs. Billingsly Billings, the woman who tries to be elegant like Wilda Wainright but isn't, Eva Lou Sparks as Maybell Billings and her stuttering daughter, Phyllis Sprague; Eunice Wainright, Horatio's charming sister of 19, Donna Athey; Minerva Courtenay, the old maid who falls in love with the butler. They embrace each other with an old-fashioned kiss at the end of the play.

Jack Frost, a southerner who falls in love with Eunice, is played by Kenneth Wilkinson. Dora Horne, a very graceful woman who works with Mervin in stealing Horatio's plans for a bridge, Jordye Jordan; and last but not least, Joe North, Queenie's father, who saves the day by declaring Mervin Parsons was the one who sent him to prison for a crime that Mervin committed.

We seniors had a wonderful time presenting this play, and the most pleasure was drinking coffee and eating cookies between parts. We are proud to say that we think our play was a great success and loads of fun.

"When Our Hearts Were Young and Gay"

The people who attended the Junior play this year witnessed one of the most successful plays ever put on at Lebanon High. It was the three act comedy, "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay," and it was jam packed with laughs from start to finish. It was about Cornelia Skinner, played by Eva Lou Sparks, and Emily Kimbrough, played by "Cindy" Rust. Cornelia and Emily, who are both nineteen, are on their way to Paris, and trouble always seems to find them on the way to Paris and after they arrive.

The first two acts take place in a cabin on a ship bound for France. During the voyage Emily practically drowns someone, Cornelia gets the measles, and they both get seasick.

Mixed in with their experiences are two Harvard medical students, a French actor, and a French maid.

Jack Hassenger played the part of Mr. Skinner, a man about fifty who had a wonderful sense of humor and was always getting laughs. Virginia Smith played Mrs. Skinner, a woman in her late forties who tended to baby Cornelia.

The two Harvard students, Leo and Dick, were played by Larry Guinn and Curtis Judd. They were the two young men that made Emily's and Cornelia's hearts beat a little faster.

David Billings played the window-cleaner, Monsieur de La Croix, and the steward. As the steward he got the idea that the girls were slightly crazy. The admiral, played by Jim Fite, was always finding the girls' safety-pockets. Duncan Jones played the purser, and he could never quite figure the girls out.

Barbara Simpson played Madam Elise, and she thought that all Americans were crazy. Theresa, Madam Elise's daughter, was played by Virginia Anderson.

The stewardess was played by Mabel Dillon, and the inspector was played by Marion Wheaton.

The two English girls, Harriet and Winfred, were played by Barbara Gamberg and Toni Smith. Toni was also the assistant director.

Thespians

JIMMIE GORMAN
President

This year is the second year for the Thespians, Lebanon High School's branch of the National Thespian Society. This society was introduced last year by Mr. Ralph Wood, drama teacher, who has proved to be a very capable advisor for the organization.

Officers for this year were: President, Jimmie Gorman; vice-president, Ken Wilkinson; secretary, Alice Schmidt; treasurer, Kay Lynn Ross.

There are forty-seven members in Thespians. This is an honorary but non-social society. All members must be able to fill certain requirements to be invited into the club. The main one is to be in one or more plays or serve on the make-up staff for several plays.

The make-up staff consists of a few students who apply make-up to the actors in order to earn points. The goal of being a Thespian is realized when ten points are obtained. These make-up artists learn the art of using make-up for far or close range. All of the plays that were produced this year were made up by this staff.

Plays given this year were the junior play, "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay;" senior play, "On the Bridge at Midnight," and "In the Army Now," sponsored by the Girls' League.

May 10 marked the second initiation at which 11 new members were taken in.

This year the Thespians are trying to get letters for the people who have 10 or more points. They would like to get a blue "L" with "Drama," inscribed on it, and get white sweaters.

F. H. A.

JULIE CULBERTSON
 President

The Future Homemakers of America chapter enjoyed another successful year under the capable guidance of Emilla Tschanz.

At the first meeting the following officers were elected: Julie Culbertson, president; Minnie Swanson, vice-president; Darlene Gravelle, secretary; Ruth Nordstrand, treasurer; Dorothy Duering, historian; and Evelyn Miles, parliamentarian. They were installed two weeks later by the outgoing officers.

Our chapter was honored to have our president, Julie Culbertson elected state parliamentarian. She is planning to go to Colorado to the national convention. Miss Tschanz and six girls went to the state meeting in Corvallis. They were: Sharon Trottier, Dorothy Duering, Shirley Mercer, Elaine Tampke, Julie Culbertson, and Minnie Swanson.

The F. H. A. participated in many activities during the year, including organizing a Junior F.H.A. This group elected their own officers for the year. This organization is for all eighth grade girls taking homemaking. The Junior F. H. A. has been very active even though it was organized only towards the last of the year. Some of their activities include cookie and candy sales and serving lunch to the officials of Career Day. Another main event of the year was F. H. A. week. The Lebanon chapter went to the Methodist Church in a group. Next year we will go to another church. The F. H. A. decorated and took charge of the Fall Fashion Show in which all girls in homemaking modeled their fall dresses they had made. At Christmas time wreaths were made to decorate the school. There was a Christmas party for all members and everyone exchanged gifts. Other activities were, a masquerade dance, a booth for the G. A. A. carnival, and a food sale downtown where all the girls made cakes, pies, cookies, and candy and then sold it.

