The Warrior staff would like to express appreciation to Shari Young for her endless work on the Warrior and to Bob Lockwood who took pictures for use in the Warrior.

We would like to thank with all sincerity our advisor, Mr. Hickock. Mr. Hickock has been a valuable man in the organization of the Warrior since 1937 and a mere "Thank You," couldn't express our gratitude.

A great big "Thank you" goes to all those writing articles for the annual and those who spent unending hours in the make up of the Warrior.

Senior Class History

Another class of seniors is about to leave "dear ole L. H. S." We, the class of '54, can look back over our four years here and remember with pleasure the many new experiences and good times we have had.

One of our first experiences in high school was the freshmen initiation. The girls wore green hair ribbons and the boys green ties. An assembly was held in the afternoon in our honor. After initiation we really belonged to high school. That year our officers were Joe Sprague, president; Joe Canaga, vice-president; Geraldine Downer, secretary; and Barbara Elmer, treasurer.

In our sophomore year we felt more at ease, since we were no longer green freshmen. We elected as our officers Bob Guggisberg, president; J. L. Gamblin, vice-president; Joanne Johnson, secretary; and Alicia Shimanek, treasurer.

The next year, our junior year, was a big one for us. We chose our class rings and had our Junior Class Play, Meet Corliss Archer. The lead roles went to Marilyn Furlong, John Crocker, Vernon Gentry, Joanna Moore, and Peggy Sherman.

In April we had the Junior-Senior Prom, "Arabian Nights", with Nancy Tanner acting as chairman. The gymnasium was transformed into an enchanting land with the ever-present help of Burkie our art teacher. Mary Rex was queen and the princesses were Joyce Anderson, Barbara Elmer, Barbara Galarneau, Joanne Johnson, Peggy Sherman, and LaVerne Stevahn.

Our officers were Joe Sprague, president; Joe Canage, vice-president; Joyce Anderson, secretary; and Darlene Gravelle, treasurer.

We entered L. H. S. in the fall of '53 and were now the mighty seniors.

Our officers were Dick Whitmore, president, J. D. Griffith, vice-president, LaVerne Stevahn, secretary; and Nancy Tanner, treasurer.

Uncertain Wings was our Senior Class Play. The lead roles were taken by Joanna Moore, Carolee McCready, and Don Gilbert.

Joe Sprague, Henry Erdwins, and Vic Dixon brought recognition to themselves, the school, and our class when Joe was selected for the all-state football team and Henry and Vic received honorable mention.

We were well represented in the Honor Society. The senior members were Joe Canaga, Colleen Chilcote, Mary Ann Doughton, Mary Ann Hanson, Paul Kratzke, Patsy Marcks, Marciel Smith, Nancy Tanner, and Carolyn White.

Highlights were our Senior Class Banguet, Senior Class Picnic, May Day, and the Junior-Senior Prom.

Our advisors who helped make our last year a successful one were Miss Dorothy Schlitz, Mrs. Ellen Wilshire, Mr. Al Neuman, and Mr. George Van Pelt. We want to thank them for their time and efforts.

We will have many pleasant memories when we think of our high school days so "Thanks" to everyone who helped us make them successful and "Good Luck" to everyone remaining. We will remember you a long time and we hope you remember us, the class of '54.

Junior Class History

DOUG GATCHELL
President

Heading the Junior class in a very eventful year were president, Doug Gatchell; vice-president, Monte Siegner; secretary, Doris Pomeroy; treasurer, Miriam Brown; sergeant-at-arms, Malcolm McBride; and class representative, Darrell Fort. Mrs. Janke, Miss Piluso, Mr. Gerfen, and Mr. Wiper, served as advisors.

A class party, including dancing, games, a movie and refreshments, was held in November. Everyone had a great time.

Mary Baca, Judy Barclay, Frank Tussing and Buzz Dunmyer led the class into a 2nd place position in the yell-leading contest at the inter-class basketball jamboree.

Deanna Moore represented the Junior class as a princess at the football dance after the Cottage Grove football game. The varsity football team were honored guests.

Our class was well represented in sports. Those earning letters in "A" squad football were Malcolm McBride, Larry Hoover, Monte Siegner, Darrell Fort, Charles Pless, Bennie Monroe, and Jim Smith. Monte Siegner, Malcolm McBride, Charles Pless, Jerry Morrow, and Donnie Carroll were juniors who played on the "A" squad basketball team. Larry Hoover served as manager. Juniors on the very successful wrestling team were Jim Beaton, Darrell Fort, Lyle Larson, Lee Malick, Charles Jacobs and Ray Richards.

Scholastic progress was by no means neglected, as this list of Honor Society juniors shows: Carolyn Barnum, Miriam Brown, Norman Butters, Darlene Clair, Ruth Duering, Mary Lou Glaus, Myra McBride, Doris Pomeroy, Robert Strange, Gwen Wilson.

The junior class play, "Room for One More," was a great success. The cast included Larry Hoover, Pat Dixon, Malcolm McBride, Eloise Crover, Dwight Gilley, Myra McBride, Gladys Roberts, Mary Nicholson, Shirley Burr and Ginger Wilcox and a freshman, Wilbur Berrgren. Carolyn Hevlin did a fine job as assistant director.

Juniors cast in the all-school play, "Little Women," were Pat Dixon, Eloise Crover, and Dwight Gilley. The leading feminine role in the operetta "H. M. S. Pinafore" was played by Iva Seems.

Last but not least was the Junior-Senior Prom. The theme was "Never-Neverland," with scenes designed from the book Peter Pan. Prom princesses were Jeanette Dolsen, Darlene Edwards, Deanna Moore, Betty Oakley, Lynn Stegeman, Laureen Svenson, and Marty Wright.

Freshmen Class History

JOE MILLER
President

"Is this Miss Berger's room?" "Could you tell me where room 34 is?" "This is Mr. Wood's room, isn't it?"

Such were the inquiries echoed around the halls of L. H. S. the day the Freshman class of '53 swarmed into the school.

Later in the fall we elected class officers as follows: president, Joe Miller; vice-president, Gary Storey; secretary, Joanne Hosking; treasurer, Geraldine Griffith; Sergeant-at-arms, Monte Sprague and Roger Lowe. Student Council Representatives are Carol Stockton and Jackie Daily. This group under the leadership of our able advisors, Mrs. La-Rowe, Mrs. Sheythe, Mr. Thomas, Mr. Kane, and Mr. Wood helped to guide the class through the past year. We really appreciated their advice and assistance.

Our class assembly held on May 12 was a huge success. It was planned and carried out by a committee composed of Janice Brown, Marcia Davis, Beverly Greer, Gene Jungwirth, Bob Chrisman and Larry Schmele. The theme carried out was a view of toyland. The toytshop caretaker falls asleep while dusting toys and dreams that they come to life.

The class party took place in the form of a Chili Feed—partially potluck, with mothers furnishing the chili. Janice Brown, T J. Smith and Charlotte Fenner provided the entertainment.

Late in May the class traveled to Colorado Lake for a class outing. Fishing, swimming, and other forms of entertainment were enjoyed by all.

A large number of boys represented the class in football, basketball, baseball, and track.

Bjorne Bjornsen was the only freshman on "B" squad basketball team. Our 9th grade basketball team err—didn't do so bad!? They won 4 out of 9 games. Don Allen was high point man with 81 points, and Terry Blanchat was second with 50 points.

We really came through with flying colors at the Intramural Basketball Jamboree. We placed first in the yelling contest. Our rally leaders were: Bessie Gilliam, Sharon Fields, Carol Adkins, Beverly Greer and LaVina Kietzke.

Three of the "B" squad yell leaders were freshmen: Jackie Daily, Janice Brown, and Marcia Davis.

The chorus group made up a new song, which was quite popular around school. Jackie Daily, and Bessie Gilliam brought honor to the class and school when they took part in the musical festival held at Multnomah. Bessie received a one grade and Jackie a two.

Larry Schmele took first place honors at the Science Fair held at Corvallis. Jim Bartram, Joy Neff, Joy Kauffman, and Chester Hutchinson came in second in their respective divisions.

The freshmen girls sold the most candy for the Girls' League sale.

None of us will forget kids like Vivian Lyons. Remember when she bought a ticket for a reserved seat in the cafeteria?

It's been fun—everything—and we hope to carve our numerals "57" so deeply on L.H.S.'s history that no one can ever erase them.

Band

WAYNE LAMPHERE
 President

The Lebanon Union High School Advanced Band with a membership of forty-eight players has had a busy year playing for pep assemblies, games and special events. Last fall the band played during the appearance of Oregon's senator Wayne Morse, who commented highly on the performance.

The KIWANIS KIDDIES Day parade was led by our band, and the Christmas concert of Dec. 18 was well-received. This concert was highlighted by the number "Serenade To An Insomniac", featuring Harvey Springer as Herman Hoopleslinger, Dwight Gilley, as the commentator and Ralph Gibson as the announcer.

On Easter Sunday, April 18, the band appeared at the Union Easter Service held at the First Baptist Church.

On April 20 a big jamboree concert was given by the Lebanon and Albany high school bands. Special numbers for this concert included POET and PEASANT overture by Suppe, Teddy Bear's Picnic and The Florentiner March.

