Student Body Officers

This has been a year of change. It has been the climax of a slow and natural transgression from a large, urban-like institution. Along with this change comes a challenge to all students to accept the responsibility of cooperating and working together to meet and surmount the problems which accompany any change. A challenge which you, the student body, successfully handled. It has been a year which has witnessed the breakdown of a factional student body, into a consolidated and cooperative one; one in which clubs, faculty, administration, and individuals have worked together to mold our future.

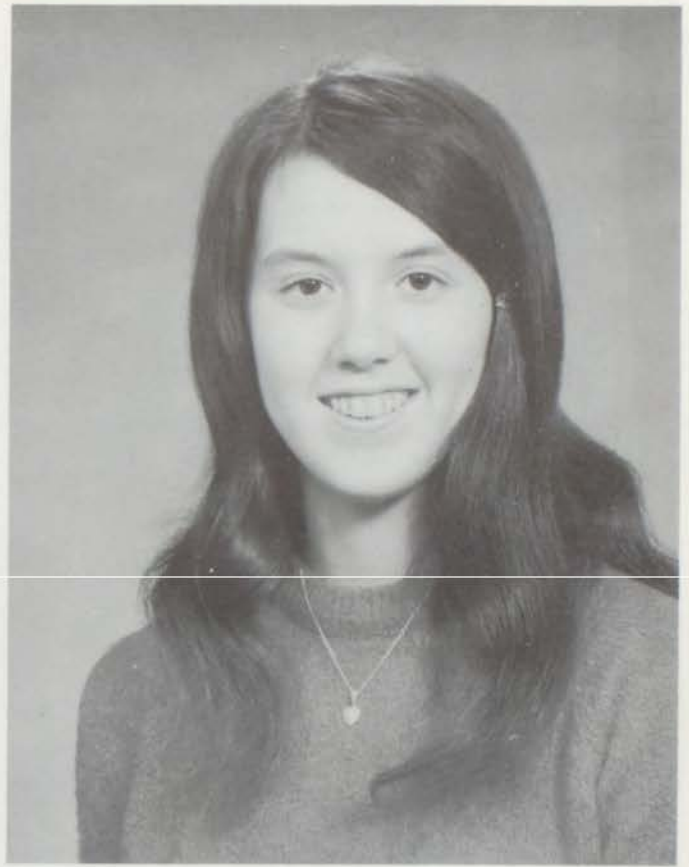

At last, it has been a rewarding year. One which I will long remember and be grateful for because of the privilege and opportunity I was given to represent you.