The organization packed a Christmas box for a needy family in Lebanon. Another large activity was preparing and serving at the O. E. A. banquet and at the Machine Shop Teachers banquet. Next year our first project will be to make matching red corduroy jackets with our emblem on them.

Fire Squad

BOB CHRISTENSEN
 Fire Marshal

Fire Marshal Bob Christensen led his boys into action at every fire drill throughout the year. The fire squad is made up of twenty-three boys from the Junior and Senior classes. The boys must have a grade average over a "3." There are nine members back from last year's squad to help the new members along. They are Doug Jones, Jim Mason, Bob Christensen, Deane Smith, Tom Summers, Darrell Carlson, Bill Baker, Bob Hinman, and Bill Temple. New members are Dean Beck, Johnnie Stolsig, Jim Whitmore, Dick Lewis, Bob McCracken, Jim Glaus, Harvey Rose, Jerry Young, Howard Christensen, Ronald Wilson, and Luther Baggett.

Mr. Parham, acting as advisor for the club, places the boys at different posts and gives orders to carry out during fire drill and emergencies. Each practice is timed to see how long it takes to clear the buildings of students and teachers.

Members of the squad have not yet found it necessary to use any of the equipment for fire fighting purposes. The duty of the squad boys is control a fire in case there is a fire and help the students get out and away from the building. Everyone is expected to obey orders from the squad members and help in any way that they can.

Early in the spring the club held its dance in the cafeteria.

G. A. A.

MERRILEE BALDWIN
President

The Girls' Athletic Association got off to a very good start under the skillful guidance of Miss Imogene Roye and Miss Mary Stadelman. Officers of the year were, president, Lovern Root. She moved away so the vice president, Merrilee Baldwin, took over the job as president. Secretary and treasurer is Phyllis Sprague.

On December 2 the association had its annual G. A. A. carnival. Each club in school had its booth.

At the beginning of the year the club decided to have one day each month for a swimming play-day at Corvallis in the Oregon State pool. These trips were enjoyed by all who attended them.

Other activities of the group were tumbling play-day at Oregon State College, softball play-day at Corvallis, and a basketball play-day at Salem. Lebanon was well represented at each play-day. G.A.A. also had an all-night barn party at the Lee Sprague farm.

Ten points are earned from any tournament play throughout the year. Fifty points are required for membership in the club, and when 150 points are earned, the G.A.A. sweater and the large "L" may be purchased. A gold pen is given for 200 points. A member must make 50 points a year to remain in the club. Points can be earned by participating in the G.A.A. activities, which include skiing, hiking, swimming, bowling, volleyball, baseball, horseback riding, basketball, and many others.

Managers of the various sports are, tumbling, Phyllis Simmons; softball, Dorothy Quinton; bowling, "Mickey" Lanning; swimming, Phyllis Sprague; basketball, Merrilee Baldwin. Points earned are taken care of by the official points chairman, Barbara Simpson.

Phyllis Sprague is the only person for several years to win the gold pin for earning two hundred points.

Girls earning 150 points are Barbara Simpson, Mary Ann Herron, Shirley O'Brien, Spence and Lovern Root.

Girls' League Council

MARY ANN HERRON
President

The year 1950-51 has been a very successful year for the Girls' League Council. The members of the Girls' League were very willing to help when they were called upon.

During the year the Girls' League was very active in selling at basketball games and in sponsoring dances. The biggest dance sponsored by the league was the Valentine dance held in the high school gymnasium in February. The theme of this dance was "Queen of Hearts." There was a queen, Gwen Hills, and her court. Co-chairmen for this dance were Shirley O'Brien and Leona Neustel.

Another highlight of the year was the all-school play sponsored by the Girls' League, this play, "I'm in the Army Now," written by Ned Albert, was presented in the high school gym on April 20. It was under the direction of the dean of girls, Mrs. Kay Greame.

Along with this very good production, Ted Bolobonoff presented his orchestra. The Girls' Sextet, consisting of Mary Wing, June Haskins, Joan Baker, Bonnie Robeson, Marilyn Haskins, rendered some number they learned especially for this occasion between acts.

The Girls' League room, a noontime retreat for girls who wish to study, read a magazine or rest, is furnished very nicely with a desk, davenos, chairs and magazines.

Mary Ann Herron, as well as the rest of the council, has done a wonderful job this year.

Hi-Light

The Lebanon High School Hi-Light began the year under the leadership of the new editing advisor, Mr. Paul Armstrong. Mr. Howard Hickcox managed the advertising department.

Staff members for the first semester were, Agnes Backman, editor-in-chief; Barbara Simpson, associate editor; Marlene Farmer, society editor; Sue Steel, exchange editor; Wally De Kuyper, sports editor; Dee Welch, business manager; Roxy Brownlee, associate business manager, and Doug Jones and Philip McCormick, photographers.