The band closed the year just as busily as ever by playing for MAY DAY, Commencement, and the Strawberry Festival.

This year's officers are: President, Wayne Lamphere; Vice President, Carol Lindsey; Secretary-treasurer, Myra McBride; Representative, Dwight Gilley; Sergeant-at-Arms, Sharon Rhoades and Roger Johnson.

The band has been directed for the past eight years by Vinton Snyder.

Orchestra

JANET REGIMBAL
 President

The 1953-54 year was truly a year of advancement for the school orchestra. After practicing numerous hours, we made a tour of the four grade schools. We were received with much enthusiasm, as they are getting out of school. The PTA was honored on two fine nights with our music at their monthly meetings.

This year the Lebanon Orchestra for the first time in many years played for a basketball game. Although the stage was full of people we stood behind them and played away on our instruments.

At the very beginning of 1954 we held our Christmas Concert. That started the year off with a big bang!

Early in February we were asked by Helen Weston to play for the recital of the school ballet in April. On April 3rd after more hard working hours of practice, the recital was a great success.

The orchestra played for the night performances of the Senior Class play "Unucertain Wings" and the Junior Class play "Room for one more". Of course not to forget the all school play "Little Women" for which we played all the way through instead of just at the beginning.

Musicians who have taken orchestra for one year, played at all our performances, and have been good workers, will receive a letter. This year's officers were: president, Janet Regimbal; vice-president, Merle Strickler; secretary, Judy Ackeret; treasurer, Pat Jones. Lebanon has an orchestra it can be proud of for it is the largest in this district.

Choir

GINGER WILCOX
President

At the beginning of this school year, the officers were elected. They were as follows: president, Ginger Wilcox; secretary, Eloise Crover; and treasurer, Beverly Zolnoski. The accompanist is Mariyn Williams.

The choir has been very active this year. The main project of the choir this year was to raise money so as to purchase our new choir robes. They were to cost very close to $1,000.

Season's tickets were sold to the towns-people in order to raise money towards the robe fund. Also, many of the towns-people and friends of the choir donated certain amounts of money. Finally, all the money was collected, and our robes were ordered.

The annual Christmas Concert, presented on December 21, was the first performance in our new robes. The choir walked down the aisle in a processional singing "Angels We Have Heard on High." Other numbers sang by the choir were: "Rise Up Early," "The Holly and the Ivy," "I Saw Three Ships," "O Holy Night," and others. Also the traditional song: "Twas the Night Before Christmas," was sung. A girls' ensemble consisting of Eloise Crover, Iva Seems, Ginger Wilcox, sopranos; Gloria Hartle, Pat Sheythe, Joyce Larvik, second sopranos; Evelyn Crover, Mardee Groves, Nita Weber, altos, sang a couple numbers.

"Robert E. Lee" was presented Nov. 5. This was the first performance of the choir this year. It consisted of two scenes, waiting on the Levy, and stage of the Robert E. Lee. The choir sang Robert E. Lee, Deep River, Swanee, and others. Also several solo numbers were presented.

The next in line was the productions of the operetta, H.M.S. Pinafore. The cast consisted of: Captain Corcoran—Joe Canaga; Sir Hoseph Porter—David Diercoff; Little Buttercup—Nancy Caldwell; Ralph Rackstraw—Raymond Workman; Josephine—Iva Seems; Dick Deadeye—Dick Britton. The rest of the choir were the sailors and the sisters, cousins and aunts.

Thespian Play

This year the National Thespian Society stepped out and did a play of their own. This play was presented February fifth in the Little Theatre to a small select, but highly enthusiastic audience. The play selected was the prize winning play by Tennessee Williams, the Glass Menagerie.

It was done arena style with the audience on all four sides of the acting area. Blackouts by means of remote control lighting supplied the unusual effects required in this play.

It was an unusually difficult play and the small cast gave an almost professional performance.

The plot concerned the efforts of a family to escape the trap of a mentally erratic and over possessive mother and find escape to reality. Besides being extremely dramatic and tense the production also offered much comedy relief.

Giving truly great performances were Grace Kroker as the mother, Don Gilbert as the son, Sherry McDonald as the crippled daughter, and Carl Schmele as the gentleman caller. The director was Ralph Wood, advisor to Thespians.

Lebanon Union High School dramatic audiences will long remember the production of the successful play. It was a part of the attempt of Thespians to bring quality plays to Lebanon audiences.

Boys' League Council

DARRELL FORT
President

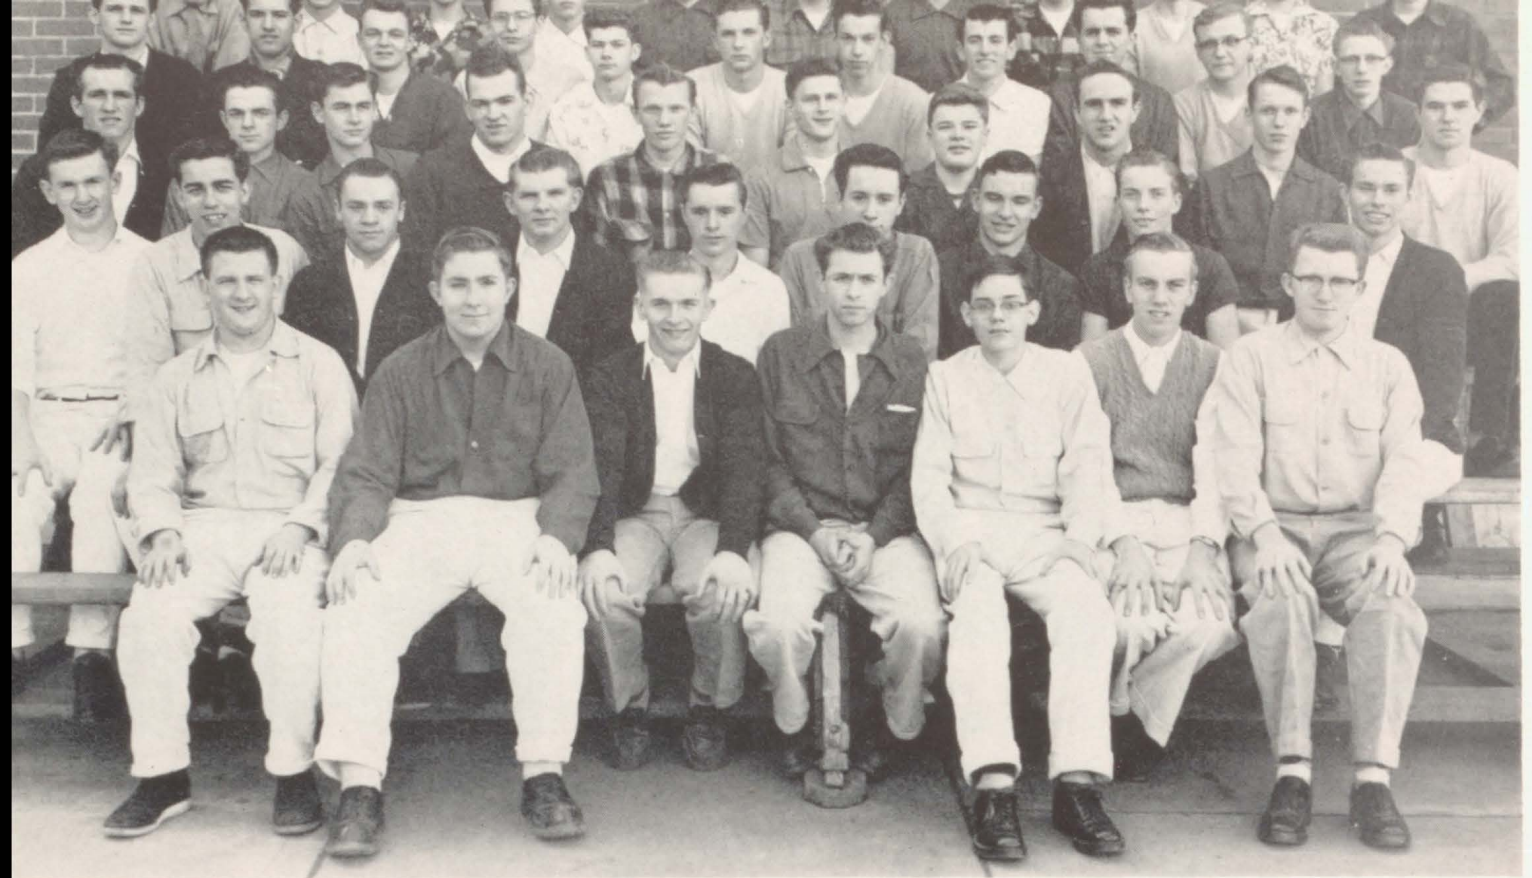

The year of 1953-54, the second year of Boys' League, has been a busy year and a successful one under the direction of Mr. Merle Wells who is the faculty advisor.

The officers of the Boys' League who were elected last year are: Joe Sprague, president; Darrell Fort, vice president; Jerry Morrow, secretary; and Wally Slocum, treasurer.

Financially we have been successful and have raised our funds to what they should be. To get most of our money, the Boys' League joined with the Girls' League to sell at football and basketball games. It was decided to have a shoe shine day to obtain money to put in our treasury. With the money gained from these different activities, the Boys' League decided to contribute $100 to further intra-mural activities.

