Sports! Activities! Students!

Lebanon students ended the year with a fierce pride in their school—and with just cause. Spirit soared as our football team proved the best in years under the leadership of a new head coach, Gleason Eakin. Our boys fought back the South Salem Saxons for two touchdowns, making us the only school to score more than once against the Saxons. In basketball, pandemonium broke loose as we ended a double overtime four points above these same league-leaders, when they had prepared themselves for a twenty point win. Need anyone question our spirit? Not when the entire student body swarmed onto the court after that hard-fought, long deserved victory.

Was it a good year only in sports? Oh, no...our students were not satisfied with accomplishments in only one field. In all of the year's activities, the student body truly outdid themselves. For the first time at our school, a downtown street rally was held the night before homecoming. School clubs decorated the merchants' windows to create adult interest. The traditional serpentine became a remarkable parade of enthusiastic students, snappy bands, and beautiful floats. Each class outdid itself to create the best designed and most professionally constructed floats ever displayed at the event.

With never a thought of slowing down, Lebanon began on the jamboree showing which gained them the admiration and envy of every other school in the district. The rally totally dedicated itself to their one goal: Lebanon was going to win! We had little to worry about as we came home with every award presented. The rally and pep club performed the most "Superb, totally perfect" routine ever presented to sweep off the coveted trophy, proving our team, and our pep club, was "Red Hot".

Why has the year been so successful? Solely because of the caliber of students which make up our student body. The senior class proved conscientious and diligent and was all too ready to carry out the ideas it had entertained for four years. The junior class was very capable and hard-working, setting an example for the entire school. The sophomores were ready to support the upper classmen, and the freshmen class was the liveliest ever.

To the seniors it was the best year ever.

To the freshmen it was a promise of years to come.

To all,

"It was a very good year . . ."

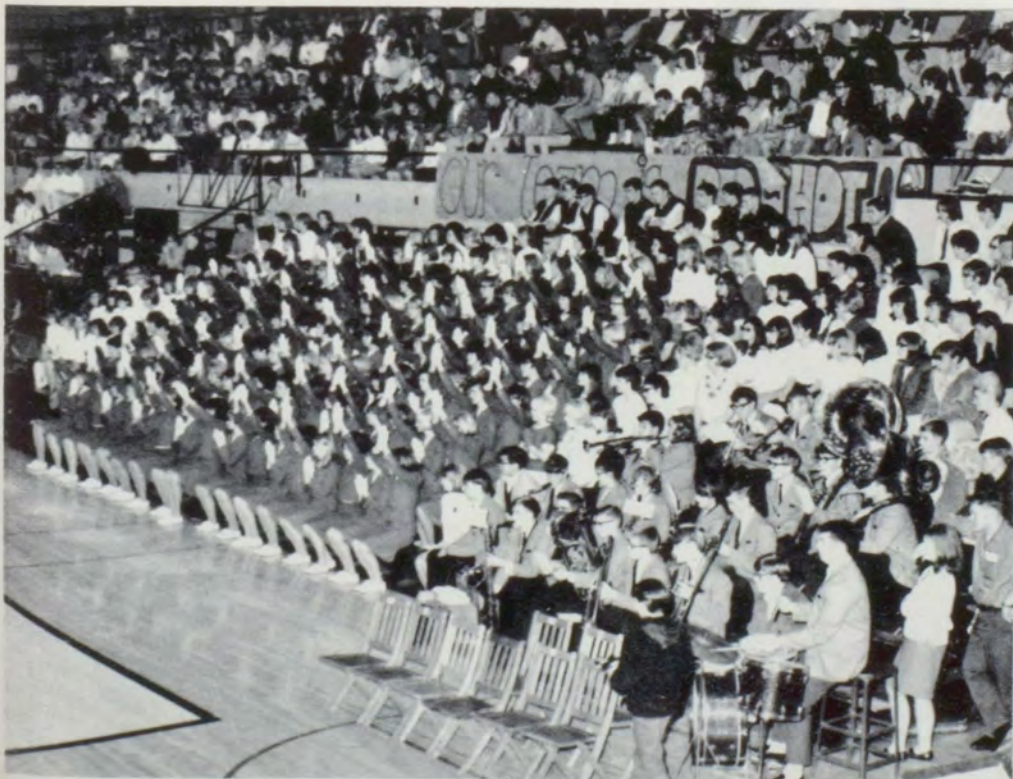

Nothing encourages participation like good old-fashioned class competition. Pep assemblies did much to stir the spirit which strongly showed at all our games. These senior boys, David Lawson, Glen Looper, Bill Quinton, Ron Passmore, and Cliff McPherson lend their lungs to the cause while Brian Messal adds moral support.

More enthusiasm is registered in the expressions on the faces of these junior U.S. History students. Leading this pep rally is Rip-Van-Phil Lemons, Steve Holbrook, Gary Watters, and Bob McConnell look enthusiastically on.

Linda Daugherty (under the rollers) demonstrates typical senior willingness (?) to work as she stuffs tissue into a senior class Homecoming float.

Rooks become freshman as Diane Cagle and Randy Wall enjoy extra helpings of syrup, starch, garlic, oatmeal and other choice tidbits.

Our team was indeed "Red Hot" as the Pep Band and Pep Club joined forces in grabbing all the honors at the District-8 jamboree. Empty chairs in foreground serve as evidence that this year's cheerleaders kept on their toes.

student body officers

I would like to begin by thanking my student body officers for helping make this a successful year. We all worked as a team, with each person doing a special job.

Dan, for instance, was the official L.H.S. guest greeter. He also held down the very important job of being in charge of the flags for our assemblies. Because his duties were not time consuming, and didn't require many brains, he therefore could divert his energies to more promising fields--such as his studies. After 180 days of this, his brain became so knowledge-packed, that when he took the National Merit Scholarship Test he placed nationally. This was followed by his selection as co-valedictorian of L.H.S. The future will probably see our devoted flag raiser on the Harvard campus; after that, who knows?? Vice-President of the Rest Room Monitors Association in the 6th grade, Vice-President of L. H. S., Vice-President of Harvard, and then our little "Hubey" may go even farther.

Karen, our able-bodied, blue eyed, dark haired,--well anyway she held all the qualifications of a student body secretary was really an asset to us. Believing strongly in student council, and strictly abiding by its decisions proved to be two of her few faults. Just because we happened to discuss affections in the halls during a student council meeting, try as I might, I just couldn't get her to sit on my lap. But I haven't given up, even yet!

Charlene, of course, was in charge of keeping the books and writing checks, but upon occasion, found herself in some unusual jobs. Such as the time that Karen was sick and Charlene became acting secretary for the student council meeting. It must be admitted that she wrote good minutes, but when the minutes were read, it appeared that not only the secretary was missing, but each and every other member of student council was gone. There appeared only one name--GUESS WHO?

Pam, by virtue of her cheerleading abilities, was the fifth member of the executive council. She rescued many meetings from boredom with her timely cheers. She got so carried away that by the end of the year we were starting the student council meetings with a cheer instead of the flag salute. Thanks largely to Pam's efforts, we unanimously passed a resolution that our school is Red Hot!

In spite of the leadership (?), we really have had a most successful year. This was due largely to YOU! Through your responsible behavior and outstanding cooperation, I have found that students do indeed make the school. This has truly been reflected by this years outstanding student body.

girls' and boys' staters

In the summer of 1966, American Legion furnished 19 boys and girls of LHS with the most rewarding experience of their high school days.

Girls' State consisted of 180 enthusiastic girls who were eager to learn about their country and make many new and lasting friendships. Although the week was a hectic one filled with speeches, lectures, campaigns, and meetings, there was still plenty of time for the girls to get to know one another more closely. As the week drew to an end each girl realized that her job as a citizen was both a privilege and a great responsibility.

Boy's State was the drawing together of 650 top leaders from high schools throughout the state. Under the inspiring leadership of their governor and first citizen, the boys took hold and gradually developed from a mass of individuals into one unified group. In one short week the ideals of citizenship and patronage were dwelled into the minds of all the staters. The friendships that emerged from that week will be ever lasting.

The five girls who represented Lebanon at Girls' State were (from l.) Charlene Bicek, Marie Leonard, Lois Truax, Yvonne Wills, and Karen Woods.

"He's kind of cute for a teacher," squeaks a female matriculator. Male observers seem equally unconcerned for Mr. Stennick's ability to process registration cards.

Bowed heads identify registrants eagerly poring over their special-edition copies of the Hi-Light. Other cock-eyed heads identify lens-loving showoffs.

"Pass the pencils down here," was a familiar cry on registration day. Lonnie Moore's hair grew two and three-eighths inches before he finally got one. However, this was not a record, as boy in foreground had to wait almost three years.

rook initiation

"Freshman reception day" could easily have been the most foreseen day of the year; the day anticipated by 296 seniors, and dreaded by 435 freshmen and 70 faculty members.

It was not hard to spot a rook on this special day. Anyone garbed in a dirty T-shirt, green diaper, and bathing cap was likely to be a freshman. It was almost as easy to spot the seniors as they scurried about the halls devising hideous chores for their subjects. The halls crawled with rooks carrying books, polishing shoes, and singing the school song from the tops of the cafeteria tables.