During the second semester, Barbara Simpson and Carolyn Landy were co-editors-in-chief; Rita Kenyon, associate editor; Bessie Otta, society editor; Larry Guinn, sports editor; Sue Steel, exchange editor; Wayne Holzfuss, managing editor; Dee Welch remained business manager; Jim Mason and Wally De Kuyper, associate business managers, and Doug Jones and Philip McCormick, photographers.

The paper is published bi-weekly, appearing on Thursdays. Van's Print Shop does the printing.

At the first of the year, a staff of about forty members worked on the paper, and during the second semester it narrowed down slightly. The staff members all filled their positions well and put out a very good paper.

The business staff spent long hours walking the streets and selling advertising, which is an extremely big job, and is very important to the production of the paper.

In addition to the regular feature articles which appeared in previous years, such as alumni, inquiring reporter, etc., a new column was written this year entitled "The Veep Speaks," by the student body vice-president which was Dick Lewis, during the largest part of the year. This was a very interesting article and added much to the paper.

Hi-Y

BOB HINMAN
 President

Hi-Y got off to a good start in the year 1950-51 with the election of the following officers: Bob Hinman, president; Johnny Stolsig, vice-president; Bob Christensen, secretary; Dick Lewis, treasurer, and Dean Beck, chaplain. As in previous years, Mr. Page was the very capable club advisor.

There were thirty-five members in the club as usual this year because only the same number of new members were taken in as those graduating.

Only Sophomore, Junior, and Senior boys are eligible for this club. Freshmen and eighth grade students must wait and look forward to membership in the club.

The motto for Hi-Y is: "To create, maintain and extend throughout the school and community, high standards of Christian character."

The Hi-Y sponsored the project of getting the old school bell mounted so it can be used at rallies. It was presented to Lebanon High School at the Senior Award Assembly.

The club sold at the first football game of the year and also sponsored a dance afterwards. In January the Hi-Y boys put on their traditional assembly.

The school should well be proud of the local Hi-Y club for they were the only club in school who gave 100 dollars to the building of the new hospital. They will now be entitled to vote on any problems which might arise having to do with the hospital.

The club also gave $25 to the Hi-Y World Service Organization.

For entertainment Hi-Y sponsored a picnic at Colorado Lake May 24th.

I. R. L.

DICK LEWIS
President

The two-year-old Lebanon International Relations League has had a very successful year. It has succeeded in carrying out its goal of discussing world affairs, attempting to understand the peoples of the world and trying to become better informed citizens.

I.R.L. started its activities early in the fall when it made two successive trips to Portland to hear, first, Drew Pearson, and then Sumner Welles.

The club did well in money raising ventures. It first raised money with a basketball toss at the G.A.A. carnival, and then added to this sum when it sold at a basketball game and sponsored a dance.

Anders Bodker, a Danish foreign student, now at the University of Oregon, was the high-light of the year's I.R.L. activities. Andy was only eighteen, and talked as one teenager to another. All who heard Andy were given a feeling of closer world fellowship.

Eleven I.R.L.ites were fortunate enough to travel to Eugene to the two-day Fourth Annual I. R. L. Conference. Our Lebanon club made a good showing at the conference. Bob McCracken, this year's Lebanon I.R.L. vice-president, came within two votes of being elected I.R.L. state president.

Toward the end of the year, the club started meeting in individual members homes. This was a lot more fun for everyone, and it was also conducive to more wide spread participation in discussion.

I.R.L.'s final activity was a discussion picnic in Carolyn Landy's back yard.

Lebanon's International Relations League had a good year, and it hopes to even better it next year.

Lettermen's Club

TOM SUMMERS
President

This is one of the most active clubs in the school. It is under the supervision of Earl Gerfen. Officers for the 50-51 school year were elected shortly after school had taken up last fall. They were, president, Tom Summers; vice president, Charles Peoples; secretary and treasurer, Bob Hinman; sergeant-at-arms, Bill Temple.

The club worked very hard taking tickets and watching doors at the gates of the football and basketball games this year. The club deserves recognition for this project as it gets tiresome taking tickets or watching a door while everybody else enjoys the games.

Main projects of the year were two Elks dances sponsored by the club, and a school assembly put on by the boys.

Due to the new sport of wrestling which came to our school last year, and the openings on the varsity teams, the club received quite a few new members.

A joint picnic was planned with Albany and Corvallis Letterman clubs. It was decided that Colorado Lake would be a good place to hold it.

Letterman's Club had quite an attraction at the G. A. A. Carnival. Their stand consisted of a large barrel full of water where a new letterman sat on a bench held up by a bar. The bar would collapse when a board that held up the bar was hit with a ball.

Lettermen also sponsored an intramural trophy, to be given to the individual who got the highest number of points in intramural activities. They also bought pins with the sport emblem engraved on it to give to the person who had high points of each sport.

Library Club

MARY WING
 President

Officers elected for the Library Club this year were as follows: Mary Wing, president; Kay Lynn Ross, vice president; Maxine Peoples, secretary; Peggy Graham, treasurer.

Library Club members are chosen by Mrs. Burns, librarian and club advisor, for their intelligence, dependability, and efficiency, and who have been recommended by two teachers. Other important qualifications are a pleasing personality and the ability to meet students. The purpose of this club is to learn fundamentals of librarianship.