At the meetings, we discussed the need for new flags, which was one of our projects this year. Destruction to the basement facilities were brought up at one meeting and the members decided that this should stop. A committee was appointed to see that this was curtailed. Smoking in the school was discussed and it was decided that it should be stopped immediately, and severe punishment be dealt to the violators.

We feel that we have had a good year and hope that next year will be even better.

Boys' Pep Club

J. L. GAMBLIN
 President

At the beginning of the 1953-54 school year, a new club was promoted and organized at Lebanon Union High School under the advisorship of Mr. Wiper. This club had been propagated to serve the school and help to encourage good sportsmanship as well as to support the athletic teams in any and all contests that might be encountered.

The Club was strong, consisting of 68 members who were very active in supporting the football squad during the fall term. The support continued during the basketball season but on a rather dwindled scale. The enthusiasm that had apparently been present at the beginning of the year was now lacking. Various reforms were tried by the Club's officers—J. L. Gamblin, President, Larry Hoover, Vire President, and Jerry Burgess, Secretary-Treasurer. The active members of the club responded favorably and certain policies were set up and enforced. It was decided that those members of the Boys' Pep Club who had lost their enthusiasm for its principles, should be removed and replaced by people who would show a greater interest in its work. By this time the basketball season was over and concerted effort for further improvements were postponed for the time.

The members of the club are looking forward to next year with anticipation and hope that the organization may continue and prosper under the guiding hand of its officers and advisory committee.

Driver Education

"Through education we must increase the correlation between knowing driving techniques and putting them into everyday practice"—Driver's Education is a one semester course and consists of class assignments and actual "behind the wheel" driving. The one major requirement for the class is a driver's permit. Driver education class should lead students to an understanding of the physical, mental and emotional characteristics that affect driver and pedestrian behavior.

Driver Education should develop general knowledge, attitudes and appreciations which are essential to safe, courteous use of our streets and highways. Development of proper attitude is of great importance in teaching young drivers, for this will determine whether the driver will later boast of maneuvering his car out of a near accident, or anticipating the hazardous situation in advance and avoid it.

The outcome of the class should be better drivers and more respect for traffic regulations.

ARTHEDA LANDER
President

The school year of 1953-54 has been a very busy one for the officers and members of the Future Homemakers of America. The officers for the year were: President, Artheda Lander; Vice President, Charlene Ccughran; Secretary, Carolyn Barnum; Treasurer, Anne Ayers; Parliamentarian, Rosemary Alexander; reporter, Jeanette Dolsen; Historian, Mary Ann Doughton; and song and recreational leader, Betty Moore. This year the F.H.A. has under the capable guidance of our advisor, Mrs. Violette Olstad.

During F.H.A. week, Artheda Lander, Anne Ayers, and Sharon Jenkins attended the district meeting at Albany.

Candy sales were held throughout the school year to raise money. Our most important projects of the year were giving food to needy families, at Thanksgiving and Christmas.

In March Jeanette Dolsen, and Anne Ayers attended the State meeting in Corvallis.

We have just recently elected our new 1954-55 officers. They are: President, Anne Ayers; Vice President, Darlene Hayes; Secretary, Pauline Rowton; Treasurer, Arlene Hayes; and reporter, Dorothy Hill.

Fire Squad

 Chief

Under the guidance of Mr. Parham, the club advisor, the Fire Squad had a fine year during 1953-54. The eight old members voted in eleven more boys to take the place of last year's graduating members. The veterans, Larry Syron, Vernon Gentry, Joe Alley, Jack Fort, Ron Blacklaw, Paul Kratzke, Rollin Knight, and Victor Dixon lost little time in choosing, Lee Alley, Darrell Fort, Larry Gaskill, Doug Gatchell, Larry Hoover, Jerry Morrow, William Nicholas, Ray Pilcher, Darryl Bishop, Don Scheler, and Water Slocum to rebuild the group. Fire Chief for the year was Victor Dixon, an old member, and Secretary-Treasurer was Walter Slocum.

Early in the year the club had the fortune to sell at a football game, the weather and crowd were in favor, thus excellent sales resulted. This was the only major selling attempted during the school year.

The two main activities of the fire squad this year were: the early spring fishing trip to the coast, which netted lots of colds, and the Fireman's Ball which was well attended.

The purpose of the Fire Squad is to aid in evacuating the school in the event of a fire, to enact fire prevention measures, and to battle any fires until aid comes. Each boy is taught how to fight the classes of fires with the school equipment. The best fire drill of the year emptied the school in one minute and twenty-five seconds. There were no real fires to fight this year and activities were largely routine. However some faces were red when the alarm sirens accidentally sounded under repair and emptied the school.

Back Row: Samla, Dawes, Groves, Campbell, Barber, Larson, Callahan.

DON GILBERT
 President

The newly-formed chapter of Future Teachers of America became a full-fledged club in the school this year. Under the leadership of its advisors, Mrs. Mary MacLean and Mrs. Ellen Wilshire the club fulfilled all the requirements set up by the Student Council to become recognized in the school.

Early in 1954 officers were elected. These were: Don Gilbert, president; Carolyn White, vice-president; Gwen Wilson, secretary; Rosemary Gentner, treasurer; and Marilyn Williams, representative.

The club was formed in 1952-53 for the purpose of learning about the opportunities in teaching, cultivating the qualities essential in a good teacher, and in this connection, studying the lives of great teachers, and fostering the development of student leadership.

In order to weed out those who are not truly interested in teaching as a profession or not capable of fulfilling the requirements of a good teacher, the minimum grade of those wishing to make application for membership must be a three and only upper-classmen and Sophomores are permitted to join.

Both in 1953 and in 1954 the members were given an opportunity to visit the grade schools and learn the methods of teaching. They also were permitted to take over a class and teach the students.

The Oregon College of Education at Monmouth repeated its invitation and welcomed the Lebanon Chapter of F. T. A. to hear the annual report of the teachers who are just finishing their first year, in front of a classroom.

Girls' League Council

NANCY TANNER
President

The Girls' League, a service organization to which all girls automatically belong, meets once every month. The first meeting of the year 1953-54 started out with a skit put on by the council members. The November meeting was a Thanksgiving program given to the student body. For our December meeting we combined pleasure and service by inviting the Childrens Farm Home to a Christmas party in the Gym. The Lebanon students also attended and the party was a big success. Miss Joan Seevey the Dean of Girls from Oregon College of Education in Monmouth spoke on a "Dog's Life" at our January meeting. At our February meeting Miss McLennan an exchange teacher from Australia who teaches at Cascade Grade School, told us about the school system and customs in Australia. At our March meeting we had several movies and an explanation of modern dance by Miss Carol Van Doren. Our April and May meetings are dedicated to election and installation of officers.

Other various activities of the year included the Big-Little Sister Party and the Girls Slumber Party held in the gym.

Money making projects of the year were Lug Day, Sadie Hawkins Dance, candy sales, and the sponsoring of the all-school play. This money is used mainly for scholarships.

Each month two girls from each class are selected as Girls of the Month. Girls are chosen who best fit the quality for that month.

The Girls' League feels the year has been most successful under the fine guidance and counseling of our Dean of Girls, Miss Fran Berger, and Girls' League President, Nancy Tanner.

Hi-Light

GRACE KROKER
 Editor

The Hi-Light, a project of the journalism class, is the official school publication of L.U. H. S. This year because of increased printing costs, the paper has been issued once a month instead of semi-monthly as was the custom in the past.

In addition to the regular publication a surprise mimeographed paper was issued in honor of the Basketball Jamboree at Sweet Home. Illustrations for the Jamboree paper were done by Bob Wilson. The picture of the Jamboree trophy which was printed in the Hi-Light was taken by Bob Lockwood.

Heading the staff for 1953-54 was Grace Kroker, a senior transferred from Olathe, Colorado in October of 1953. Sue Henderson and Marjorie Raffensberger were assistant editors. Marjorie is in line for next year's Hi-Light editorship. Feature editor was Sally Jo Guinn; Sports editor, Paul Kratzke; and Exchange editor, Karen Taisey. All business and financial matters were efficiently handled by Ruby Smith and Hilda Wheeler.

Reporters were Ilene Wray, Donna Childs, Don Gilbert, Judy Barclay, Bonnie Carroll, Bonnie Haskins, Carlene Johnson, and Kenney Taylor.

Popular columns include "Unc Si Sez," in which Sally Guinn wrote humorous satirical comments on every day situation; "School Daze," a clever gossip column by Marjorie Raffensberger; and "Debits and Credits," bits of odds and ends by student body president, Deb Nichols.

Hi-Y

DICK CONNET
 President

This year marks the 13th year of the Hi-Y Club. It is one of the oldest clubs in the school. It has a membership of 35 members and only sophomores, juniors, and seniors may belong.

The club's motto is: "To create, maintain and extend through the school and community, high standards of Christian character." School service is one of the projects in which Hi-Y has always been outstanding.

Hi-Y got off to a good start this year by electing to office the following: Dick Connet, president; Monte Siegner, vice-president; Dick Whitmore, secretary; Wally Slocum, treasurer; and Paul Kratzke, chaplain. The advisor is Mr. Page, who has been our advisor since the club was started back in 1951.