The afternoon assembly was hardly so refined! The unspoken motto was "Anything goes!" Some lucky rooks were plastered with every mixture imaginable at the senior-run "beauty shop" while others rode tricycles, threw pies, and sang solos.

At the end of the day the freshmen looked, and felt, like the bottom of a garbage can and began anticipating the day in 1969 when they would get revenge.

I said easy on the whipped cream!

High-flying Jerry Gazeley hangs tight as Mike Bolman searches for a landing area in the first annual Freshman Rodeo try-outs.

John Bailey moves placidly on and Bob Smith shows but casual interest as Raelyn Sutton's arm becomes stuck in the gutter.

When asked by their classmates what was in their hair, (l to r) Susanne Denker, Sharon Daughtery, and Karen Richey replied, "Only our hairdressers know for sure!" And the only ones who knew it was really molasses, oatmeal, and sawdust, were Kathy Sabin, Yvonne Wills, Pam Denham, and Connie McCann.

The traditional serpentine sported the Friday night homecoming festivities. High spirited rally squads, pep club, and hundreds of boisterous students weaved their way from the Elks Lodge to the high school field for a game with South Salem.

The Patriots

Spirit soared high at the downtown rally Thursday night. Varsity cheerleaders led the lively crowd in yells, chants, and songs at the corner of Ash and Main. Many students stayed on for the streetdance provided by the patriots from Corvallis. Imaginative store-window displays created by various high school clubs added interest in homecoming activities.

Hours upon hours of expert planning and tedious preparation won the coveted float trophy for the junior class.

Still another tradition is our homecoming floats. This year all classes truly outdid themselves to create the most magnificent floats ever displayed at this event. In the secrecy of their separate workshops each class, hoping to outshine all others in competition, used its ingenuity to create a float.

This year the senior class devised a float for each of their three princesses. The top float "A Welcome to Alumni" carried Maid of Honor, Hallie Warden. Queen Sue graced the main float, "A Warrior Welcome." The third float (bottom) "A Welcome to Mary Lee" was for our exchange student, Mary Lee Zadro.

The annual Senior sponsored Winter Formal was presented on December 18, 1966 at 8:30 P.M. in the high school cafeteria. The decorations consisted of huge silver and blue bells hanging from the ceiling, and a white Christmas tree in the center of the room. To carry out the season of Christmas, Gerald Schwary and the Shadows played many Christmas songs among their selections. A piece of mistletoe hung above the door at the entrance of the dance, and although many took advantage of it, only a few got caught by the evil eye of the camera.

Ready...! Set...! Go...!

Twirp week was off to a flying start as the girls flew frantically down the halls trying to reach their favorite fellow. After this primary attack, the girls swarmed to the student body office to invest in twirp tags and have their names put on the giant twirp board in the main office. As the initial impact wore off, the girls became content with carrying the boys' books, opening doors, and waiting hand and foot on the delighted boys. As the week progressed, each day brought a clever variation to the twirp theme. One day the couples dressed alike, the next the girl and her guy clashed, and on still another, the girl dug into her purse to buy her date's lunch. One of the final festivities was the battle between the senior girls and the junior girls in a semi-feminine Powder Puff Football game. The senior girls showed their strength by overcoming their opponents 19 to 6. The frolicking week ended on Friday night with the twirp dance: and the fellows facing 51 weeks of footing the bill.

The outcome of the voting was revealed at the twirp dance with the "crowning" of Queen Pam Denham and King Dan Peterson.

This play concerns the manner in which humans shape one another, and tells the story of a troubled teen-age girl who is steered away from a hazardous life of escapism by the love of a boy who has himself learned to face reality. The leading character, Melinda Grant, yearns for a mother's love and guidance, for young companionship, for personal identity. This identity she seeks in the role of Juliet in a school production of Romeo and Juliet, and thereby meets Will Henderson. This play was a smashing success for the sponsor, Mr. Burtner, and the entire Thespian troupe and cast.

red hot"

"Our team is RED HOT" was the theme Lebanon took to the all-important jamboree held at Gill Coliseum in Corvallis on December 2. Not only the six peppy members of the pep squad but also the 150 members of the Pep Club spent many long and hectic hours in preparation of the combined dance and routine.

The week preceding the jamboree was the annual "Spirit Week." Each class had a specific color and competition ran high between the class for the "Spirit Week Trophy." A few of the spirit raising campaigns were rallies before school in the morning, serpentines throughout the halls headed by the Victory Bell, bands playing before school and at noon in the auditorium, competition yelling both noon hours between classes in the auditorium, with posters plastered throughout the halls, in the cafeteria and gym.

Patsy Moss leads a noon rally in the auditorium as each class attempts to out-yell the others.

With jumps of joy, tears of happiness, and cries of victory the ever-deserving Pep Club and rally squad received grand honors at the jamboree, winning the over all award given for sportsmanship, school spirit, and pep and rally.

As the week ended with the pep assembly, there seemed to be greater interest in team and school spirit and a determination to win the overall spirit trophy at the jamboree.

Another factor that makes the jamboree important is the closer relationship among the four schools represented: Lebanon, Albany, Corvallis, and Sweet Home. The jamboree is the time when the student bodies of schools can show each other just how much spirit and confidence each has in its respective team and school. No one could have doubted our spirit and confidence as Lebanon came home with every honor and award given. The jamboree became one more link in the chain which made this a "very good year..."

This is an example of the precision with which the Pep Club performed their clever routine.

Jim Carter makes an attempt to add two points to the score.

Though the year was often hectic and hurried, we also had our quiet moments and beautiful dances. This year's Girls' League Formal was certainly one of the most beautiful ever held at our school. The color scheme of red, pink and white was first evident in the entrance way of white lattice work and pink and red rose streamers. Our familiar cafeteria was temporarily transformed into an elegant ballroom by means of a beautiful red and white false ceiling. Streamers from the ceiling were drawn to the floor, encircling small red cupids standing on a black pedestal. The music was provided by the ever popular Grant and the Blueboys.

Grant and the Blueboys

The best stage performance ever presented in our community was produced by the choir, band, and drama departments on March 30 and 31. For the first time, these groups combined their efforts to produce a show of the caliber of a Broadway revue. The combination of the three groups made possible a wide variety of colorful dances, and flashy production numbers. On the left, the entire choir joins in the finale, a song dedicated to the most important people in the show, "The Audience". Below Kay Robertson dances a clever routine to the relaxed melody of "The Old Soft Shoe". The efforts of the drama and choir departments could not have produced such outstanding results without the help of the band. The band accompanied all the choir numbers and added much to the overall effect of "The Best of Broadway."

The shortest romance of the season takes place at this small counter as Sharon Daniels and Doug Lundberg (Right) exchange both sweet phrases and fiery words over a cup of "Coffee". The waiter is Dan Straney. The innocent bystander is Dana Livesay. (Right) Dondra Peters sings the lead part in "Calypso Joe".

"Burning lips! That gives me an idea!" And Franz Listz, better known as Mike Mary, is seized with the urge to produce still another great piano classic in "A Song to Forget".

What went wrong? Steve Burris, Wayne Hartman, Joyce Zeek, Mrs. Geymann, and Bill Moynihan attempt to find the mistake and correct it before the Thursday night performance.

One of the most colorful dances was the one in which Yvonne Wills, Dean Cole, Angie Surmon, and Mike Hobbs are forced to do "One More Samba" for the Brazilian tourists.

The stewardess, Karol Satrum, succeeds only in tormenting the passengers (Lyle Robertson, Ethel Cookson, and Doug Lundberg) as she explains a plane is much safer than a boat... after all, a boat might be hit by a falling plane.

The Court of this year's Carnival were: Amy Bresler and Doug Hurst—Sophomores; Queen Janet Crenshaw and King Raelyn Sutton—Seniors; Pat Grieve and Dean Cole—Juniors; and Sharon Daugherty and Rick Hayes (not pictured) Freshmen.

"daisies won't tell"

The Class of '68 chose as their theme "Daisies Won't Tell". The theme was carried out with small, medium and large yellow and orange daisies on the walls, and a "Daisy Tree". An orange waterfall added to the colorful decorations. The refreshment stand was decorated with small yellow daisies with orange centers. The picture-taking area was decorated with green funeral grass, a small white picket fence, with of course, the colorful daisies. The center of the evening was the introduction and the setting for the court and the coronation of the queen. On the drawn curtains of the stage were multi-colored bugs and daisies. The queen carried a long-stemmed bouquet of yellow carnations, while the court carried small bouquets of daisies to match their dresses.

One of the most anticipated assemblies of the year is the one in which the Pep Club shows the student body the routine they will use that night to compete in the jamboree. The Pep Club is present at all pep assemblies to do yells and help the cheerleaders promote spirit.

Many weeks of hard work went into each candidates campaign of posters, tags, and other gimmicks. During the final week before the voting, posters were hung and tags were handed out, to help the student body begin the difficult task of choosing "the best candidate." may day

The 1967 May Day Festivities started at 8:00 in the morning with the invasion of approximately 400 8th graders. This day was to be an orientation of the eighth graders to LUHS. When school began the 8th graders filed into the auditorium. Here the program of the day began with the introduction of this year's student body officers which in turn introduced next year's student body officers.