Students chosen as members are to serve as library assistants. The efficiency of the library depends entirely upon the way the assistants carry out various duties assigned to them at the beginning of the year by Mrs. Burns.

The Library Club had seventeen active members; each had definite duties. Margaret Surry had charge of the periodical files; Patsy Morris had charge of filing; Mary Wing took care of overdue books and fines; statistics were handled by Alicia Shimanek, and Maxine Peoples took care of the displays and bulletin boards. The typists were Donna Athey, Beverly Davis, Peggy Graham, Donna Lewis, Maxine Peoples, Peggy Ross, and Kay Lynn Ross.

Patsy Morris also did all filing of catalog cards. Circulation was handled capably by Joan Baker, Julia Culbertson, Wayne Holzfluss, Donna Netland, Roy Wilbur, Darlene Duncan, and Elaine Suing. Each student had a different period.

The club went on a field trip to Eugene in May and while they were there they visited the University of Oregon Library and the Museum of Art.

Office Girls

The office force is made up of a group of Senior girls who do general office work. Credit is given for office work, which is not so easily acquired as many think it is. The girls are kept busy with such duties as collecting absence slips from every room in the building, answering the telephone, waiting on the public, taking various kinds of messages, helping keep the attendance records, running the mimeograph and ditto machines, typing, running numerous errands and assisting Mrs. Burgess, who is secretary to Mr. A. B. Cash. Girls with some stenographic or typing experience are those who are usually chosen to work in the office.

The senior girls who shared the office duties this year were: Barbara Rucker and Elaine Suing, first period; Wilma Greer and Patsy McCoy, second period; Earletta Saxton and Kay Ross, third period; Beverly Canoy and Betty Ann Lindley, fourth period; Jordye Jordan and Jackie Barnes, fifth period; Beverly Davis and Peggy Graham, sixth period, and working seventh period are Lorraine Ferguson and Eileen Meyers.

Such work as filing, typing, and meeting the public that the girls do will be valuable experience in the future if they plan on a career that involves any of these. The aim the girls strive for in their work is efficiency, which is of great value to anyone regardless of occupation.

Being office girls isn't all work and no play. While the office force does not have any outings or trips as do other organizations in the school, the girls have fun just being together and gaining the experience that may prove to be of great value to them in the future.

Paletteers

MARY MOHOFF
President

The Paletteers got off to a very successful year under the guidance of Lovedy Burkholder, the advisor of the club.

Officers for this year were: President, Mary Mohoff; vice president, Phyllis Simmons; secretary, Donnie Swanson and Lorraine Baldwin; treasurer, Eldon Thompson.

Yearly project of the club is to sell plastic lace to the youngsters in grade school and teach them how to make plastic lace braceletts. All three grade schools were visited and the upper grade children were eager pupils.

Mary Mohoff and Janet Connet entered the Scholastic Arts Awards contest at Meier & Frank's in Portland. Both entries placed.

A patriotic assembly was put on by the Paletteers in November. The theme of the assembly was Thanksgiving.

On May 16 the Paletteers took a trip to Eugene where they visited the Architecture and Allied Arts building. They were greeted there by Mr. Clancy Bates, who was substitute teacher while Miss Burkholder was away on vacation.

In order to make money for the club they sponsored a fudge sale, sold plastic lace to high school students at noons, and had a ping pong booth at the G.A.A. carnival.

Paletteers have experienced a very busy year decorating for the plays, "On the Bridge at Midnight," "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay," "Meet Arizona," and "I'm in the Army Now."

They also had the pleasure of decorating the queen's throne for May Day.

Tri-Y

BETTY FULLER
President

Tri-Y is made up of junior and senior girls who believe that the Christian way of life is the best way. It is the teen-age group of the Y. W. C. A.

This year's membership was 41 active members and 28 associate members. The officers for the year were: President, Betty Fuller; vice-president, Beverly Jordan; secretary, Barbara Gamberg; treasurer, Marcia Osborn; chaplain, Alice Schmidt; historian, Mary Mohoff; song leader, Donna Anthony; student council representative, Joyce Bateson.

During the year the club held eighteen regular meetings. The major activities were: helping Frankie Hand, a 5-year-old leukemia patient; Korean relief; teen-age dance at the Elks Club; Mother's Dinner; May Queen's Ball; coast trip, as a senior farewell. The Tri-Y had a first prize booth at the F.A.A. carnival.

Outstanding problems discussed at the different meetings were: What can a young adult do in case of war? How do other people live through wars? Mrs. Gloven, a displaced person, was our speaker for this. Improving boy and girl relations in L.U.H.S. was discussed in a joint meeting with the Hi-Y. The discussion on, "How can we become more likeable," was followed by a checking by a friend on how good we are. The memorial service for Frankie Hand was preceded by a discussion upon different types of funeral service and why people believe that way.

The activities pursued by the Tri-Y are those which help girls to grow in body, mind, and spirit.

Vocational Machine Shop

ED COMBER
 President

Lebanon Vocational Machine Shop Club was organized September 20, 1950. The club was organized for the purpose of promoting better thinking and more reliability among students, if they may enter any vocational field after graduation.

Club officers elected this year were Ed Comber, president; Charles Peoples, vice-president; Walter Schmidt, secretary, and Bob Calvin, treasurer.