Some of the events high-lighting this year activities were, a joint Hi-Y, Tri-Y discussion on boy-girl relations; the Christmas tree in the main hall during the Christmas Season which was donated by the club; the year's activities ended with a picnic at Colorado Lake which was enjoyed by all.

During the year the Hi-Y contributed to many school and community projects. They donated to the Choir Robe Fund and at Christmas time food baskets were given to needy families in our community.

The Hi-Y is a club which is a credit to our school and community and has always been held in high esteem throughout its many years of growth.

I. R. L.

DOUG RHODES
President

The International Relations League of Lebanon Union High School has had a very active and successful year during 1953-54. We started off the year with election of officers. The officers elected were: president, Doug Rhodes; vice-president, Bob Wilson; secretary, Marciel Smith; treasurer, Nita Weber. At our first meeting in November we invited a group of Albany High School students with the idea in mind of helping them form their own I. R. L. group. They now have a very active group and we feel that we helped them start it.

We raised money during the year by selling fudge, autograph books, selling at the Astoria Basketball game, and sponsoring a dance afterwards.

Early in December we had a speaker from the Gold Coast who was studying at O.S.C. Everyone enjoyed his comments and criticisms of the U. S. Part of the members of the I.R.L. attended a Far West Conference in Corvallis. Five members attended the State I.R.L. Conference in Eugene during the latter part of February. The topic of the conference was "As the World Sees Us, Fact and Fancy." The many constructive criticisms of the U.S. as given by foreign exchange students and guest speakers made us realize that we do not yet live in a perfect country.

One of the final activities which rounded off our school year was a joint dance and carnival held at Stayton. This very enjoyable evening helped to bring to an end a very successful year under the able leadership of Earl Gerfen, our advisor. We hope that next year's I.R.L. Group will benefit as much as we have in this organization.

Library Club

DARLENE GRAVELLE
President

This year marked the tenth anniversary of the Library Club. The efficiency of the library depends entirely upon the way the assistants carry out various duties assigned to them at the beginning of the year by Mrs. Burns, librarian and club advisor.

The Library Club has had a very active year under the guidance of Mrs. Burns and the club officers which were: President, Darlene Gravelle; Vice President, Freda Morgan; and Secretary-Treasurer, Nita Weber. To raise funds, the Club sold refreshments at a basketball game and homemade fudge at noon. On April 28, the club travelled to the University of Oregon to attend the Library Day conference held there.

The Library Club has seventeen active members, and each has a definite duty. Typists were Miriam Brown, Marilyn Williams, Fredena Morgan, Doris Pomeroy, Nancy Sargeant, Pauline Ellis, and Darlene Clair. In charge of the circulation desk were Anne Ayers, Charleen Mahoney, Larlene Gravelle, Joyce Fritz, Dianne Loeschen, and Roger Russell. Sheri Coudare was the filing clerk; Nita Weber had charge of overdue books and fines; Nava McPherson handled library statistics.

In the 1953-54 year, 10,000 books were checked out of the library. It was estimated that approximately twice as many were checked out by the students during this school year.

Machine Shop

DARRYL BISHOP
 President

The first meeting of the Lebanon Vocational Machine Shop Club was called to order by our advisor, Mr. Gainer. At this meeting we elected Darryl Bishop as president, Doug Gatchell as vice-president, Bob Leard for secretary, Ed Ericksen as sergeant-at-arms, and Rollin Knight was elected representative.

This year the club had a membership of nineteen, including Mr. Gainer. Charles Cook left us and joined the Marines.

We the members of the club have taken in work to do and also managed the beverage business to the best of our ability. These activities help finance our annual field trip.

Some of the works completed for the school districts were, a portable basketball stand for Cascade's Grade School by Robert Davis; a frame for a back board made of pipe by Nick Nicholas and welded by John Doughton; Rollin Knight repaired a 1½" check valve for the High School heating system which saved the school $25.00; Jerry Harrison, Keith Williams and Ed Ericksen repaired a number of cast iron and steel desks by acetylene and electric welding; an 8 ft. and 7½ ft. ring was formed and welded by Ed Ericksen and Jim Burnett for the use of the track saw in the shot put and discus events; Max Wilcox ground a precision center bar which is used for aligning the center of the lathe and also ground an arbor for a grinding unit in John Alvin's welding shop.

National Honor Society

PAUL KRATZKE
 President

The Santiam Chapter of the National Honor Society of Lebanon High School started its second year under the leadership of its president, Paul Kratzke. Other officers included Mary Ann Doughton, vice-president; Ruth Duering, secretary; Mary Ann Hanson, treasurer; and Carolyn White and Gwen Wilson, class representative. Miss Piluso and Mr. Wiper are the advisors.

This year the organization has assumed the responsibility of filling the candy machines, the money of which is used for financing student body and athletic activities. The group with the Girls' League, sponsored a Sadie Hawkins dance which turned out to be one of the most enjoyable affairs of the year. The society also gave a dance after the Lebanon-Sweet Home basketball game in February. Music was furnished by the "Melody Rangers."

An installation was held in November for the junior members of the society who, at that time, received their pins; the sophomore members were given their membership cards. Another initiation was held in April for three new members: Marciel Smith, Nita Weber and Arnold Bice. At this event the parents of the Honor Society members were invited and a social hour enjoyed after the ceremonies. The group also sponsored the annual "Upper Ten Per Cent" desert on May 11. A picnic was planned for May. The juniors ended the year by ushering and decorating for Baccalaureate and Commencement.

The four objectives of the society: Scholarship, Character Leadership and Service were conscientiously observed by the group and the school has every reason to be proud of the members of the National Honor Society.

Office Girls

The office assistants, though not actually a club, is an organization in which the girls gain valuable experience and training.

Their main duty is to collect absence slips, record them, and keep an accurate record of absences. Other duties include answering the telephone and taking messages, typing, mimeographing, and running errands.

The girls are all Juniors or Seniors. They receive one credit for the course. The girls and the periods they are in the office are: Nancy Sargeant, Beverly Johnson and Rose Mary Gentner — 1st period; Lynn Stegemen and Betty Dirks — 2nd period; Marilyn Olson and Shari Young—3rd period; Susan Schrader and DeLoris Powell — 4th period; Cyda Ford and Karen Taisey — 5th period; Velores Darby and Shirley Ludtke — 6th period; Jeanette Hoelsing, Mary Masden and Marciel Smith — 7th period.

The girls receive instruction and assistance from the office secretary, Mrs. Marie Burgess.

There is also a number of girls who work in the Guidance Center, assisting the counselors in their work with the students of our school.

Their specific duty is that of receptionist. They also type letters for the counselors, take notices to students, and do various other jobs the counselors have for them.

The Guidance Center receptionists are: 1st period, Joyce Larvik; 2nd period, Pat Sheythe; 3rd period, Susie Henderson; 4th period, Katy Hamiter; 5th period, Dolores Morgan; 6th period, Miriam Brown; 7th period, Toni Wilson.

Order of "L"

J. D. GRIFFITH
President

Under the capable leadership of Mr. Kane, our faculty advisor, we had a very successful year. The capable officers of the year were, president, J. D. Griffith; vice president, Vic Dixon; secretary, Darrell Fort; and treasurer, Paul Kratzke.

The Order of the "L" is composed of all the letter winners in sports. The rules were that a freshman and a sophomore be required to have two letters and a junior and a senior must have one letter to join the club. During the year, this was changed and as of now, anyone who is a letter winner is eligible for membership.

We held an initiation in the latter part of the year, at which time we also elected next year's officers.

Among the duties of the year, we policed the kiddies parade, and it ended up by several of the members pulling wagons for some of the participants.

To end a successful and busy year, we had a picnic at Colorado Lake which was enjoyed by all that attended.

We feel that this year was a successful year and hope that next year will be even better.

Outdoor Sportsman

The Outdoor Sportsmans Club was originated and organized this year. It started out with eighteen charter members, and has now reached its maximum of twenty-five members.

To enroll in this club an applicant must be voted on and approved by a majority of the members.

The club has carried on an active program throughout the school year. Meetings are held on Wednesday evenings of each week at the local armory.

A predominant feature of the class is the study of safety precautions to be taken in the handling of firearms. Proper range procedure is also stressed by the instructor. Several students have completed the marksmanship course approved by the National Rifle Association.

The highlight of the year will be a week-end trip to some mountain lake.

The members of the club feel that its success was due, in a large part, to the faithful help of its instructor, Mr. Dixon, and are looking forward to the coming year.

Paletteers

LYNN STEGEMAN
 President

The Paletteers Club, under the guidance of Lovedy Burkholder, the club advisor, had a very active and successful year.

The year's activities opened when the Paletteers had charge of the Lebanon-Sweet Home basketball game and dance afterwards.

In observance of American Art Week, a reception was held at which art exhibits made by townspeople were shown. Many interesting pieces of American and foreign art work were exhibited.

This year the main project of the year was oil painting, which was done by the members at noon hours and during study hall periods. The Paletteers furnished the oil painting materials and Miss Burkholder assisted each member on his painting.

An annual project was the mounting and shipping of pictures to the Scholastic Arts Award in Portland. This project was done as a service to the school.

The Paletteers Club also had charge of the May Day decorations which is an annual event for the club.