Respectfully,
Scott Fancher

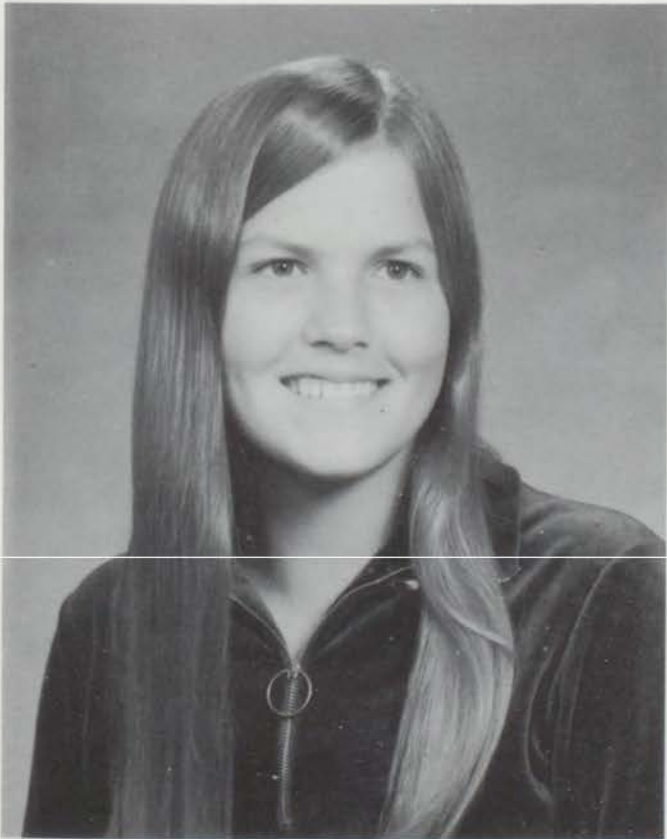

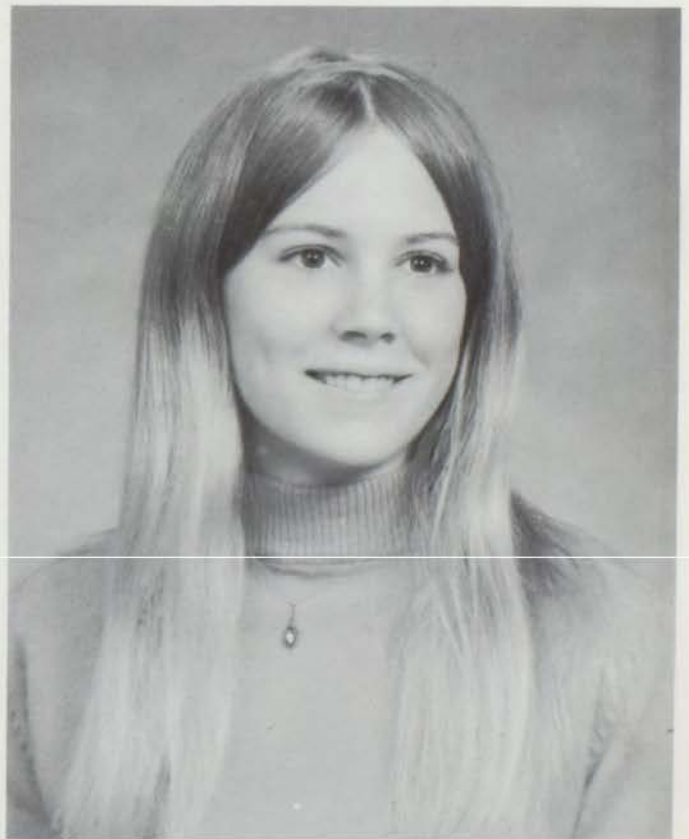

Vice President Craig Cowgill.

Secretary Shauna Hartle.

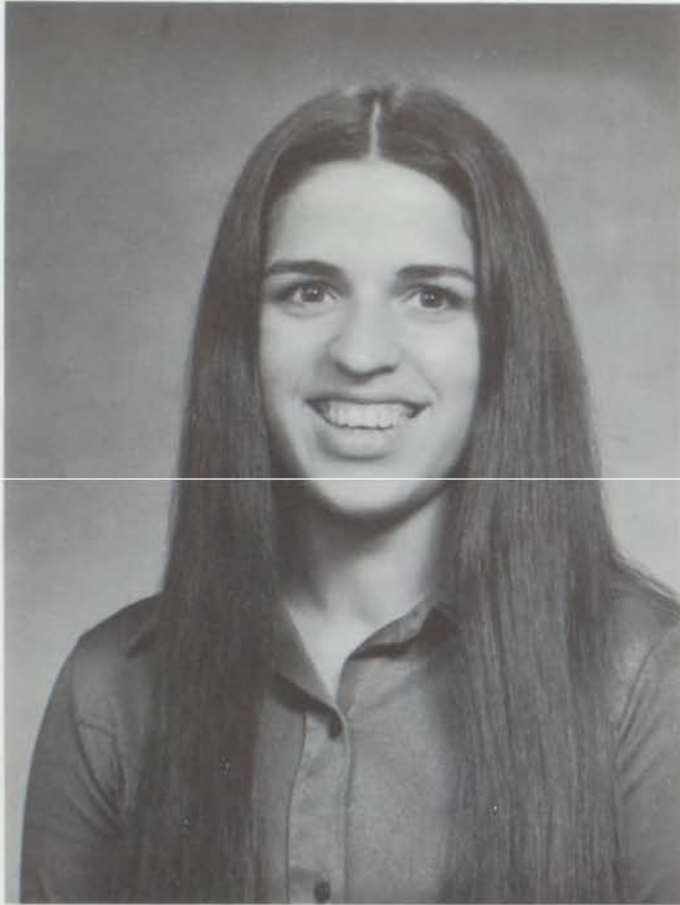

Treasurer Polly Scheele.