A constitution was drawn and approved by the club and administration. A copy of the constitution signed by all members and officers was made available for each member.

The machine shop club has mounted the Academy bell on a small trailer unit to make it portable, and presented it to the Hi-Y club at the award assembly.

Other projects for the school were to recondition the tractor blade, make a backstop for the physical education department, pegs for bases for the baseball team, and obstacle sticks for the driver training class.

Services for the community included the following machines, a milling machine table, repair and build an adapter plate for a Mall power saw, built a log turning unit for a small sawmill, and milled a 7/16 groove in a carriage knee.

On May 4, 1951, the members of the club journeyed to Siltcoos Lake for a much needed rest from school. Fishing was good and the only accidents were, Scott fell into the lake and Richard's outboard motor caught fire but was saved by a bath in the lake.

Warriorettes

BETTY ANN LINDLEY
 President

The Lebanon High School Pep Club has completed a very successful and active year under the leadership of their new advisor, Miss Mary Stadelman, who replaced Miss Verna Lewis.

Betty Ann Lindley was the club president; Leona Neustel, vice president; Cynthia Rust, treasurer; Janet Humphreys, secretary, and Donna Jean Netland, attendance director. They all proved themselves worthy of their offices.

Membership dues for the 1950-51 year were set at fifty cents a person. The new members paid a dollar and a half.

A banquet was held in honor of our basketball boys, the last of February. The members of both "A" and "B" squad teams, their managers, and coaches were guests of the Pep Club at this banquet.

The Pep Club girls attend all of the football and basketball games held at home, and as many of the games away as possible. They are the backbone of the cheering sections and do their best to cheer our teams to victory.

At the first of the year, the Pep Club purchased five hundred booster buttons, bearing the words, "Scalp 'Em, Warriors," which were sold by different club girls to members of the student body and the townspeople.

Several times throughout the year, the club sponsored dances which were held in the high school cafeteria and the Lebanon Elks Temple.

The Pep Club purchased an intramural trophy which they presented to the leading basketball intramural team.

"A" Squad Yell Leaders

The 1950-51 cheer leaders were chosen September 21. A number of students tried out before the student body. Those chosen were Leona Neustel, Agnes Backman, Shirley O'Brien, Ken Wilkinson, and Rod Bean. Leona Neustel was chosen yell queen and Ken Wilkinson, yell king.

Their first appearance was at a pep assembly, held September 22, before the Albany-Lebanon football game. They traveled to Albany that afternoon to appear in their pep assembly.

At the basketball jamboree held at Sweet Home, December 1, Lebanon participated in a cheering contest between Albany, Corvallis, Sweet Home, and Lebanon, in which our cheer leaders led us to victory over the opposing schools. A trophy was awarded for this victory. It was presented by the Sweet Home High School, and was purchased out of the gate receipts.

The girl cheer leaders changed their costumes this year from red culots to white ones. They wore red socks and white shoes. The boys' outfits were composed of white slacks and brown and white saddles.

Several large noise rallies and serpentines were held throughout the school year, in which the cheer leaders did their part to make them each a huge success.

On February 23, the day of the Lebanon-Sweet Home basketball game, the Sweet Home cheer leaders were guests at our pep assembly which was held in the morning, sponsored by the sophomore class. That afternoon our cheer leaders traveled to Sweet Home as their guests. They exchanged their different school yells.

They accompanied the team and rooting section to the district tournament games held in Corvallis, March 15 and 16, in which Lebanon emerged victorious.

Later, when our team entered the state tournament, held in Eugene, from March 20 to 24, the cheer leaders did their best to help their team, although all five were not able to remain throughout the tournament.

The senior members of the squad were Leona Neustel, Shirley O'Brien, Ken Wilkinson and Rod Bean. Agnes Backman was a junior.

Woodshop Club

JACK PITTSLEY
 President

The Woodshop Club is one of the newest clubs in the school. It was formed in 1949 by Mr. Gardiner. The officers were: Chairman, Dee Carter; secretary, Verle Simms; treasurer, Kenneth Campbell. The secretary and treasurer later resigned and Bob Hayes was elected as secretary and Edward Dart as Treasurer.

On October 18 our Woodshop Club was called to order by Mr. Gardiner, and the following were elected: Chairman, Jack Pittsley; secretary, Wayne Lamphere; treasurer, Bob Hayes.

The club had a Halloween party in the gym October 31, in which they had a movie and played a few games. A committee was appointed to put up the booths for football games also.

On November 7, the club elected a constitution committee and passed a law that they would have a meeting every Wednesday at 12:15.

On November 14, they voted to have a club emblem of a saw with the words, "Woodshop Club" on it, and decided that we would set up all booths for the G.A.A. carnival, and take them down that night after the carnival.

On February 17, they had another party in the gym, at which time they played basketball, enjoyed a movie, and had refreshments of pop, spudnuts, and apples.

The Woodshop Club members put up and took down the booths used by the various clubs and classes for May Day.

The Woodshop Club ended the year with a surprise picnic, June 3, at the ball park to bid Mr. Gardiner goodbye.