This year's expert guidance for the club was furnished by Lynn Stegeman, president; Gwen Wilson, vice-president; Ruth Duering, secretary; Toni Wilson, treasurer; and Verla Sims, recording secretary.

Phoenix Club

This year marked the full fledged operation of a new club at Lebanon Union High School, which was the Phoenix Club. This club is a part of the activities of the Leadership Class, a class organized last year. It is a service club and is pledged to the improvement of local and school problems.

Activities of the two semester club included: an activity survey, which helped in the setting up of this year's new activity period; a scheduling of noon hour club meetings to avoid conflicts; a cigarette sale survey that attracted wide attention; interviews of the school principal, Mr. Page, and the local newspaper editor, Mr. Mervin Jenkins; several radio panels over KGAL; an intensive campaign to keep our campus clean, including a very well received student body assembly on the subject of KKK; several surveys of various local problems; research on community and school problems; participation in the student body elections; speaking to other classes on various topics; holding candy sales; contributing gifts and money to the state hospital for the insane; panel discussions for the P.T.A. and many other activities that are too numerous to mention.

The class features teacher-pupil planning and is designed, through the activities of the club, to prepare the students to be better citizens and better leaders and to be able to present their views clearly and correctly in public.

We, the members of the Phoenix Club, feel that this has been a successful club and will continue to be so as long as there are students at Lebanon Union High School who are desirous of learning to be good citizens and serving their community and school. Membership is achieved by registering in the leadership class. The advisor of the club is Mr. Ralph Wood.

Science Club

MYRA McBRIDE
President

The High School Science Club is composed of all those students having a genuine interest in any phase of science, either physical or biological. The primary aim of this group is to further the scientific knowledge of its members. In the accomplishment of this purpose many individual and group projects and studies have been completed.

The highlights of the activities of the group were the two science fairs held during the month of March, in which many of the members participated. The preliminary exhibit was held at Corvallis High School, March 4, 5, 6, and proved quite a happy success for the club. Of the thirteen entries made by Lebanon High students all received awards. Five of the winning projects were sent to the Northwest Science Exposition held March 22-26 in Portland, Oregon. Again, all of the entrants emerged with an award. Two received top honors while all others received either second or third places.

The science projects undertaken by individual members so far this year include: construction of chemical gardens, simple machines, electro magnets, jet engines, FM radio transmitter, radio power supply unit, models showing the structure of a plant, a model of the biotic division of a cell, taxidermy, a study and presentation of the more common trees of Oregon, and photographs of the structure of magnetic fields of force.

The program for the remaining school year will include further work on individual and group projects, business meetings, field trips, social get-togethers and election of officers for the ensuing year.

Spanish Club

"Buenos dias, Amigos." This is a greeting from one of the newest clubs in Lebanon High School under the direction of Mrs. LaRowe and Mr. Wood. It is called "El Ciculo de Espanol."

At the first meeting of the year, held on February 17, the following officers were elected. Ralph Gibson, president; Bonnie Morris, vice-president-Treasurer; Toni Wilson, secretary; and Dick Britton and Betty Kofoid, reporters. It was decided that dues would be 50 cents for the semester and $1.00 next year.

Requirements for belonging to this club are at least one semester of Spanish and a passing grade. To hold an office you must have a Spanish grade average of a 3. The members of the club are mostly sophomores, but there are also freshmen, junior and senior members. Members are students from this year's and last year's Spanish classes.

Although "El Ciculo de Espanol" is a newly organized club, several activities have been planned, which are an evening party sometime early this spring and a picnic at the last meeting of the year. Pen pals from Spanish-speaking countries have been ordered by most of the members. Many of the pen pals are from Spain and Mexico but a few are taken from Central and South America. A section of the bulletin board in room 2 is also maintained by the Spanish Club. It has been decided that a pin for the club will be selected later and all members who have paid their dues may buy one.

And now till next year. "Hasta la vista," or "Until we meet again."

Thespians

VERNON GENTRY
 President

The National Thespian Society Troupe Number 1021 was organized in Lebanon Union High School as an honorary society for dramatics. Fifteen points must be earned for membership and membership is by invitation. Points can be earned by trying out for various jobs in school plays.

The club meets every other month. The meetings feature chili feeds, taffy pulls, white elephant sales, spaghetti dinners, and an annual spring potluck banquet.

Between meetings the club members attended college play productions. Productions attended this year at Oregon State College were "Elizabeth the Queen," "Blithe Spirit," and "Taming of the Shrew."

Thespians helped to produce the following plays this year: "Uncertain Wings," "Room For One More," and "Little Women." The Thespians did a play of their own, an arena presentation of the prize winning play, "Glass Menagerie," by Tennessee Williams. This highly successful production was the highlight of one of the best Thespian years at Lebanon Union High School.

This year's officers were, president, Vernon Gentry; vice president, DeLoris Powell; treasurer, John Crocker; secretary, Carlene Johnson; clerk, Peggy Sherman. Advisors are Mr. Ralph Wood and Mrs. La Rowe.

Tri-Y

BEVERLY JOHNSON
President

The first 1953-54 meeting of the Lebanon Chapter of Tri-Y started with the election of officers. Officers elected were as follows: president, Beverly Johnson; vice president, Marilyn Williams; secretary, Laurene Svenson; treasurer, Darlene Gravelle; chaplain, Joyce Fritz; project chairman, Ruth Duering; representative, Marciel Smith.

As our first project we donated school supplies and all day suckers for the Korean children. All who did not participate, gave fifteen cents to the cause.

The other projects for the year were, collecting clothing and food for local needy families, decorating the Christmas tree in the High School, collecting and sending wash cloths and toys to the Crippled Children's Home in Eugene, cleaning the trophy case and the trophies, Career Day Smorgasbord for the guest speakers, Valentines for the Orphan's Home in Corvallis, Mother-Daughter dessert, Senior farewell and pinning ceremony.

Tri-Y is a Christian Youth Organization, all Junior and Senior girls are invited to be members. This year we had 51 members, 19 of which earned pins or guards. Junior girls work for the Tri-Y pins, and Senior girls work for the guards. Pins and guards are earned by paying dues, which were twenty-five cents this year, participating in 80 per cent of the projects and 90 per cent of the meetings.

Warriorettes

BARBARA ELMER
President

Pep Club has gone through another year and has done pretty well. The group tried several ways of getting up school spirit and were successful. This year was also our Pep Club's lucky year, being able to bring home the yell contest cup.

The first time in our Warriorettes history we had a drill team. During the football games they put on drills during the half. These drills were done in their regular uniforms.

The Pep Club's main purpose is to foster school spirit and to encourage a high standard of sportsmanship in our relations with other schools. The club is the backbone of the student body cheering section and the members attend all the football and basketball games at home. This year more support has been given to wrestling, baseball and track.

Mrs. Dolores Christenson was the club advisor; Barbara Elmer, president; Barbara Galarneau, vice president; Nancy Caldwell, secretary; Judy Barclay, treasurer; and Ruth Duer-ing, attendance recorder.

Again the club's membership has enlarged to try and keep pace with the increase of students.

Membership dues were one dollar for old members and two dollars for new members, because of the high cost of emblems.

The Pep Club sponsored a spring dance and several money making projects during the year.

LAVERNE STEVAHN
Queen

Mayfair

The attractive campus lawn provided a perfect setting for the crowning of the queen, Miss LaVerne Stevahn.

The coronation took place on a dais arranged with a background of purple lilacs. A huge imitation spring flower was designed and used as a throne.

From this vantage point, the newly-crowned queen welcomed both students, townspeople and special eighth-grade guests.

For her coronation Queen LaVerne I was garbed in white net over taffeta. A jeweled crown and royal robe completed her majesty's costume. These were given to the school as a gift from the Senior Class of '54.

Picture hats and pastel frocks, also fashioned of net over taffeta, were worn by the maid of honor, Miss Shari Young, and the princesses, Joyce Anderson, Donna Stillwell, Beverly Berland, DeLoris Powell and Barbara Elmer.

The small flower girls, Linda Martell and Chiane Ayers, also wore pastel frocks. The crown bearer was Douglas Martell and the robe bearer was David Surman.

A program was arranged, after the coronation ceremonies, for the pleasure of the royal court and her many assembled subjects. Included were band and choir selections, ballet dances, and a Maypole dance.

At noon a picnic luncheon was served on the lawn.

A program of sports: a varsity track meet with Sweet Home, and a baseball game with Stayton, climaxed the afternoon.

The queen completed her one-day reign at a cotton and cord dance in the evening at the Elks temple.