Mike Mary and Ed Osterman both gave speeches which explained the school's activities, teachers, clubs, and classes.

Entertainment was next on the agenda (provided by the high school choir). The 8th graders next divided up into small groups with a junior or senior as the leader and went on a tour of the school.

They were able to enter classes and observe. The leaders tried to explain the purpose of each of the classes. This class of 8th graders were not ones to break tradition; between changes in classes they all congregated at suicide corner ready to take the consequences.

If the 8th graders were fortunate enough to survive suicide corner, they then were served lunch.

After lunch was the highlight of the day's activities, the introduction of the May Day Court and the Coronation of Queen Pam I by student body president Mike Mary. After the coronation, entertainment for the court was provided by the Girls' and Boys' Glee Clubs, a trombone quartet, and a selection from the high school band.

School was then dismissed but May Day was not yet concluded. After school the Varsity baseball team had a game with McNary, and that night was the annual May Day Dance with music provided by Grant and the Blue Boys. During the dance Queen Pam and her court were introduced. The dance concluded the 1967 May Day Festivities.

inter-activity council

The Inter-Activity Council is made up of the President of each school club. Its main purpose is to discuss school problems and to consider suggestions and grievances presented by the clubs.

IAC is a very powerful and important organization in that it has indirect control over fifty per cent of the student body belonging to clubs. It is through IAC that major school problems are brought to the attention of the students and the role of student responsibility is strengthened.

This year IAC's main project was sponsoring a carnival entitled "Through A Looking Glass." Each of the clubs had booths which in turn were named after fairy tales. Each club will receive an equal amount of the money taken in. Also, a portion of the money earned from the project is going into the Student Lounge Fund.

Steve White, co-chairman of the I.A.C. sponsored carnival, explains the last minute details of the event.

girls league council

Girls' League is the organization to which every girl in the high school belongs. The purpose of the Girls' League is to develop in each individual girl better character and citizenship and to create good relationship and harmony among all girls. The activities of the organization are planned by the Girls' League Council which is made up of the Girls' League officers and three representatives from each class.

Some of the programs Girls' League sponsor are: A big-little sister program, which provides new students with a "big sister" to help them around the school; the annual Twirp Week, where the girls invite the boys to a dance; and the Girls' League Formal, which is held on Valentine's Day. They also sponsored a magazine drive, the proceeds of which go toward a scholarship.

Each month they award one girl from each class a card for some particular characteristic and she is known as "Girl of the Month." At the end of the year at their installation, Girls' League awards a necklace and a card to a girl from each class as "Girls of the Year."

key club

Key Club sets as its aim serving the school and community and developing those aspects of leadership and citizenship in its members.

This year Key Club was active in booster-button sales, to stimulate spirit for the last home football game and the up-coming basketball jamboree. They also decided that the boy of the month program was too worthwhile to drop. Therefore the Key Clubbers got together and worked out a new boy of the month program which it has put into action. It is customary that Key Club and its sponsoring Kiwanis organization work closely together. This year we have established a key-pal program to give each member of Key Club an adult friend from Kiwanis Club. Key Club also has worked out a Junior Kiwanis Club and sends two members every two weeks to the Kiwanis meetings. This last year Key Club and Kiwanis went out and picked up Christmas Trees. We have supervised such functions as the Donkey basketball game, and the free show on "kids day" and the Junior High School Jamboree.

This is Key Club's first year at L.U.H.S. and even though we have had a shakey start, we know that next year will be a lot better one for Key Club.

hi-light

A new advisor, a green staff, and a lot of deadlines combined to make the 1966-67 year look like one of coming chaos and confusion for the Hi-Light. But, to the amazement of nearly all involved, the first issue came out on schedule. (It is rumored that this was also the last issue to come out on schedule, but the editor refused to confirm this.) Credit for a successful year in the face of overwhelming odds goes to advisor Mr. Crone, a diligent bevy of reporters, and a fast learning staff, which included editor Dan Merzenich; associate editor Barbara Wilkinson; business manager Jane Geymann and her associate, Nancy Holt; sports editor Steve Plinski and his associate Steve Post; feature editor Greg Holden; and photographer Mike Warner.

Typist-er-editor, Dan Merzenich discovers that thumbs, fingers, and typewriters don't mix, as he attempts to use both hands at once.

Steve Plinski and Nancy Holt demonstrate qualities evident in every phase of the Hi-Light's publication—ambition, alertness, articulateness...z z z z z

Always alert and on the job, Mike Warner cautiously lurks in the Hi-Light room to get a surprise picture of himself.

annual staff

The Warrior staff was confronted with the challenge of compiling and recording the activities of the 1966-67 school year. In an attempt to produce the best annual possible, the staff introduced many new ideas and changed some traditional concepts.

One of the biggest changes was the extra coverage given to the club section. Our photographers found their biggest job in trying to cover over forty organizations in addition to the student life. As an added incentive, the staff worked to better the 1966 Warrior which received a second place rating from Columbia Scholastic Press Association.

Our dear photographer, Mike Warner, spent every waking minute within the close walls of our little darkroom ... they took him away today!

Jim Carter, Steve Johnson, and Linda Gazeley work to finish the last few pages of the sports section.

Membership in the Honor Society is based upon one's grades throughout high school. New members are tapped each fall from the sophomore, junior, and senior classes. Members must maintain a G. P. A. of 3.5 to remain in the club.

Honor Society has had many activities this year including a light bulb sale, a slave auction and carnival booth.

Each year at installation, a citizen of the community is presented with a plaque and honorary membership for outstanding service to the students at L. U. H. S.

The library club has had an interesting and successful year under the guidance of Mr. Leppink. This club is composed of the past and present library science students.

During the year library club took a field trip to the Oregon State Library which proved beneficial to the students. Its chief purpose is to improve our school library. The work consists of processing new books, taking care of the circulation desk, overdue books and fines, and assisting students in locating materials in the library.

paleteers

Paleteers is a creative club whose purpose is to promote appreciation of art throughout the high school and the community.

This year Paleteers major activities were the preparation of the May Day decorations and various school and community art projects. The members artistic talent showed through when Paleteers won the trophy for the cleverest Homecoming window in November.

Several students sold their paintings in order to raise funds for the club; money was also derived from candy sales, the concession stand, proceeds from the carnival, and the sale of student-made wreaths during the Christmas season.

To promote exceptional talent, two one-hundred dollar scholarships were awarded to senior members for further study in the field of art. Underclassmen also received recognition, as gifts were presented to those who excelled in art and showed a sincere enthusiasm in the club's activities.

thespians

In addition to their acting duties, Thespian members spend many hours behind the scenes painting scenery, setting up props, and working on lighting and special effects. Here Susie McCombs, Marie Leonard, and Karen Fritz perform in "Teach Me How To Cry", one of the finished products of many hours of work.

During the seventh period forensics class, Toni Atkins prepares her oratory for the next speech contest.

The Forensics class at Lebanon High has known both a very successful and rewarding year. Acting both as a class (which meets seventh period every day) and a club, this activity is designed for students who have a speech background and wish to advance into competitive forms of speaking.

In the classroom students are given instruction as to the proper preparation and presentation of different speech forms. Various conventions or contests are held throughout the state in which Lebanon students are able to test their skill at mastering these techniques. Among these are conventions held at Bend, Corvallis, Dallas, Linfield, and for those successful members—the District and State Conventions.

There are eight forensics activities offered at Lebanon; these are: oratory, debate, impromptu, interpretive reading, extemporaneous speaking, dinner speaking, and radio commentary. Yet, whether reading, broadcasting, reciting, or debating, the forensics group will admit that while forensics may be a little bit of work, there is a lot of fun and many rewards in it for those who are interested.

I.R.L. president, Terrye Henderson, spends many of her extra hours planning meetings and projects for her club.

International Relations League is a service organization and is open to all who wish to join. The purpose is to study international relations, to try to understand the world's situation today, and to promote better understanding of international affairs in our school and community.

During the year we have had various activities and projects. Among them were the annual UN Banquet, a joint I.R.L.-Key Club Christmas-caroling Party, a contribution to CARE, the sponsoring of our Korean orphan under the Foster Parent Plan, and our contributing to the American Field Service. The highlight of the year was the State Conference held at Lewis and Clark College in Portland. This year the conference was set up as a model UN, with Lebanon representing France.

Throughout the year we have also had various fund raising projects. We received money from an after-game rally dance, the concession stand, candy sales, and the sale of plastic covers for the annual.

Now that the year is almost at a close, there are only a few I.R.L. meetings left, but as an internationally-minded club the members will try to always abide by the American Field Service Motto which reads: "Walk together, talk together, O ye people of the earth; then and only then shall we have peace."

future business leaders

Bev Robertson — Cindy Bartruff

The Future Business Leaders of America are those students who are interested in a business or secretarial career. For this reason, membership is limited to those students who are enrolled in at least one business course.

The activities of this club are numerous as they are able to cover such a wide scope. Among the major events are: the preparation of the All Skills Test for the State F.B.L.A. Convention, gathering and publishing the annual Snoop

Cindy Bartruff

Scoop, and selling buttons at Homecoming.