"A" Squad Football

Lebanon's Warrior football team played nine games in their football schedule this year, winning three and dropping six. They beat Sweet Home by a score of 13 to 0, and also bested St. Frances by a score of 18 to 0. The Warriors held the Corvallis Spartans to a six to six tie on Corvallis' own field but Lebanon won it on first downs.

Head coach for the Lebanon football squad was George Van Pelt and the back-field coach is Murle Wells.

One player made the Willamette all-star team. This was Rich Campbell. He was a junior this year. Next year he will be captain.

The lettermen graduating this year are, center, Bud Gilliam, who was also co-captain; quarterback, Doug Jones, the other co-captain; Charles Peoples, tackle; Tom Summers, fullback; Deane Smith, halfback; Darrell Carlson, end; Richard Schaefer, halfback; Jim Lewis, end; Anthony Hummel, guard; Jim Becker, tackle; Bill Baker, end; and Bill Blacklaw, tackle.

The rest of the team will be back next year. Lebanon will have a good team next year by all indications.

The season's scores:

Lebanon	12	—	Marshfield	33	Lebanon	27	—	St. Francis	0
Lebanon	6	—	Grants Pass	26	Lebanon	13	—	Sweet Home	0
Lebanon	0	—	Albany	26	Lebanon	6	—	Salem	19

"B" Squad Football

Joe Hellberg, junior varsity football instructor, coached the Lebanon "B" squad to a successful campaign in their gridiron schedule of 1950.

Although the Lebanon Jayvees won only one game out of six, that doesn't tell the story of their success. They lost two of the games in the last few minutes, and by one point.

The highlight of the season was the Corvallis game, when the Braves came from behind in the second half to down the Sparbabes 20 to 6. Don Chamberlain and Duane Donovan were the heroes of this game as Don caught a pass for a touchdown and Duane ran it for two touchdowns.

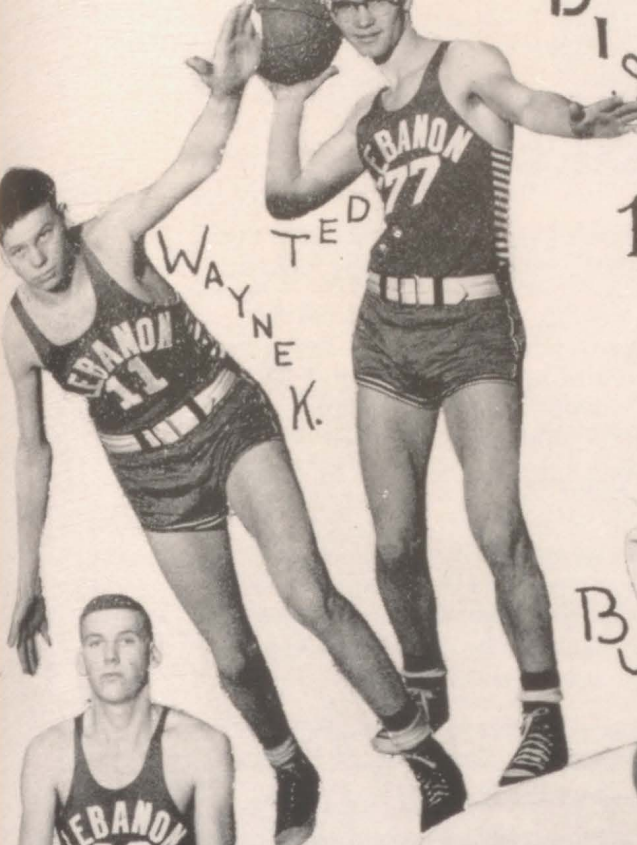

Outstanding players on the "B" squad were Leonard La Fond, Don Chamberlain, Duane Donovan, Jim Saxton, Kirby Avrit, Christie Messmer, and Kenneth La Fond, captain of the team. Leonard La Fond should receive some extra recognition as he was bounced back and forth from the "B" to "A" squads all season. The reason was that he was a lightweight player but showed lots of fight and spirit.

Joe Hellberg was organizing the "B" squad this year into a fighting squad of future Warriors. This is the first year for Joe here at Lebanon; he is also the coach for the Lebanon baseball team. Last year Joe coached the O.S.C. Rooks baseball team at Corvallis.

"A" Squad Basketball

The 1950-51 basketball season was a highly successful one. The Warriors this year took the Willamette League and District Seven crown undefeated. They finished the season with a 20-6 record.

They started out in a rush by winning their first seven games before losing to Grants Pass. In their string of victories they defeated Jefferson Hi of Portland 37-36 and 51-46. Jefferson was this year's state champion. Later on in the season they dumped the highly rated Salem Vikings on their own floor, 44-35. They beat Astoria High at Astoria, 39-37. To Bill Baker this was a big event, because he lived in Astoria before moving here.

In district games the Warriors defeated Corvallis three times, 48 to 44, 60 to 46, and 52 to 40; Albany twice, 45 to 32, and 61 to 36; Sweet Home went down twice, 65-44, and 61-38, and Newport took a defeat at the hands of the Warriors in the district tournament, 49-38. The district tournament was held in Corvallis at Gill colleseum. The teams in the tournament were Corvallis, Newport, Siuslaw and Lebanon.