"B" Squad Football

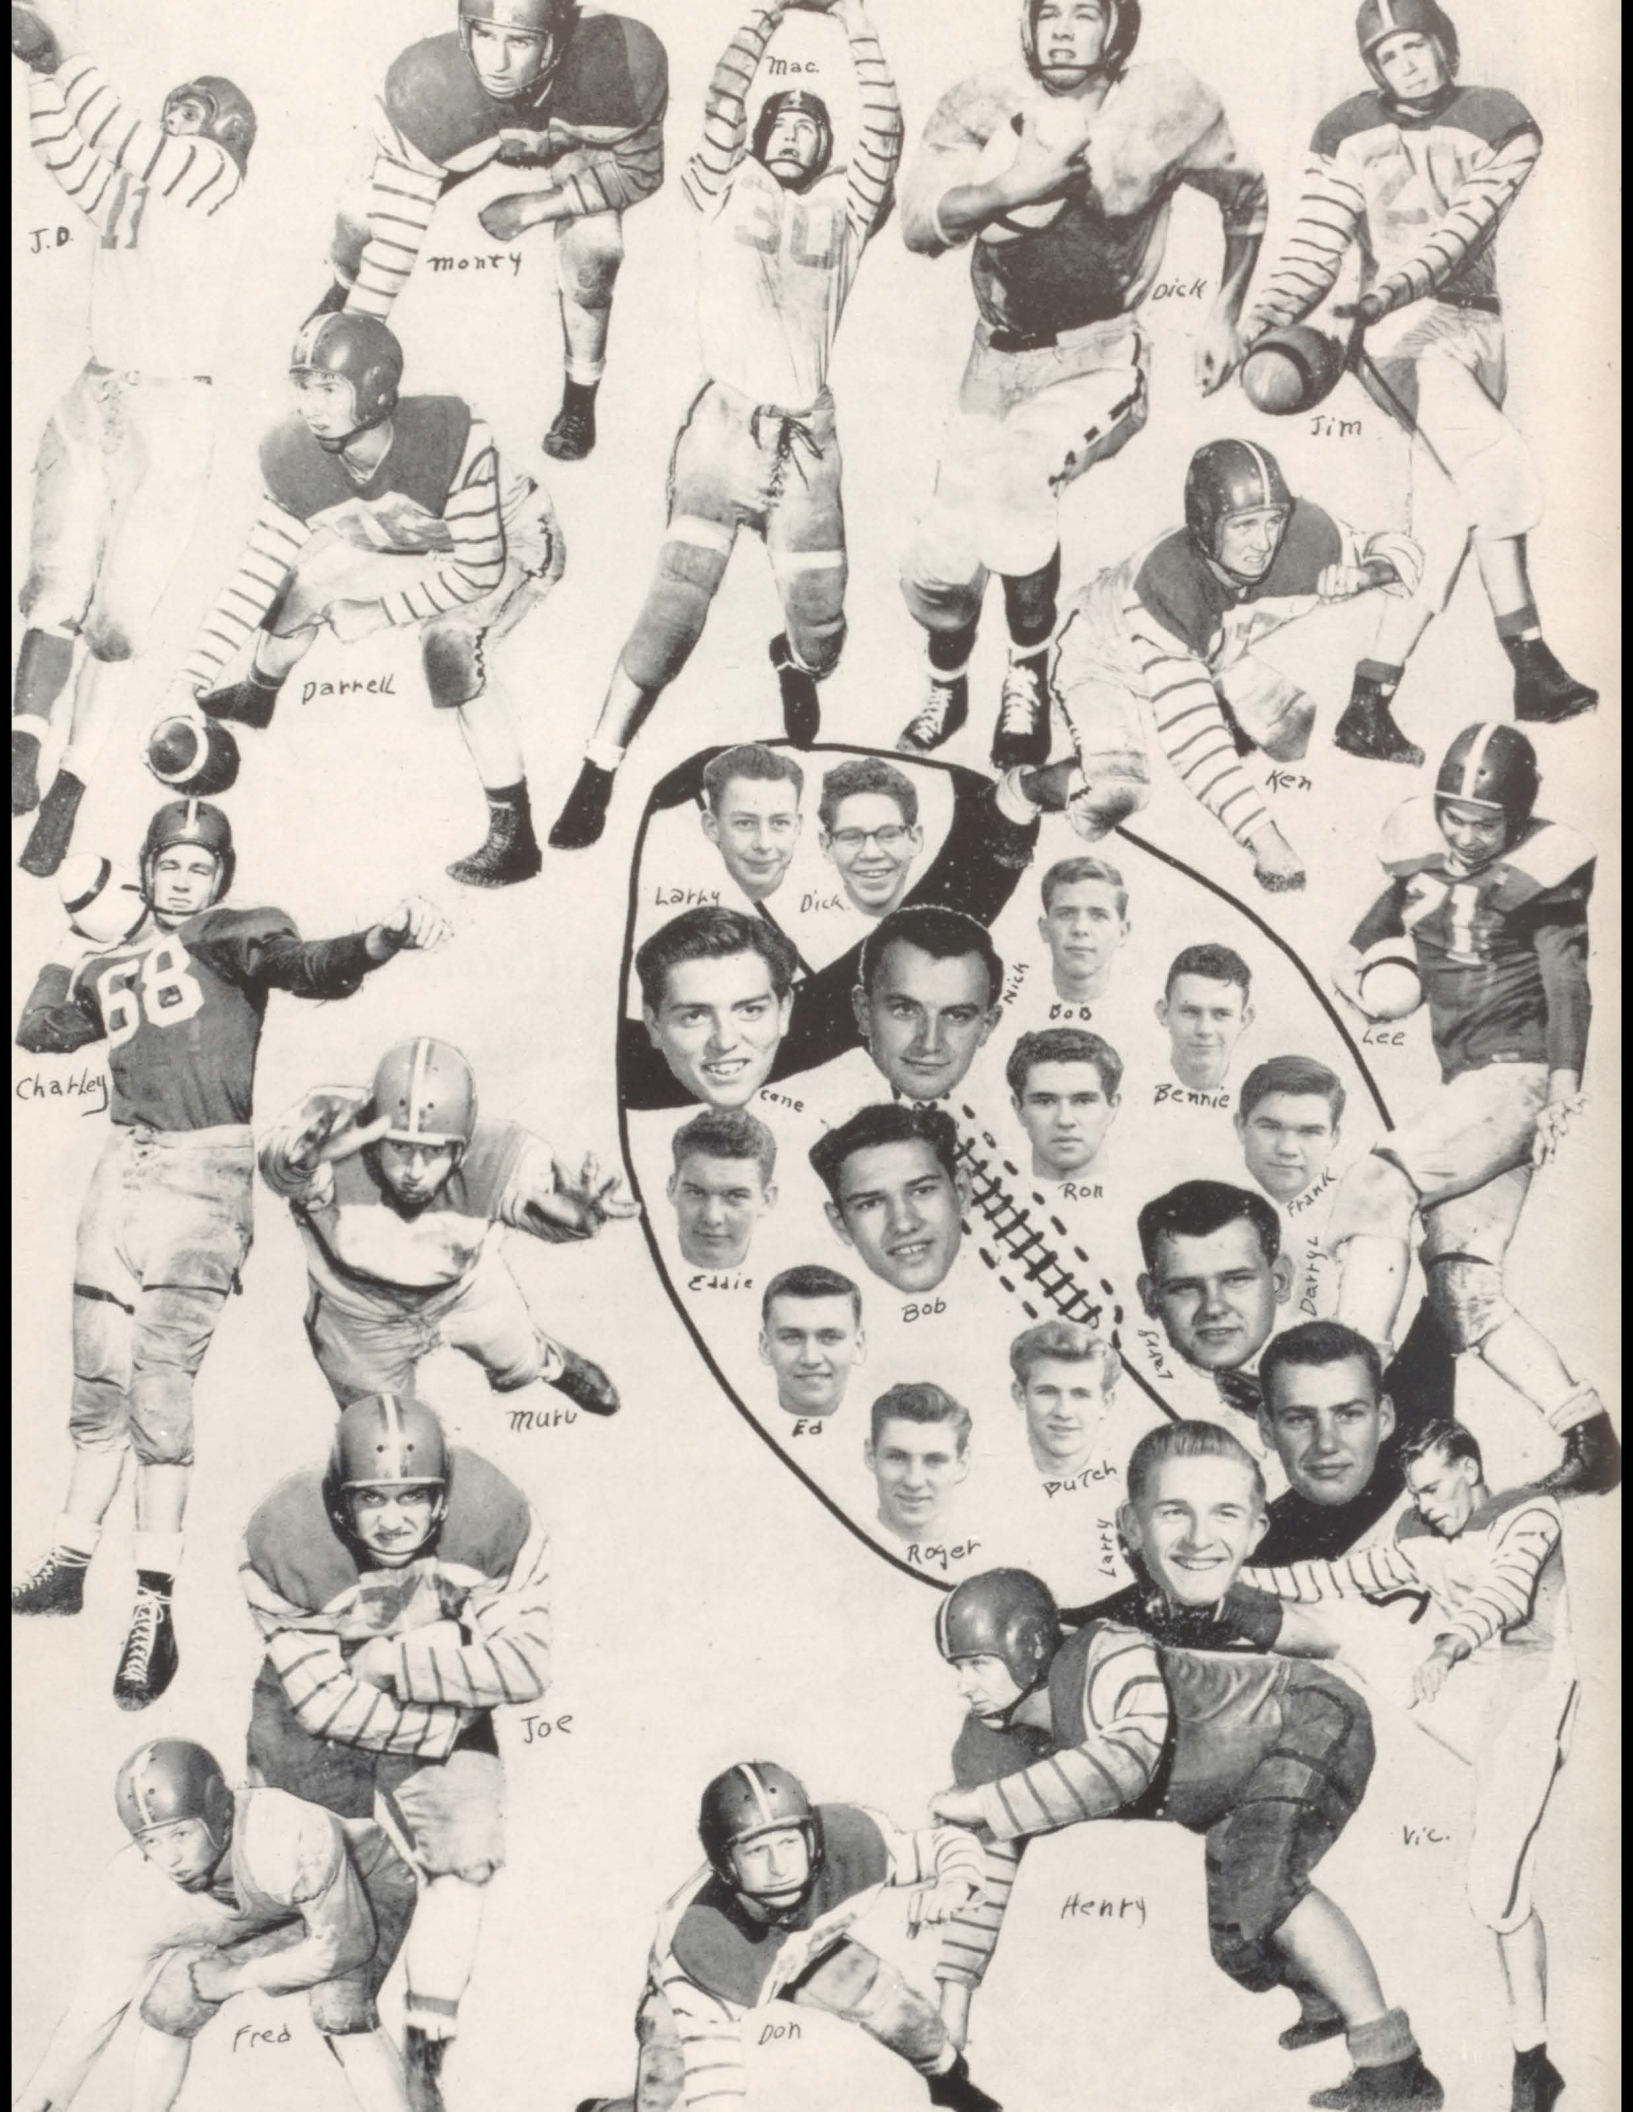

Looking back over the season's record we find the "B" squad losing all their games. The loss of these games, however, was no indication of the team's future potentials.