Funds for these activities are raised by candy sales, car washes, and the joint F.B.L.A.-D.E.C.A. Box Social. The latter, held in April, is a social event between members of the two clubs and Lebanon's businessmen. The money derived from the Social will be used to send Lebanon F.B.L.A. members to the National F.B.L.A. Convention in San Francisco.

Linda Natterer (above) and Sanda Ray (below) were two of the many girls who spent days at various grade schools for F. T. A.

Future Teachers of America is a national program for high school students who are interested in the teaching profession. Membership is open to those who are interested in teaching.

The highlight of the year is the two week "Visitation" period, in which sophomore, junior, and senior club members attend and participate in classes of Lebanon schools. Choosing the class level of their choice, these students are excused from their classes on alternating half-days for two weeks. At this time they are able to experiment with different age groups, as well as actually do some instructing in the classrooms.

Other activities include pot-luck dinners, serving at high school teacher's teas, and attending the State Convention at Ashland.

Funds for these, and other activities, are derived from the concession stand, candy sales, and the sale of memory books.

Future Nurse Club's purpose is to be of Service to the community and to acquaint its members with the nursing field. Under the supervision of Mrs. Emma Snelling the Candy Strippers of L.H.S. put in two hours of service every week at the hospital or a nursing home. One of the main projects of the club this year was "Project Helpmate". It consisted of a drive to collect books, pens, and soap to send to our men in Viet Nam. Also, the future nurses assisted when the blood mobile was in town.

Distributive Education Club of America is designed for those students who are interested in entering the business world. The club, open to juniors and seniors, tries to acquaint its members with the retail business and how it functions. Through the club members are placed in local business firms and are able to obtain experience in this type of work.

Activities this year have included a trip to Lloyd Center where members were able to view first-hand how retail business firms function, a joint FBLA-DECA Box Social, and the State DECA Convention at Dallas.

Funds for the club's treasury were raised through candy sales, the selling of Christmas cards, wrapping paper, and ribbons, as well as proceeds from the IAC carnival.

biology

The main purpose of Biology Club is to stimulate interest in the biological sciences. During meetings the club has members present demonstrations, or projects and speakers from different fields of science. Throughout the year it has field trips which promote an interest in the outdoors. The main project this year is a large sea life aquarium which will be a benefit to the school. Also, the club is planning on participating in the school carnival. The annual field trip to the coast is planned for this spring.

The purpose of the Girls' Athletic Association is to stimulate an active interest in girls' athletics and to teach girls sportsmanship, courtesy, how to get along with others, and to develop the playing ability of the individual in various sports.

To become a member, a girl must earn thirty-five points. She may earn them by participating in playdays and playnights, coming to meetings, and by participating in various sports.

G.A.A. activities started off this year with a playnight in which all girls interested in joining the organization were invited. Following this event numerous playdays were held in which various area schools—Corvallis, Albany, Central Linn, and Sweet Home—competed with Lebanon girls in both basketball and volleyball. This year the G.A.A. members attended both the State Convention at Stayton and the District Convention at Saint Paul High School.

Funds for these activities were raised from car washes, profits from the concession stand, and an after-game dance.

The purpose of Lettermen's Club is to foster sportmanship, school spirit, and act as a service club for the school. Some of the activities Lettermen's Club participated in this year were parking cars during football season, and seating the student body during the various assemblies. The Lettermen's Club has a large membership. After earning a letter each boy must be voted into Lettermen's Club by a two-thirds majority.

The Lebonskis is an active group whose purpose is to promote skiing and an interest in skiing and physical fitness. Membership is obtained through a point system based on skiing and club activities.

Entertaining and educational ski films are shown by the club throughout the school year for any interested person. The club has furnished the library with ski books and magazines that are available for the entire student body.

This year Lebonskis has sponsored about nine bus trips to Hoodo Ski Bowl. In March the initiation of new members was held at Hoodo with the initiates and some members following an exciting uphill-slalom course. All new members were awarded Lebonskis emblem patches. If possible, the group will sponsor a water-ski trip and picnic before the close of school.

John Watt gets a chuckle as he realizes that those fancy drafting pencils can draw more than buildings.

Awaiting breathlessly the results of a blueprint attempt, Russell Olson is almost afraid to look at his latest creation.

Drafting Club offers educational and career opportunities for students with two or more years of background in drafting. Field trips to Northwest industries, such as Boeing in Seattle, and movies about industrial production introduce members to modern applications of drafting skills. In addition, the club encourages drafting careers by awarding annual fellowships to deserving members.

power mechanics

The Power Mechanics Club is made up of only those boys highly interested in the mechanics field. The club does work on students' cars and it is open to perform service repairs for the public. The money earned by the club from auto-service, sale of products, rally dance, raffles, and concession stand will be issued to outstanding members in the form of small scholarships.

Selling auto supplies is one of many ways the Power Mechanics club raises money for their scholarship fund. (l. to r.) Steve Parvianen, Bob McCown, and Bryan Messal consider some car wax.

Mike Hickey cautiously boards the airplane cockpit which is located in the aviation room.

Aviation club is designed for those high school students interested in working with and studying airplanes, as well as related areas of aviation.

This year activities included the annual visit to Portland International Airport, a trip to Camp Adair, and interesting aviation movies shown at monthly meetings. An activity that not only required skill, but also stimulated interest was the Model Airplane Contest. For this Competition all members constructed and assembled model airplanes and prizes — as high as ten dollars—were awarded to the most skillfull participants.

The Fire Squad is an organization that is in charge of maintaining the fire fighting equipment of the school. The duties of the members during a fire drill are to close all windows, turn off all lights, and direct traffic to the proper exist. In case of fire, the members in the vicinity of the fire will use the equipment at hand to extinguish the fire or hold it in check until the city fire department can arrive.

The Fire Squad is composed of juniors and senior boys who are interested in fire prevention and whose academic standing is above average. Late in the spring, sophomore boys who are interested in the organization may obtain a petition from one of the members or the advisor of the organization. After processing the petitions for academic qualifications the qualifying petitions are submitted to the organization for balloting. The candidates receiving the most votes are elected to fill the vacancies in the club.

Funds for the club are attained through the sales of programs at football and basketball games. The club also sponsored an after game dance in order to raise money.

The funds raised were used to buy pins for all the senior boys in the club. The remaining money is used at the discretion of the members.

varsity rally

1966-67 proved to be a very good year for the Varsity Rally girls. During the summer they attended cheerleading clinic at Lewis and Clark College where they received third place ribbons and a third place rating for over-all competition on the last day. They returned home with many yells and ideas to begin their preparation for jamboree. After what seemed like months and months of practice and hard work, the night of jamboree came. With an outstanding performance the cheerleaders and pep club managed to "walk away" with the first place trophy.

Few realize the work that these girls put forth, not only in preparing yells and dances to promote spirit, but also in preparing the many pep assemblies that were given throughout the season. After a victorious year, lots of work, and plenty of pep, our Varsity cheerleaders retired for a much needed rest.

Led by Senior halfback Jim Roosa, who gained over 1,000 yards, the Warrior team serged to a come-from-behind start and finished the season with a 4-5 record. The Warriors also ended in a third place tie with McNary, behind Albany and District Champ, South Salem who also finished second in state.

Many outstanding performers gained recognition by their positions on the District 8 All-Star Team: Steve Cantwell, offensive guard—second team; Mark Copeland, offensive guard and defensive linebacker—first team; Gary Remillard, offensive end first team; Neil Gilbertson, defensive end—first team; Al White, offensive halfback—second team; and Jim Roosa, offensive halfback and defensive back second team.

The season started against Ashland in what proved to be an experimental showing of the capabilities of the young team. With this background, Coach Gleason Eakin drew his forces into a more productive machine which rolled over the Prineville Cowboys 42-0. The spirited Warriors, although handicapped physically, struggled to the end before handing over a well earned victory to McNary. Lebanon's evenly-developed offense scored two touchdowns against the heavily favored Crater team only to lose 26-13.

After meeting a tough second district team, the Warriors felt the great power of numerous individual Albany standouts. This potentiality drove the Bulldog to a 19-7 win.

Enthusiastically supported by the L. U. H. S. students, the Homecoming spirit penetrated into the minds of the determined Warrior team. Lebanon, showing superior teamwork managed to break the massive wall of South Salem. Lebanon experienced the honor of the only team in the district to score two touchdowns against the Number Two team in the state.

Moved on by the great moral victory gained in the South Salem game, the Warriors destroyed the North Salem Vikings 18-0.

Eakin's machine, now in high gear, sped from the long traditional defeat by Corvallis, and turned the tide of the opposition, putting them back

Now showing positive unity, the victorious-minded Warriors handed their final defeat to the arch-rival Sweet Home Huskies 18-0.

In summing up football fortunes of his first year at Lebanon Union High School, Coach Gleason Eakin said "Success of any football team depends on many factors. Probably the most important factors are physical ability and mental attitude. Our 1966 team was a little short of physical ability but we were long on mental attitude. In September we were a fine group of boys but by November, we were a fine group of young men who believed 'All for one and one for all'."