The Warriors took the Willamette League, defeating every team twice. Teams in the League were St. Francis, Sweet Home, Cottage Grove, University High of Eugene, and our Warriors.

Highlights of the season were many. Wayne Holzfuss was chosen second team all-state. Bob Hinman, Wayne Holzfuss, and Bill Baker were chosen on the district seven all-star first team, and Johnny Stolsig on the second team. Wayne Holzfuss was leading scorer with 388 points, Bob Hinman was next with 256, followed by Bill Baker with 161. Johnny Stolsig and Tom Summers rounding out the starting lineup, scored 161 and 124 respectively.

At the state tourney the Warriors ran into foul trouble. They could not make a foul shot to save themselves. Against Marshfield they made 8 for 18 while Marshfield made 14 for 20. La Grande made 26 for 38 from the foul line, while we made 16 for 20.

The tournament is one of the things our boys will never forget. They had a good time and played basketball as they had all season, fighting to the end.

With seven seniors on the team. Coach Bud Page will have a building season coming up next year. Loss to the team through graduation will be big Wayne Holzfuss, Bob Hinman, Tom Summers, Bill Baker, Dick Andres, Dean Smith and Ted Groshong. Returning for next year will be Captain-elect Johnny Stolsig, Jim Whitmore, and Wayne Klavano. Wayne Holzfuss and Bill Baker were co-captains on this year's squad.

"B" Squad Basketball

Under the direction of George Van Pelt, the Lebanon Braves had a very successful season, winning 14 games and dropping five. The "B" squad beat every team they played at least once with the exception of Valsetz High School. The coast team won over the Braves by a 50 to 35 score in the only game played between these two teams.

The highlight of the season was the 46 to 45 setback handed the Salem "B" squad Jan. 30. This was the first game Salem had lost in twenty starts. The contest developed into an overtime battle as Lebanon tied it up at 43-all in the closing seconds of the regular playing time. Salem picked up a field goal and Swanson added a gift toss for the Braves, to make the score 45 to 44 early in the period. Right at the gun Richie Osburn grabbed the rebound and sank a basket to give Lebanon the win. Earlier in the season the Salem "B" squad downed the Braves 50 to 53. Other teams who defeated Lebanon were University High of Eugene, Shedd and Cottage Grove. These teams lost to the Braves in other games during the year.

Several of the boys on this year's squad placed on the "B" team of last season. These were Dean Beck, Doug Nesbitt, Richard Campbell, Gene Stewart and Carl Swanson. Newcomers to the team this year were Victor Dixon, Richie Osburn, Dale Hasenyager, Burl Lott and Bobby Guggisberg.

Richie Osburn, forward, led the team with the most field goals, 74, the most total points, 161, and the most personal fouls, 57. Carl Swanson followed in the total scoring department with 136 counters and had the best shooting average from the free throw line, 6.554 percentage. Other scoring leaders were Doug Nesbitt, who collected 103. Rich Campbell with 93, and Dean Beck with 52.

Several of the team members will be playing "A" squad ball next year to replace the seven graduating seniors. "B" squad managers for this year were David Downs and Harvey Rose.

BACK ROW: Hasenyager, Phelps, Chamberlain, Lott, Stewart
SECOND ROW: Rose, Dixon, Guggisberg, Ackeret, Downs
FRONT ROW: Coach VanPelt, Beck, Osburn, Campbell, Nesbitt, Swanson

8th Grade Basketball

This year's eighth grade basketball team, coached by Joe Hellberg, had a fair record. The ball club won four and lost six.

The team consisted of many new boys who had previously attended the outlying schools. Most of these boys were good players at their respective schools.

The team members were as follows: Guards, Morrow, Beaton, Smith, Carroll; center, Van Atta, McCrary; forwards, Neustel, Lucas, Bateson, Lamphere, Johnson. Their able managers were Art Gilbert and Whitmore.

This year's eighth grade team is one which will undoubtedly develop in future years and will be one of which Lebanon can be proud.

The boys are really looking forward to playing "B" squad and varsity basketball in their future years.

BACK ROW: Hellberg, Gilley, Leatherman, Sprague, Neustel, Johnson
SECOND ROW: McCrary, Bishop, Smith, Beaton, Bateson, Whitmore
FRONT ROW: Rhodes, Lanphere, Lucas, Morrow, VanAtta, Carroll

BACK ROW: Hellberg, Gamblin, McKinney, Whitmore, Holmes
SECOND ROW: Wilson, Stone, Connet, Scheler

9th Grade Basketball

This year's ninth grade basketball team was coached by Joe Hellberg. They had a fairly good year. Out of ten games they won five and lost five.

The team consisted of almost the same players as they had in the 8th grade, except those who played "B" squad.

These boys were as follows: Center, R. Connet, W. McKinney; forward, M. Scheler, guards, R. Christian, J. L. Gamblin, D. Johnson, K. Cooney; manager, D. Rhodes.

These boys hope to be playing "B" squad and varsity basketball in their future years.