Yell Queen Leann Chambers.

Exchange Students

My Dear Friends,

You can't imagine how happy I feel because in these months that I have known all of you I have found how easy it is to become brothers and sisters in a country so new to me.

I also find that the greatest thing you can do for any individual or any group of people is to help them to find the best in each other.

I remember reading a book that said: "You can make more friends in two months by becoming interested in other people than you can in two years by trying to get other people interested in you."

Now I can say that this is true.

Well, I want to say, too, that I am never going to forget all of you. I just cannot do it.

Bye and thanks.

Your friend,
Christina Requejo
Argentina

My Dear Friends,

Good times do not last forever, and the time has come for me to go home to relate my experience to my people. I am just as anxious to get back as I was to get here, even though it is pretty hard to leave all the friends who made me feel at home, even though I was really thousands of miles away.

My greatest thanks to Mr. Page, my parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cox, faculty and staff, especially the girls, and everyone else who have made this year the highlight of my life. It will not be easy to forget you.

Your friend,
Freddie McFadden
Swaziland

To All My Friends,

This has been a very rewarding year for me. It's been fun knowing you all, and having you as friends. I hope your following year will be as fun, exciting and interesting as this year has been for me.

I find it real hard for me to leave you. In fact, when I leave you all, the sweetest memories of you all will never ever be able to fade away from my mind.

Wish you all the best luck!