Five games were played against the following opponents: Corvallis, Albany, Salem, Scio and Sweet Home. In addition to the regular scheduled games, weekly scrimmage was held with the "A" squad.

Individual team captains were chosen for each game.

Many of the players showed to good advantage and will undoubtedly help the "A" squad next year. Some of these players are, ends Joe Miller, Don Allen and Dale Tewalt; tackles Bill Parker, Kivel Wilson, Jack Gatchall; guard Bill Winstead; quarterbacks Don Beaton and Benny Henderson; fullbacks Charles Bachman and Martin Lovik; defensive center Don Lindsey, and halfback Bud Miller.

All the players are to be commended for the enthusiasm and spirit shown throughout the season.

"A" Squad Football

We, the students of Lebanon Union High School, are proud of our fine football team and its two capable coaches, George Van Pelt and Bob Kane, who worked all season to produce the best team since the year of 1944. The mighty Warriors ended up their season with a seven win, two loss record.

After several weeks of practice and confusion of learning plays, our Warriors traveled to Dallas and returned with the first scalp of the season, defeating the Dragons to the tune of 15 to 6. A very happy Lebanon squad had won their first opening football game since 1949, when they beat Newport, 13 to 6.

The Warrior gridmen turned in another sterling performance in the second game of the season, downing a tough Albany eleven, 25 to 18 on the Newport field. This game would have been the highlight of any football game in the state. Our Warriors were behind, 18 to 6 at the half, but the Bulldogs didn't figure on the fighting spirit of Lebanon. Lebanon came back on the field and ended the game by holding Albany scoreless and scoring three touchdowns for our own cause.

Hopes were high as Lebanon came onto the field to take on the Corvallis High gridmen. Lebanon outplayed the Spartans all through the game but two blocked punts in the end zone ruined Lebanon's chances for victory. Final score — Lebanon, 21; Corvallis, 27.

Lebanon got back into the win column after the Corvallis heart-breaker by downing Redmond 6 to 0 on the Redmond field.

The following week, Lebanon trampled the Central Union Panthers, 35 to 0 on the Lebanon field. The Warriors allowed the Panthers only one first down.

Lebanon stayed in the win column with a 19-18 victory over the Bend Lava Bears on the Bend gridiron.

Lebanon crushed the Sweet Home Huskies, 20 to 0 the next week. The Huskies were "up" for this game against their ace rival and held the Warriors to a score of 7-0 at half-time but couldn't cope with the fine Lebanon spirit and allowed two more touchdowns in the fourth period.

In the Salem game, nothing seemed to go right for our gridiron men and it seemed that the Vikings could do nothing wrong. Final score — Lebanon, 7; Salem, 42.

The Lebanon football team came out onto the field with "blood in their eyes" the following week and ended the season with a 19 to 7 win over the Cottage Grove Lions. The Warriors ended the season in a second place tie in the district.

To end the season, Joe Sprague was chosen to represent Lebanon in the All-State Shriners game in Portland. Joe was also chosen all-state guard by all of the coaches in the state. Henry Erdwins was chosen as an alternate tackle on the Shriners All-State team. Other members of our team were chosen "All District."

Those graduating are: Joe Sprague, fullback; Don Scheler, guard; Henry Erdwins, tackle; Murvel Stone, end; Ron Hammer, tackle; J. D. Griffith, end; Bob Wilson, line-backer; Larry Crenshaw, tackle; Laurence Lindsey, guard; and Vic Dixon, quarterback.

Returning lettermen are: Darrell Fort, center; Monte Seigner, tackle; Dick White, half-back; Tyler Cone, guard; Larry Hoover, guard; Malcolm McBride, half-back; Roger Wold, guard; Lee Evans, guard; Charlie Pless, half-back; Ed Neustel, end; Jim Smith, half-back; Darryl Bishop, quarterback, and Benny Monroe, half-back.

With all of these returning lettermen plus our fine coaching staff, we, the students of Lebanon Union High School, can feel assured of a good team next year and the years that follow.

Wrestling

Wrestling at Lebanon High School is rapidly becoming one of the school's major sports. This year wrestling has had its most successful year since it was started five years ago under the able leadership of Coach Murie Wells.

The team's record as far as wins were concerned was ten out of twelve matches won. The only two matches lost was one to Klamath Falls, this year's state wrestling champs, and one to Albany. The Lebanon matmen later came back and scored an upset victory over Albany to gain revenge and snap a twenty-two match winning streak that the Bulldogs were riding on.

The Warrior grapplers then went on to gain local fame by snatching a district championship, the first district wrestling championship Lebanon had ever won. Of the possible twenty-four berths to the state tournament in district, the Warriors took twelve, six championships and six runner-up berths. The district champs from Lebanon were Ivan Winningham, 106 lbs.; Jim Beaton, 124 lbs.; Carol Lindsey, 136 lbs.; J. D. Griffith, 141 lbs.; Lyle Larson, 156 lbs.; and Lee Evans, 165 lbs. Those taking second place were Gary Parks, 98 lbs.; Bob Durham, 115 lbs.; Francis Lee, 124 lbs.; Lee Malick, 136 lbs.; Melvin Darby, 165 lbs., and Joe Sprague, 177 lbs.

These Lebanon boys then went on to give Lebanon state-wide fame by placing our school fifth out of approximately 40 schools represented in the State Wrestling Tournament at Corvallis.. Lebanon was narrowly edged out for fourth place by one point by Roseburg.

The Warrior grapplers who placed in the state tournament were, Ivan Winningham who made an excellent showing in the state tournament and placed second in the 106 lb. weight division; Lee Evans who lost his first match of the year to defending state champion, a senior from Molalla, by a close margin and gained second place in the 165 lb. weight division; and Joe Sprague who took fourth in the 177 lb. weight division.