A South Salem halfback seems to be pleading the Warriors, Jim Roosa and Jim Carter, to let him catch the pass.

Halfback Al White strains for a completion that would have given the Warriors vital yardage for an important first down. The incomplete pass cost the Warriors the first down and control of the football.

The speed of the "scrapper" was too much for the defenders as he gained enough yardage on the play to pick up the first down.

Made up of sophomores and juniors, the J. V. team put together a .500 season as they finished with a record of 4 wins and 4 losses. The team, coached by Thurman Bell and Larry Stennick, had single wins over Newport, Corvallis, and a double win against Sweet Home. The losses were at the hands of McNary, Albany, South Salem, and North Salem. The players improved with every game and often played better than the final score showed. Many players will advance up to the varsity team next year which will aid in the foreseen prosperous year.

Determined to better the previous season's record of 2-22, nine varsity players set out to seek a birth in the state tournament. They were coached by fiery Terry Ziegleman, in his fifth year of coaching at Lebanon. The Warriors were at a district height disadvantage, their tallest player being 6' 2", Gary Remillard. What they lacked in height, they made up for in speed and desire. They developed a fast break unequalled by anyone in the district. It was sparked by 5' 7" Jim Carter and 5' 10" Rae Sutton. Carter and Sutton would steal the ball time and again and run the length of the floor to make easy buckets or pass off to one of Lebanon's steady-eddy forwards, Neil Gilbertson and Mike Warner.

The Warriors started out to accomplish something never done before in Lebanon history, to win all of their pre-season games. In their first game against highly-touted Beaverton, the Warriors came out on the long end of the stick with a 60-57 win. Their next challenger was Cottage Grove from the always strong 5-A-1 District. The Warriors played nip and tuck with their opponents until the game went into overtime. Then they turned on the speed and eked out a 48-47 win. After the long trip to Crater, the Warriors beat the Comets on sheer determination, 57-53, and after that there was no stopping them. They rolled over Reynolds 66-58.

Having won all of their pre-season games, the Warriors looked forward to the season's District games. The first round did not go well for the players at all. They dropped four games the first round and won two. They lost to the tough McNary Celts, Corvallis Spartans, Albany Bulldogs, and the South Salem Saxons, while swamping North Salem and Albany. Not to be denied their fair share of wins, the Warriors came back fighting mad the second round. They lost again to the tall, tall McNary Celts and Corvallis Spartans, but then they suddenly jelled. They knocked off Sweet Home and North Salem easily. Then came the big games that had given them a chance to win, Albany and South Salem. At Albany, the Warriors dominated Albany's "slow-down" tactics and walked off with the bacon 47-45. Next they met the league champs, South Salem. In a double overtime thriller the Warriors knocked off the mighty Saxtons 79-75. Jubilation was everywhere that night as the fans swooped out of the stands to sweep the Warriors to the rally dance.

round with a bang, knocking off the McNary Celts (52-50). Then with high scoring center Gary Remillard out of action with torn ligaments, speedy Jim Carter out of action with the flu, and Neil Gilbertson hindered by a sprained ankle, the Warriors lost to Sweet Home 77-66. They then lost to North Salem which they had previously beaten twice before. Winning looked doubtful as the remaining two games were with Albany and South Salem respectively. The first of the two saw Lebanon coming out on top in a triple over-time 52-50. The last encounter couldn't have been bigger as the Warriors rolled up in regulation time a 70-69 win over highly touted South Salem to put South in a tie for 1st with Corvallis. The win also placed the Lebanon squad in a fourth place tie with McNary and a 13-9 overall season record.

The Warriors dominated league scoring statistics with three players in the top ten in scoring. They were led by Gary Remillard who was 2nd in the league in scoring, Neil Gilbertson who was fifth, and Jim Carter who was eighth. Rae Sutton, the Warriors team leader and captain, fed passes to these players continually, setting them up for easy buckets. He was the spark plug of the team.

All in all the 1966-67 basketball season was a complete success. The 13-9 record was the best since the team of 1962 when they went to state. The spirit of the students and the community were greatly increased and probably the most important thing was that so many people in the student body and the community participated to help make this season a successful season.

This shot, taken by reverse action photography, shows the ball returning from the basket to Neil Gilbertson's hand. It really faked out the Spartans, even though Lebanon lost two points on the play.

"Two more for Gib" as Neil bobbles in another one, paying no attention to Mike Warner's "Hey, your shoe's untied". Gilbertson displays his usual flawless form, catching his opponent with both a chop in the arm and a kick in the ankle at the same time.

frosh basketball

Guided by their fine coach John Foster the frosh B-Ballers had a very fine season as they compiled a 17-6 win loss record. The team played very steady the whole season as their largest winning streak was four and the most losses in a row was two. The squad was actually divided in two groups as in most outings two games would be played.

The team's overall scoring compared to the opponent's was great as the up-coming Warriors outscored their foes 888-787. The biggest margin came against Calapooya as the Papooses outscored their opponent 58-28. The opponent's largest margin came against Western View as they outscored Lebanon 49-29.

The season prospered much as the on-coming Warriors showed their talent for the future years to come.

The veteran wrestlers returned to develop more techniques under determined coaching by Dick Weisbrodt. The up-coming wrestlers previously coached by Roy Fritz and Larry Stennick hoped to give the squad that extra boost that's needed for a top contender.

The team had their ups and downs while usually ending up on the top.

In duel meets Corvallis was the only team to top the matmen. In the first meeting the score was the indication as Corvallis controlled the majority of weights to end with a decisive 31-18 victory. In the second encounter the score was similar but was indication of the meet. Numerous matches were won by as little as one point with Corvallis usually coming out on top. In other duel meets the Lebanon grapplers counted heavily on the last four and five weights to pull through some close but victorious victories. In the four Invitational meets Lebanon entered, they finished first in three while placing second in the other two.

In the district competition, the Warriors sent their twenty-four finest wrestlers to compete against the stiff district opponents that would appear there also. The Lebanon team placed seven men in the first and second winners bracket, which would represent the Warriors at state. First place finishers were: John Speasl, Jerry Hubert, Jim Crumley, and Tom Chandler. Second place winners were: Phil Stover, Mike Benz, and Bob McCown. The Warrior team also placed numerous wrestlers in the third and fourth brackets which included Bud Robertson, Pat Mazzillo, and Mark Copeland, just to name a few.

In state competition the Warriors placed three wrestlers: Jerry Hubert placed fifth at 141 lb. weight, Phil Stover placed fourth by coming back up the state ladder after losing his first match at 123 lb., and junior Tom Chandler won the state championship at 178 lbs. by winning all his matches in the state competition. Chandler, being only a junior this year, will be back next year to defend his state title.

The Warrior matmen after having quite a successful year will retire until next season to start another schedule with the goal of taking state.

Warrior Heavyweight Dan Peterson grimaces as McNary grappler pressures him with the cradle.

Tough competition in the lower weights makes Pat Mozzillo's muscles strain as he positions opponent for a pin.

Speed combined with power enables Jerry Hubert to easily maneuver his opponent into a very distressing position.

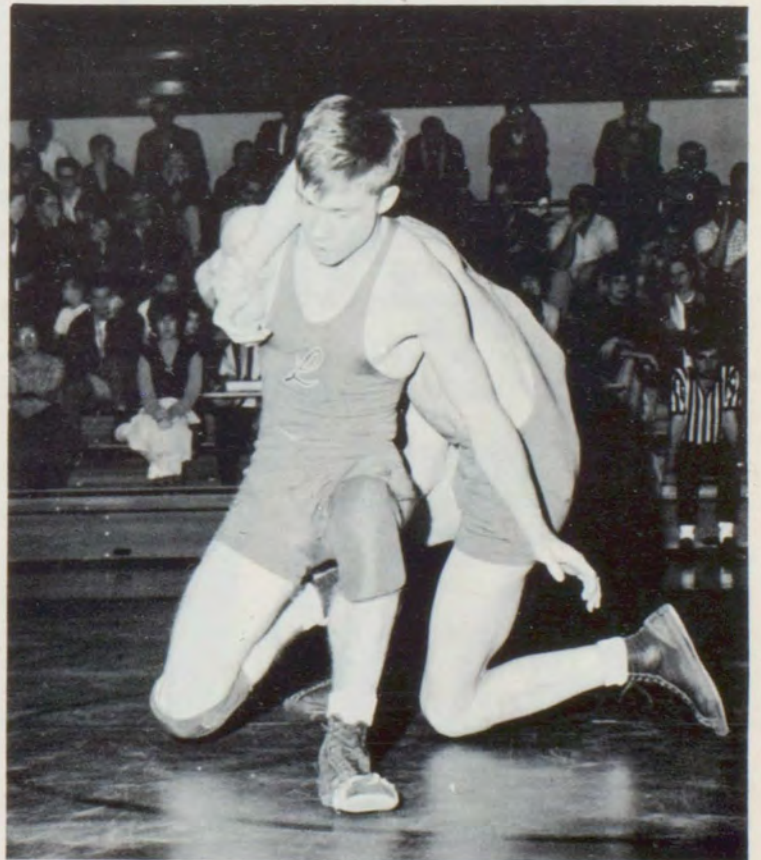

"The first to the line wins" seems to be the idea these two grapplers have in mind. Actually Mike Benz is trying to keep his balance as a McNary man tries for a takedown.