BACK ROW: Becker, Messmer, Yancy, Bartrum, Jones, J. D. Griffith, Fisher, Coach Wells
 SECOND ROW: Brown, Thorpe, Wilbur, Kilmer, Simi, Bingman, Dykstra

Wrestling

Wrestling's second year at Lebanon turned out to be a highly successful one. Coach Murle Wells did a fine job shaping up his squad. Five men placed fourth or better in the district which made them eligible for the state meet. These were J. C. Thorpe, 96 pounds, won first in district; Gary Holmes, 121 pounds, placed third in district; Roland Wilson, 136 pounds, placed fourth in district; Lloyd Barry, 155 pounds, placed fourth in district; and James Price, 165 pounds, placed third. J. C. Thorpe won the 96 pound state championship. He is only a sophomore this year. As a freshman he also represented Lebanon at the State Wrestling Tournament.

Senior lettermen for the '51 season are as follows: Dwayne Garrett, Charles Peoples, Lloyd Barry, Gary Holmes and Dick Thoma. Others returning for next year are: Christie Messmer, a sophomore; J. C. Thorpe, sophomore; J. D. Griffith, freshman; Vern Dykstra, sophomore; John Baker, sophomore; Bob Griffith, junior; Jim Price, junior; Roland Wilson, junior; Don Brown, junior; and Jerry Simi, junior. Jim Becker managed the squad.

Wrestling letters issued this year had the emblem representing two wrestlers located on the bottom of the "L." This replaces the "W" used on last year's wrestling letters to indicate the sport.

The wrestling squad received new uniforms this year. They consisted of red tights and blue shorts. Warm-up jackets will be obtained for the next season. Admission was charged at several of the meets to help defray expenses.

Results of the '51 season meets:

Lebanon	13	—	35	Springfield	Lebanon	10	—	34	Albany
Lebanon	27	—	3	North Marion	Lebanon	3	—	41	Salem
Lebanon	23	—	26	Springfield	Lebanon	40	—	5	Junction City
Lebanon	16	—	30	Albany	Lebanon	45	—	10	North Marion

Baseball

The 1951 season of baseball has not been as successful as other years, but under the efficient work of Joe Hellberg, Lebanon's new coach, the team learned good fundamental baseball. With all the hard work that has gone into building up this season's baseball team, next year's should be more promising.

Pitchers Rodney Bean and Bill Baker, three-year letterman, will be leaving us this year. This leaves Don Schaefer, a sophomore, as our only returning pitcher.

Dean Beck had the highest batting average of the season and is one of Lebanon's heavy hitters. Other heavy hitters for this season were Tom Summers, a fine fielding third baseman; Bill Baker playing the outfield and pitching; Dick Schaefer, a hustling center fielder; Richard Campbell, first baseman, who improved his hitting to become one of our better hitters in the latter part of the season.

Other positions on the team were played by Gene "Red" Stewart, second baseman, who showed a great ability to field ground balls. Johnnie Stolsig, who again held catching position, showed much improvement and gave much support to the team. The shortstop position was held down by Wayne Klavano.

The first nine was given support by the reserves: Christie Messmer, second base; Gary Holmes, utility infielder; outfielders Dale Ackeret, Mvel Stone, Dale Hasenyager and Richard Pierce; Jim Saxton on third base and Kenneth Kerkelie, first base.

Results for the season were:

Lebanon	5	—	Salem	16	Lebanon	7	—	Sweet Home	12
Lebanon	5	—	Corvallis	18	Lebanon	3	—	Albany	7
Lebanon	3	—	Albany	9	Lebanon	2	—	Scio	4

Lebanon	11	—	Sweet Home	4	Lebanon	9	—	Junction City	17
Lebanon	29	—	Scio	10	Lebanon	0	—	Corvallis	8

BACK ROW: Klavano, Stolsig, Monroe, Andres, Ackeret
 FOURTH ROW: Schaefer, Beck, Guggisberg, Messmer, Stone
 THIRD ROW: Kerkelie, Saxton, Hasenyager, Pierce, Coach Hellberg
 SECOND ROW: Baker, Kinnee, Bean, Stewart, Holmes, Thompson

Track

What seemed at first to be a mediocre track team turned into a well balanced squad after five weeks of hard training. This was evident by the 96 to 25 beating given Sweet Home in Lebanon's first dual meet. Jim Whitmore was the big gun for the Warriors in this meet, as he collected firsts in the 100 and 220 yard dashes and broad jumps; and second place in the high jump as well as a spot on the winning 880 relay team for a total of 24½ points.

Lebanon participated in the Willamette Relays and then lost their next meet to Stayton by a score of 72 to 58. The Warriors showed their strength in the Corvallis Relays. They finished a close second to a strong Corvallis squad out of a seven team field. Corvallis collected 82 points to Lebanon's 78. The 880 yard relay team ran to a new Corvallis Relay record. Jim Whitmore, Homer McKean, Bob Hinman and Victor Dixon made up the relay teams. A new Lebanon High School record for the shuttle hurdles was set by Darrell Carlson, Doug Nesbitt, and Bab Caldwell at the relays. Albany dropped the Warriors 92 to 29 in a dual meet held at the Hub city. Jim Glaus, Lebanon pole vaulter, won his event with a height of 9 feet 6 inches.

The squad was coached by Earl Gerfen who was assisted by Bud Moynihan. The managers were Doug Rhodes and Willard Southwick.