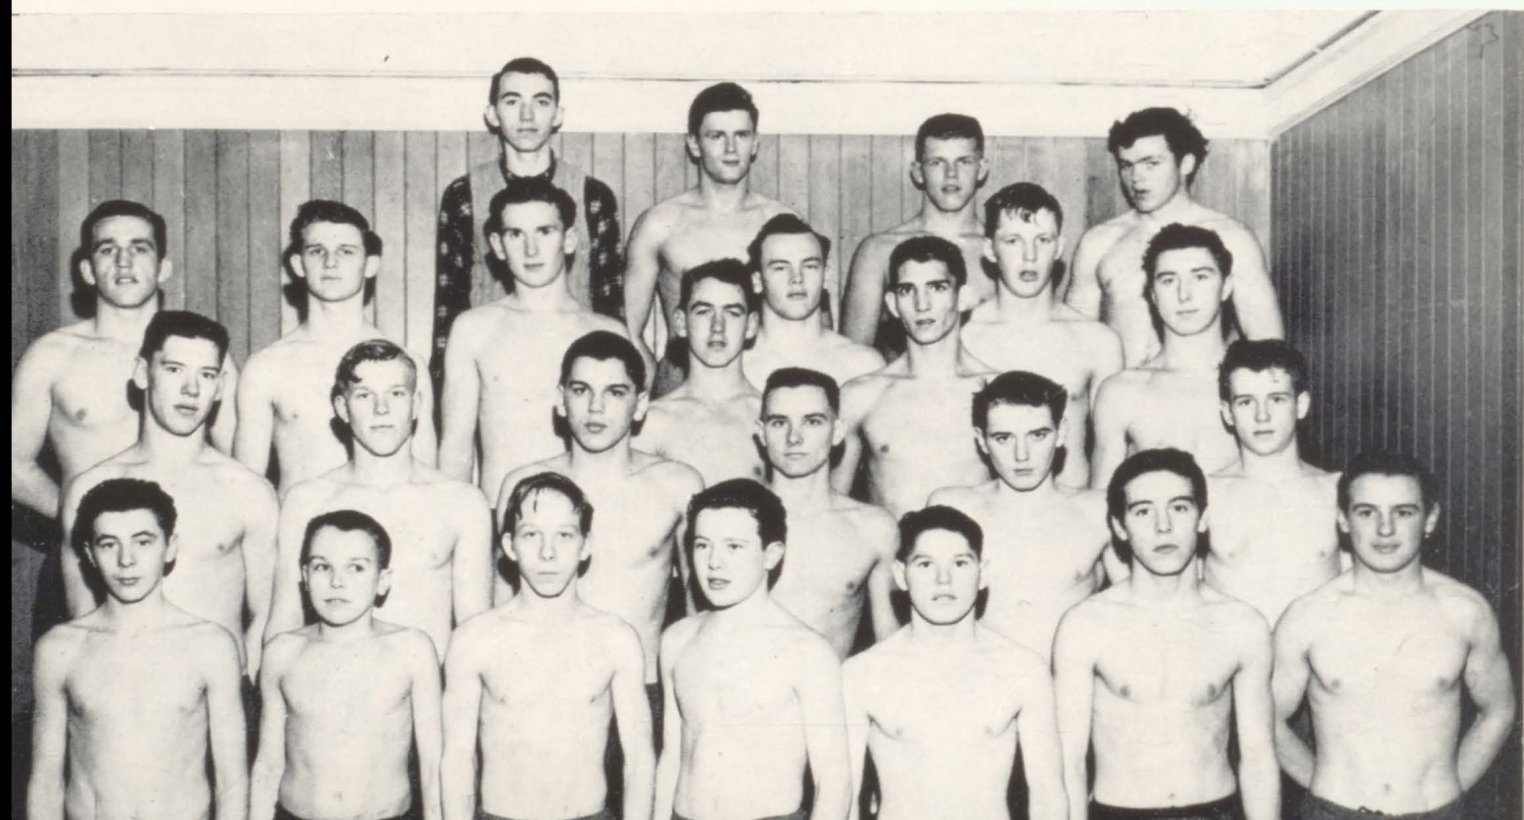

Lebanon's prospect for one of the best wrestling teams in the state next year are very good. This year only five seniors graduate. Next year should be the year in which Coach Murle Wells will shape up the best wrestling team that Lebanon has ever seen.

"A" Squad Basketball

The "A" squad was under the leadership of a new mentor this year. He is Bob Kane, formerly baseball coach, and assistant football coach. His team was composed of good ballplayers who won 9 games and lost 13. The team played better ball than the record appears, as three of their rivals went on to the state tournament.

Co-captains of this year's team were Dale Hasenyager and Vic Dixon. Some of the outstanding talents of the "A" squad were the amazing jumping of Vic Dixon, the shooting ability of "Mac" McBride, the point-making of Murv Stone, the driving of Dick Christenson, and the all around ballplaying of Monte Seigner, Ken Kirkelie, Don Carroll, Dale Hasenyager, Ed Neustel, Grant Kremers, Jerry Morrow, and Charles Pless.

The season began with the annual Jamboree where the West defeated the East. This was followed by two close games with McMinnville, which Lebanon lost. Then the Warriors came back and turned Sweet Home back twice to go on for wins. Astoria, followed by Seaside, then played Lebanon, who dropped the first game but won the tussle with Seaside. Next we went on to meet Willamette and, although we did not win, the boys put up one of their hardest battles of the year. During the remainder of the season Lebanon won both conference games with Sweet Home and the two thrillers played with Junction City; one game each from Toledo and Newport.

In one game with Albany the Warriors led at half-time, but the lead dwindled away in a fourth-quarter rally by the opposition. With another rival, Corvallis, Lebanon put up a good fight, but Corvallis finally pulled away.

High scoring honors this year went to McBride who amassed 245 points for the season. Co-captain Dixon was next highest, with the majority of his 162 points being made from outside the key.

Players receiving letters were: Dixon, Kirkelie, Hasenyager, Christenson, and Kremers, seniors; and McBride, Seigner, Neustel and Carroll, juniors.

Track

Lebanon had a better than average track team this year led by co-captains, Vic Dixon and Malcolm McBride. Members of the squad broke eight school records.

Outstanding in field events were Roger Wold, Vic Dixon, and Monte Seigner. Ed Erickson, Wayne McCrary and Doug Gatchell showed up good in the javelin.

Tom Griffith, Mack Wilcox, and Don Snyder led the thinclads in the distances.

The pole vault showed up with some good boys in Jack Fort, Ken Place, and David Stitt.

Malcolm McBride, Ronnie Bessonette, and Wally Slocum made up the hurdlers for the team.

The dash men were composed of Vernon Gentry, Deb Nichols, and Ron Hammer.

There are a lot of good prospects for state this year and some very promising underclassmen coming back next year.

Cross Country

This year the cross country team made its debut into the athletic field at L.H.S. The team was small but accomplished a great deal under the coaching of Earl Gerfen and the leadership of Captain Tom Griffith. Letter winners were captain Tom Griffith, Vernon Gentry, and Mack Wilcox. The team won one meet and lost three.

Baseball

The 1954 Warrior Baseball team although winning only three games while losing ten, showed to good advantage. The lack of experience was the deciding factor in losing four games by close scores.

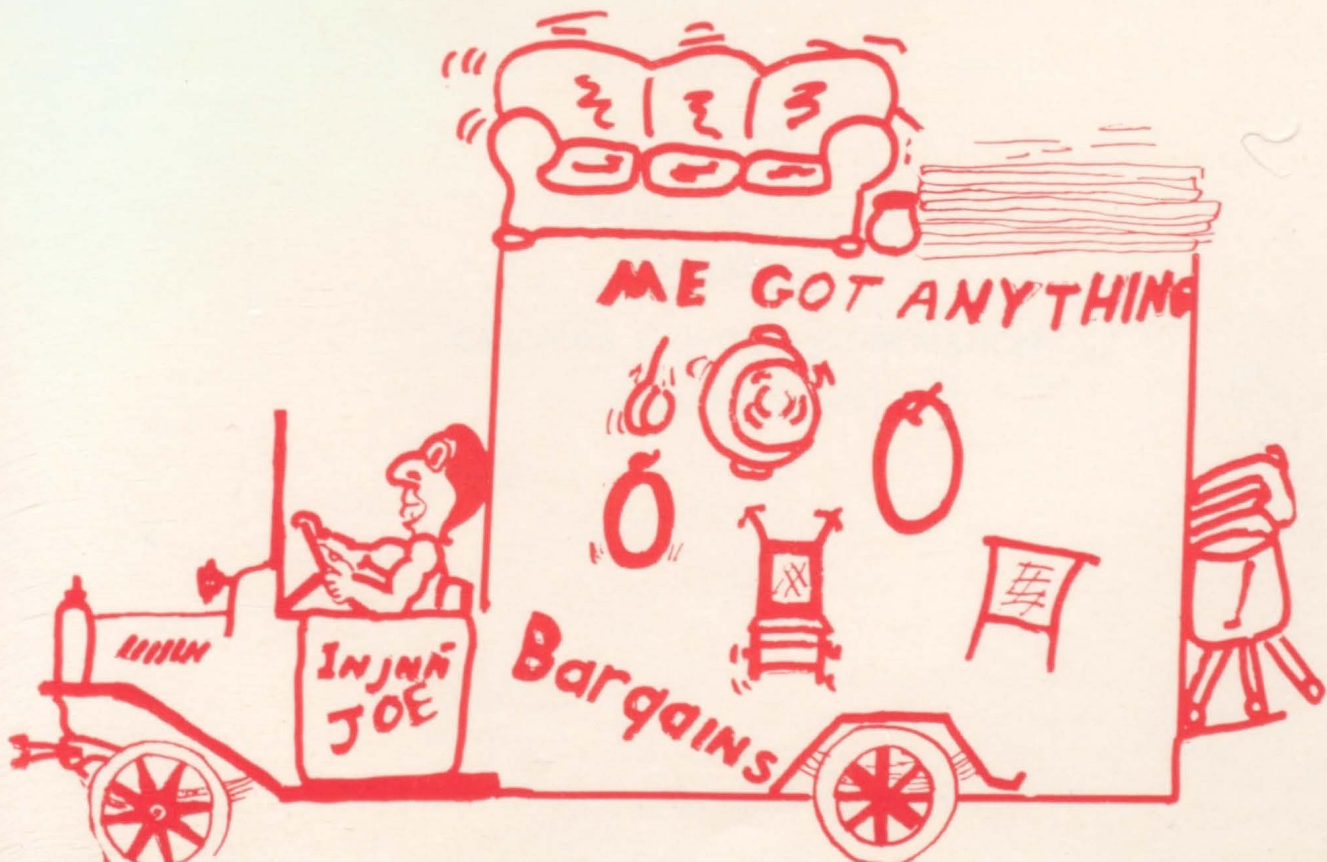

The team this year consisted of eight returning lettermen including a senior and seven juniors. We were also fortunate in acquiring three lettermen transfers: Dave Kemp, Grant Kremers, and Ray Pilcher.

The other team members were Pitchers Ed Neustel and Darryl Bishop; Catchers Wayne Lamphere and Nick Nicholas; Infielders Don Carroll, Ben Monroe, and Paul Kratzke; Outfielders Larry Hoover, Jim Hayden, Jerry Morrow, and Charles Pless.