Senior grappler Tim Mangan uses his four years of experience to make a smooth escape and still hang onto his man.

"Don't let go" as Paul Jensen thinks of that one important point for riding time.

"You're breaking my arm" says the opponent as Jerry Hubert puts on the pressure.

j. v. wrestling

Led by veteran Coach Ray Fritz the Lebanon Junior Varsity wrestling squad completed a fine A-1 duel meet mark. The team also added laurels to their performances by capturing first places in the Rex Putnam, Marshfield, and Lebanon Invationals.

The season opened with an upset, as the Braves rose to the occasion to down Corvallis, 37-16. The team then sneaked by a tough Hillsboro squad, 47-35, before opening the district competition with a 35-17 decision over South Salem. The Braves then man-handled Canby, McNary, Marshfield, and Sweet Home, each by sizeable margins. Fate finally caught up with the Junior Varsity as Corvallis rebounded to hand the Braves their only loss of the season, 32-21. Finishing strong, the young grapplers completed the season by downing North Salem, 51-15, and Albany, 47-12.

Individually the team was led by Mike Jones, Larry Lacy, Randy Williams, Craig Thorne, Paul Jensen, Mike Calahan, and Tim Olmstead.

The season was a most satisfying one as it developed many fine wrestlers that will surely help the varsity in the year to come.

frosh wrestling

The trend is continuing and may be even stronger with the prospects in line for future years in Lebanon wrestling. Under the leadership of Coach Stennick the frosh were initiated into high school wrestling by ending up 1st in the Hillsboro Invitational and continuing this pace by downing all their opponents by great margins.

All of the wrestlers were able to develop their moves and refine their skills which are necessary to fulfill the positions of the highly successful varsity squad.

Second row: Sandy Warwick, Gayle Downing, Karen Miller, Jan McVicker, Karen Fritz, Maureen Daugherty.

This is a newly organized sport at L.U.H.S. and because of the late completion of the new pool, no meets were scheduled with the athletic director. The team has set up regular practicing that has resulted in a good turnout of swimmers. Coach Foster says that most of the swimmers have had experience and all show great promise. Foster believes that with one of the best pools in the state the swimmers will be inspired to develop into one of the best teams in the area.

varsity track

Accepting the challenge of taking district the Warrior cindermen started out with a better than average chance of succeeding. They took these odds and started working hard on refining each event to the fullest.

Many of last year's track team; including senior lettermen Steve White, Paul Oswald, Scott Schmidt,

Jim Roosa, Jeff Wilson, and Steve Wheeler, provided a winning combination with strength and depth in many events. Many meets were pulled out, with points gained in the field events through Oswald's consistent performances in the shot and discus, Schmidt and Roosa in the pole vault, Wilson in the high jump,

Mark Copeland in the javelin, and Don Spady and Jerry Gazeley in the broad jump. In the running events usual point getters were Al White in the sprints, Dave Brannon in the hurdles, and Steve White in the distances. Depth showed in the 440, 880, and mile relays with Tony Sinclair and Rick Mudrow combining with other cindermen to break records and close out the wins. The Warriors may have been lacking in a lot of outstanding individuals, but under the experienced coaching techniques of head coach Dale Reynolds, gained the confidence that made them a working force that moved them closer towards that goal in district competition.

Left: Varsity javelin and pole vault man Mark Copeland takes time between throws to clear the bar at 11' and sweep one of three positions for the Warriors.

Lower left: Varsity weight man Steve Post positions the shot and his body to put the weighted ball as far as possible for valuable points.

Below: Broad jumper Al White looks disgusted as he jumps but ends up happy as he goes 20' 6" to take first in the event.

Lower left: Steve White confidently lengthens his lead enroute to victory in the mile. White also set a record on his way.

Below: Freshman, Jerry Gazeley competes in Varsity action only to surprise his upper classmen and take the first.

j. v. track

This is a team that will develop depth for varsity next year. Being nine strong, they show great potentialities in all events as their win-lose record obviously displays. This year will give them added experience and will better develop their talents in sprints, field and distance events.

Being under the ranks of Coach Reynolds and with special attention these cindermen will undoubtedly give much added strength and support to next years varsity Warrior squad.

The diversified strength of the freshman class are rounding out through all sports this year, including track. The Frosh are displaying an impressive record of wins. Although some of their outstanding strengths are on varsity, these boys are showing that they will develop into good individual men for the varsity team. Under proper guidance of Coach Dale Reynolds and special attention from Coach Leppink and Machamer, these boys' qualities are sure to be drawn out to a moulded Warrior image.

Randy Crenshaw goes over the bar with ease on his way to a victory in the high jump.

Lebanon's fleet-footed female flyers, better known as the Girls' Track team, brought its familiar winning ways into the 1967 track season. After crushing the Sweet Home Huskies, 56-30, in the year's first dual meet, the local gals have continued to run away from all competition with top honors.

Leading the female forces once again this year are veterans Gail Boyd, Karen Nelson, Vicki McCombs, Ethelmae Cookson, and Cheryl Patterson. These girls are supported by some promising freshman, including Nancy Claussen, Joanne Grumbo, and Patti Waters. With another year's experience underfoot, girl's track can look forward to an even more successful season in 1968, even though gifted senior, Ethelmae Cookson, will be lost through graduation.

Sprinter Vicki McCombs grimaces at the tape to take another victory.

golf

With the hopes of Coach Evan Richey, the talents of two returning lettermen, and the development of underclassmen, the linksters formulated a fairly strong squad this season.

Although the squad did not have numerous wins, the records of the other district teams show why wins were hard to come by. South Salem, Corvallis, and Albany had full teams of lettermen returning that placed them among the strongest teams in the state.

Gene Daily and Gary Johnson were strength in the one-two spots. Freshman Doug Robbins proved his ability and will develop to be a fine linkster for Coach Richey. The last two positions were usually battled out each week between seniors Gary Remillard and Mike Schlegel and and juniors Ernie Tuma, Don Fuller, and Jim Rauch. Next year these juniors and the rest of the linksters will make the Warriors a strong contender in district competition.

Bruce Schwindt looks bothered as the photographer snaps his picture when he is lining up a putt.

Top right: Varsity linkster, Gary Johnson, gasps as he almost missed that all important putt on the 18th green.

Right: J.V. golfer, Jerry Cutts shows good form as he blasts his tee shot down number 8 fairway.

tennis

The newly assembled tennis team is doing exceptionally well under the guidance of Coach Doug Axen. Coach Axen is working on the tennis team's strategy and form for a hopeful district win in the near future.

Coach Axen's young netmen have been performing well for starting out in the district cellar. They did not let this handicap slow their spirit and hopes. Next season, the netmen will be made up of mostly seniors who will out-do the mediocre record of their first season.

varsity baseball

Seven returning lettermen, numerous inexperienced players, and one obstructed baseball field greeted the new head baseball coach, Thurman Bell. These and many other problems faced the fresh-out-of-college coach when he arrived to take on the task of showing his skills by building a winning team.

The season started off with a full twenty game schedule, but by the time the rains had stopped, four games had been by-passed and the league was ready to begin. The only pre-season games the Warriors played were against Dallas as the Lebanon diamonders split a doubleheader, winning the first 1-0 and losing the second 8-5. The first league game came against the South Saxons. The Warriors came out on the short end of the stick, however, as the Saxons won 7-1. The next encounter was with McNary as Lebanon showed no signs of being previously beaten. The game tallied back and forth until the tenth inning with the Celtics coming out on top by one run, 4-3. This left the Warriors with a 0-2 record in league play to face the Corvallis Spartans for their third test. The determination of the inexperienced team showed immensely as they fought back to defeat the tough Spartans. The game was close up until the sixth inning when Corvallis jumped out to a 6-3 lead. In the last of the seventh, the Warriors produced four runs on five hits to win the game 7-6 and stand in league with a single win and two losses. Of the three remaining games in the first round of league play the Warriors lost two and came out on top once. At the end of the first round the Warriors finished in sixth place out of seven teams but were beyond a doubt a far better team than the start of the season. Many surprises awaited the opposing teams in the second round as the Warriors went from a young and inexperienced team at the first to a mature and well established group of ball players ready and rarin' to go.

j. v. baseball

Combining a few freshmen and many sophomores, the Lebanon Junior Varsity team had a mediocre season under the coaching of Terry Ziegelman. Because of a lot of transfers from different schools and many inexperienced players the squad took a while to get reorganized.

After the team got together, Coach Ziegelman used his experienced strategy to put them on their way to a better-than-average season. The team progressed fast, making the usual primary mistakes but then showing good signs of skillful play. In the pre-season, and part of the first round of league play, the Braves spilt eight games winning four and losing four. The wins came against MaClaren, Dallas, Sweet Home, and Albany and the losses against South Salem, McNary, Dallas, and Corvallis. The young Braves with their five-hundred season got lots of experience and made ready new talent for the coming Varsity season.

J.V. pitching ace, Jim Luoto warms up on practice mound in preparation for a league game. Luoto led the J.V. squad to their better than average season.

freshman baseball

It seems that the freshman class is extending their athletic talents into their baseball season also. Even with the battle with the rain, the team seemed to shape into a smooth working squad that easily defeated their foes. The confidence that these boys display when entering games is the reason they overpower all their opponents by great margins. These boys have been set in the right direction by Coach Dean Soule and will prove to be a great asset to the future years of baseball at L.U.H.S.

Frosh outfielder Kevin Blanchat uses good form in fielding a ground ball hit by an opposing player.

It has been a wonderful year but it is going to finish very soon. It is time for me to go back to my country and leave this town, this school and all you that have been such wonderful friends for me. We did so many things together and had so much fun that sometime I had a hard time to remember that I was an exchange student, that I was Italian and you American: I felt one of you, I shared with you joy and bad moments and if you, sometime, felt this same way then I think we accomplished the purpose of this wonderful program. I learned soon to know you and to love you: to love your spontaneous friendship, your kindness, your understanding of my little problems and now I know that to leave will be a hard, hurting time and that a part of me will stay always here to share the joy and the bad moments at LHS. At last I want to thank you for everything you gave me and I want you to know that I will never be able to tell you how grateful I am to you all.

senior class summary

After the summer of 1966, we, the class of '67, found ourselves in the position of "Mighty Seniors" of L.H.S. We also found ourselves beginning our last year, an exciting, rewarding, and memorable year.

Our class officers chosen to represent us in our final year were Mike Schlegel, President; Steve Wheeler, Vice-President; Cheryl Lee, Secretary; Jane Burdell, Treasurer; Doug Lundberg, Sgt.-at-Arms; and Representatives Sue Morelock, John Larsen, and Tom McCown.

Last Year's Student body officers left L.H.S. in good and capable hands, as our A.S.B. officers President Mike Mary, Vice-President Dan Merzenich, Secretary Karen Woods, and Treasurer Charlene Bicek all did a fine job.

Our class also showed leadership in more active areas, such as the rally squad. Five of the six varsity cheerleaders were seniors. They were Queen Pam Petrik, Norma Allison, Pam Denham, Karen Dillard, and Patsy Moss. We are very proud of these girls, for with their guidance and precision Lebanon returned from the basketball jamboree with the coveted Pep and Rally Trophy.

This year a bright new face was added to the halls of our school as Mary Lee Zadro, our Italian foreign exchange student, brought with her both smiles and good will. We hope she will never forget her American friends at L.H.S.

At last the day arrived that we had all been looking forward to for the past three years! Rook Initiation Day had come and we could now initiate those immature "underclassmen" with a feeling of legality. Thoughts of all the limburger cheese we had been smeared with on our "day" returned, and revenge reaked from every nook and cranny of the building.

A cold but beautiful evening accompanied Homecoming '66', and our lovely Queen Sue Lindberg, Maid of Honor Hallie Warden, and Honorary Princess Mary Lee Zadro made the evening even more spectacular.

Shortly after Homecoming the Junior and Senior girls of L.H.S. had a chance to prove their athletic ability, as Powder Puff Football time approached. Showing their superior skill, the girls of '67 walked away with the honors for the second consecutive year.

On December 9 came the annual Senior Winter Formal. Our theme, "Silver Bells", was carried out with beautiful, shining decorations. The evening was truly a successful and memorable one. Shortly following was the Girls League Formal. Entitled "C'est L'Amour", this year's dance was regally ruled by comely Queen Connie McCann. Here, too, everyone had a wonderful time in a beautifully decored red, white, and pink ballroom.

"Andy Sutton and the Senior Review" was the title of our fourth and last class assembly. Although we didn't have much time to prepare our acts, the show went on, and we had the time of our lives presenting it.

Early in April, the senior class had the opportunity to select the five girls that would represent Lebanon in the 1967 Strawberry Fair Court. Chosen to be on this year's royal court were Sue Lindberg, Lois Truax, Hallie Warden, Yvonne Wills, and Karen Woods.

The entire student body was given the task of choosing the senior girls to reign over the important May Day festivities. Our petite Queen Pam Petrik ruled with poise and beauty over her Maid of Honor Karol Satrum and her six princesses; Charlene Bicek, Linda Daugherty, Pam Denham, Cheryl Lee, Patsy Moss, and Mary Lee Zadro. Our school was very proud to be so well represented.

Events are the same year after year, but this year, for us, they were special; they were our last. Now graduation time is drawing closer and we shall soon have to say good-bye to our good old L.H.S., long-time classmates, underclass friends, and helpful teachers. We are left with many happy memories, and, yes, a few sad ones, too. We are each about to depart on our own separate roads of life, and perhaps it will be a long time until we see each other again, but one must look forward; for as our motto states, "WE FINISH BUT TO BEGIN".

Karol Jan Satrum was voted by the members of the Senior class as the recipient of the DAR Good Citizenship award which is given away annually to a senior girl.

Barbara Wilkinson, L. U. H. S.'s AFS student spent the summer of 1966 in Turkey, with the family of Mr. and Mrs. Adem Onurmens.

senior class assembly

Neil (Whipperwill Orange) Gilbertson, Gary (Jo Jo) Holbrook, Lee (Robert E.) Monson, and Gary (Rosters) Remillard offer assistance to fallen Globetrotter Gary (Jasper) Johnson.

Tom McCown and Sheryl Godel as seniors lose their cool in the finale of their outstanding class assembly. Everyone got into the act as the scene came to its chaotic climax.

Hep-cat Frank Johnson thumps out the base as Hot John Watt "hours in" during command performance of "K. J. and the L. H. B.'s" one of many star-studded attractions of the senior assembly.

"Duh — snore?" Danny Peterson's unobstrusive presence doesn't seem to bother Patsy Moss (with hands) on Keith Smith (with shoulders).

Andy (Raelyn) Sutton leads senior vocalists in a rousing chorus of "Blowin' In The Wind."

senior personalities

Mobbed by autograph hounds, "Most Popular" Mike Mary and Stacy Lindberg try hard to satisfy their admiring public.

"Most Dependable" Steve (Atlas) White and Patsy (Liberty) Moss take time out for the photographer.

Doug Lundberg and Karol Satrum demonstrate their "Best Sense Humor" as they prepare to blow up "dummy" in Mr. Way's room.

"Biggest Flirts" Tom Reed and Linda Drew appear too busy to look at the camera. O.K. kids, that's enough!

"Best Dressed" Mike Schlegel and Yvonne Wills model matching outfits. Unfortunately, Mike wore his inside-out.

"Peppiest" John Speasl and Pam Petrik are kept busy with a "peppy" argument over who has to get up first. At last notice, both had fallen asleep.

Left: Duntz Mike Jordan and Duntzess Linda Allyn seem to be enjoying their times in the corner as "Teachers Trials".

Bottom: "Oh, the wonderfulness of our success!" The very thoughts of "Most Likely to Succeed" people, Margaret Pierce and Dan Merzenich.

Above: "Wonderfulness is not being hit by the ugly sticks," muse "Best Looking" Dave Gazeley and Jane Burdell.

Hitting the half-way mark, we the class of '68, transformed ourselves from lower-upper classmen to upper-lower classmen. Our capable leaders for our active junior year were: President, Ed Osterman; Vice President, Steve Cantwell; Secretary, Terri Moody; Treasurer, Judy Ray; and Representatives Steve Carter, Linda Gazeley, John Girod and Rod Pulliam. During our football and basketball seasons, Lavonne Robertson represented our class on the Varsity Yell Squad. We were represented well at Homecoming by our princess Linda Gazeley and by our winning float on which she and her escort, Pat Wheeler, proudly rode. The next big event of the year was the Girl's League Formal, for which we chose Barb Harrington as our lovely princess. Princess Pat Grieve and Prince Dean Cole were our favorite couple at the school carnival. The outstanding social event of our junior year was the Junior-Senior Prom, entitled "Daisies Won't Tell", with Jackie Beam as chairman. Our prom court consisted of Queen Lavonne Robertson and her six lovely princesses: Linda Gazeley, Jan Lenox, Patti McCallie, Terri Moody, Vikki Nugent, and Sandi Thome. Our year as juniors has been an eventful and enjoyable year and we are looking forward to our senior year with determination, willingness, and plenty of spirit.

"what a night for a daydream"

The Junior class assembly, entitled "What a Night for a Day-dream" truly gave the other classes something to shoot at, as a fine display of song, dance and humor was presented. The assembly began as Mike Lynch, the day-dreamer, said his prayers and climbed into bed for a good night's rest. His sleep was interrupted by his conscience who proceeded to lead Mike through many perilous adventures including a trip to the moon. Mike also relived many of his old pastimes as wandering aimlessly in his sleep he visited an 1890 barbershop, an old grand stand concert, and the Bungling Brothers Circus.

Mike Lynch

Patti Downing

Kathy Dahl, Judy Surmon, Angie Surmon

The class of 1969 faced their sophomore year with a strong will and determination to better themselves and their school. The officers that led their class were Randy Williams, president; Dan Straney, vice president; Barb Gray, secretary; Karen Spires, treasurer; and Maureen Daugherty, Steve Johnson, and Larry MacLachlan, representatives.

Homecoming was the big event that started the year off. Our class was well represented by Princess Judy Rowell and her escort, Doug Schoen. Football season for the sophomores had two boys, Mike Jones and Craig Thorne, on a varsity squad and twenty-two on J.V. This time of the year was extremely busy for our cross country runners. Rick Mudrow, Steve McAtee, Gorden Weins, Chris Woods, Steve Neuman and Brad Wood made important strides in this sport.

All of the J.V. cheerleaders were from the sophomore class this year. The five spirited girls that did such a marvelous job were Sandi Allison, queen; Deanna Johnson, Jeanne Lee, April Estep, and Alice Bagley. With their help and that of the class, the sophomores won the trophy for spirit week. There was a lot of hard work done and all of us were certainly proud of our accomplishment.

This year the sophomores had their own basketball team; and what a team it was! Our boys came through with a 13 win-5 loss record for the season.

Quite a number of sophomore boys participated in wrestling. Ray Crenshaw, Dennis Ditterick, and Chris Woods were selected for the Varsity squad. Many others were members of the J.V. team Donna Varney was chosen princess for the Girls' League Formal, "C'est L'amour". Steve Johnson was Donna's escort. The prince and princess for the April 1st carnival were Amy Bresler and Doug Hurst.

April 13th the class of '69 presented their class assembly, "Western Side Story" or "The Cow's Got My Goat". This was the story of a western hero who really wasn't much of a hero after all. Everyone who participated enjoyed themselves and learned a great deal.

Now this year is coming to a close. The whole class is anxiously waiting for the year when we will become lower-upper classmen. One half of our high school years are now over. We feel that we have not wasted these first two important years, and we will strive to make our last two years as productive as possible.

"western side story"

Directors Bill Austin, Bill Dowding, and Ken Eeds watch their finished production with mixed feelings.

A volunteer from the audience, Sue Knight tries out her ability as an actress.

Sharon Slack, Barbara LaFond, and Barb Godel preform in a dance to the music of "Paladin."

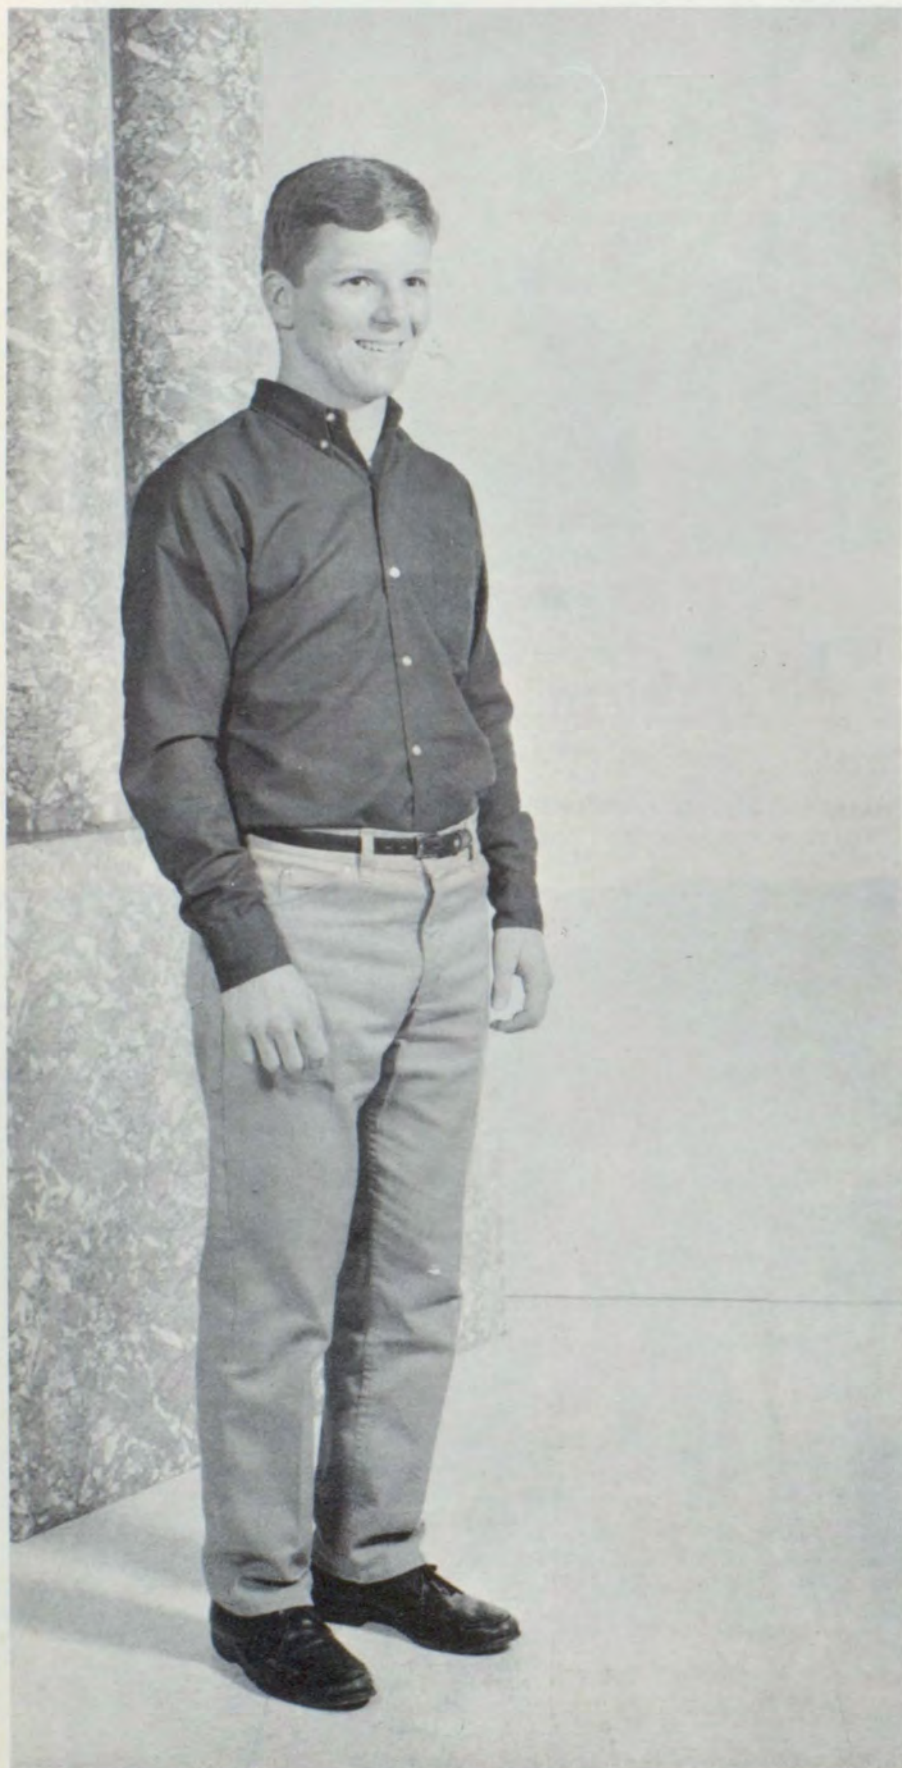

Karen Spires, Sandy Warwick, Diana Van Orden, Linda Myran, and Sheri Edwards square dance while the rest of the townspeople look on.

The Square dancers perform to the commands given by Steve Anderson.

freshman class summary

We, the class of 1970, began the many experiences of high school with spirit and determination. This class has been the largest class in the history of Lebanon Union High, beginning with over 400 students and ending with over 450 students.

Starting off with a "riot" we had our traditional initiation by our mighty superiors! Everyone enjoyed this.

We were under the leadership of Gary Golden, President; Rick Hayes, Vice President; Debbie Downing, Secretary; Vickie Kasson, Treasurer; and Freshman representatives, Don Spady, Randy Wall, Millie Greenly, and Mike Bolman.

Homecoming was very exciting for all of us, especially for the freshman princess, Bonnie Wyn and her escort Rick Godel. Our football season was very successful, as we had enough turn-outs for two teams! The Red Team had 4 wins-2 loses. The Blue Team had 2 wins-4 loses for a total of 6 wins-6 loses.

Wrestling was a total success with 10 wins-no losses! The Frosh cheerleaders who backed our players were Debbie Vincent, Cheer Queen; Patty Henderson, Sharon Daugherty, Carol Johnson, Susie Shearer, and Mary Holmes.

We all had plenty of participation and spirit for Spirit Week. During this week our class received a revolving yell trophy for yelling and being most spirited.

Mary Holmes was selected as Freshman princess for the Girls League Formal, titled C'est L'amour. The Freshman 'Miss Valentine' princesses were Karen Richey, Millie Greenly, Sharon Daugherty, and Carol Johnson. Karen Richey was voted Miss Valentine.

Our final event of the year was the school carnival. Here we were represented by princess Sharon Daugherty and prince Rick Hayes.

As we end a great and successful year, we all look forward to the oncoming years with great hopes!

Camera-shy Debbie Vincent objects to having her picture taken, but Millie Greenly can't pass up the chance.