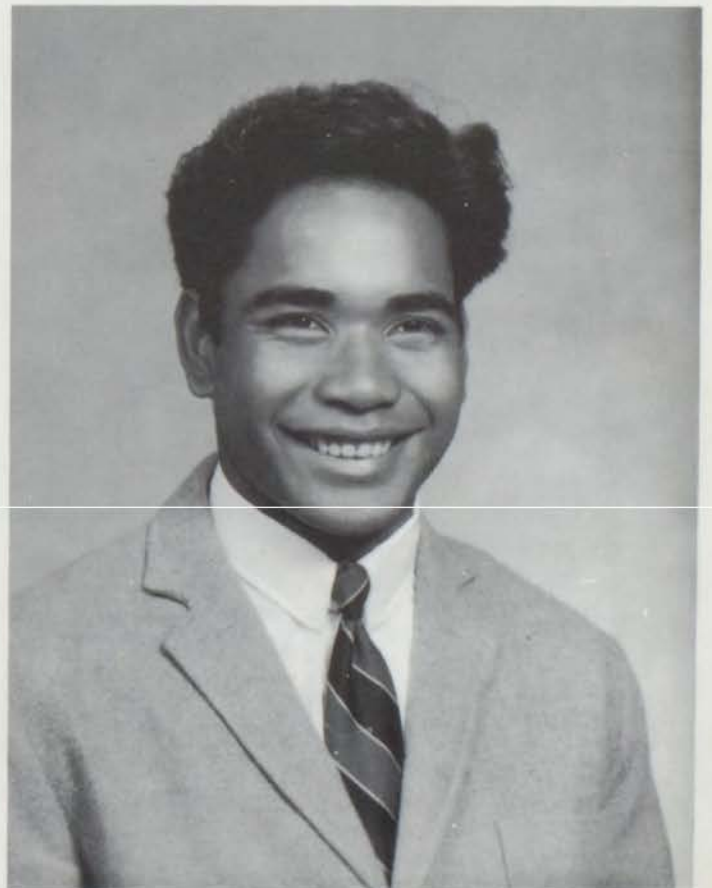

With all my love,
Juliana Michael
Truk Islands

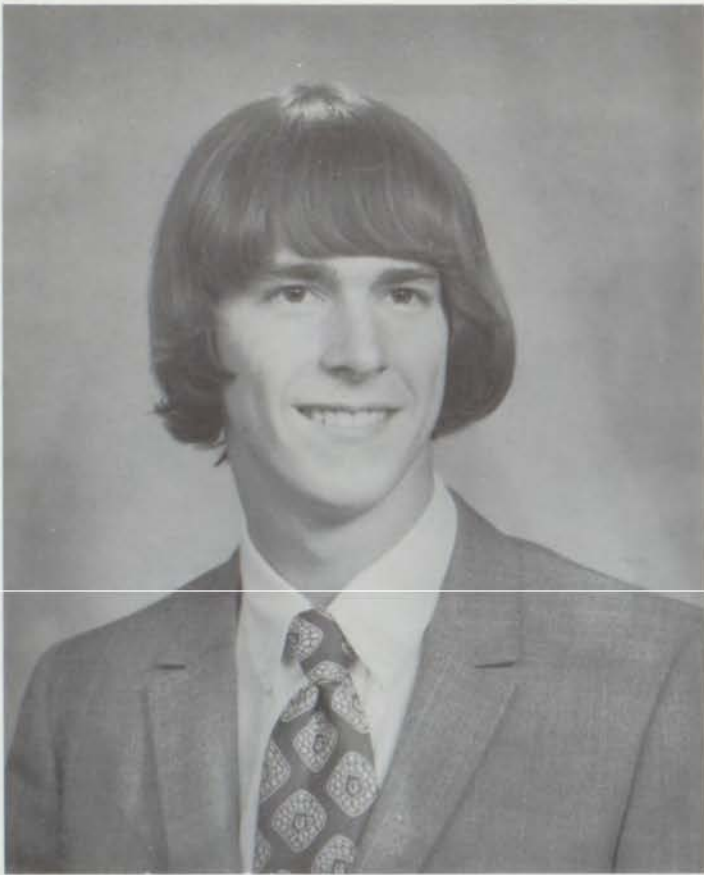

L. U. H. S. Students,

After all the friendly things you have done I find it real hard to face leaving your friendly smile and tender loving care. In fact, I have never met with such friendly students like you in my whole life. I want to return your friendliness if there is a possible way to do so. My friends, I will always remember the good times we have had together.

My warmest and deepest farewell greetings to you all.

Juan Sandy
Truk Islands

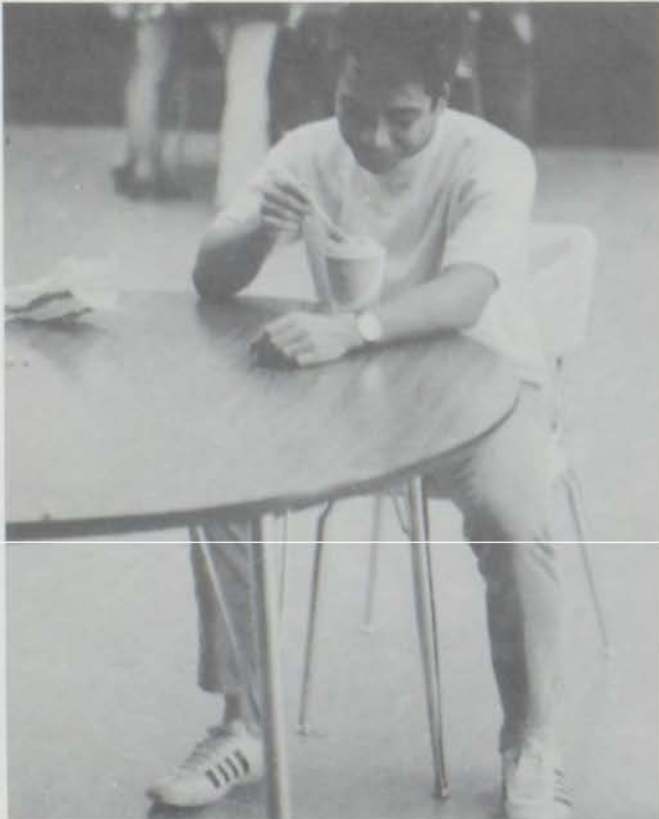

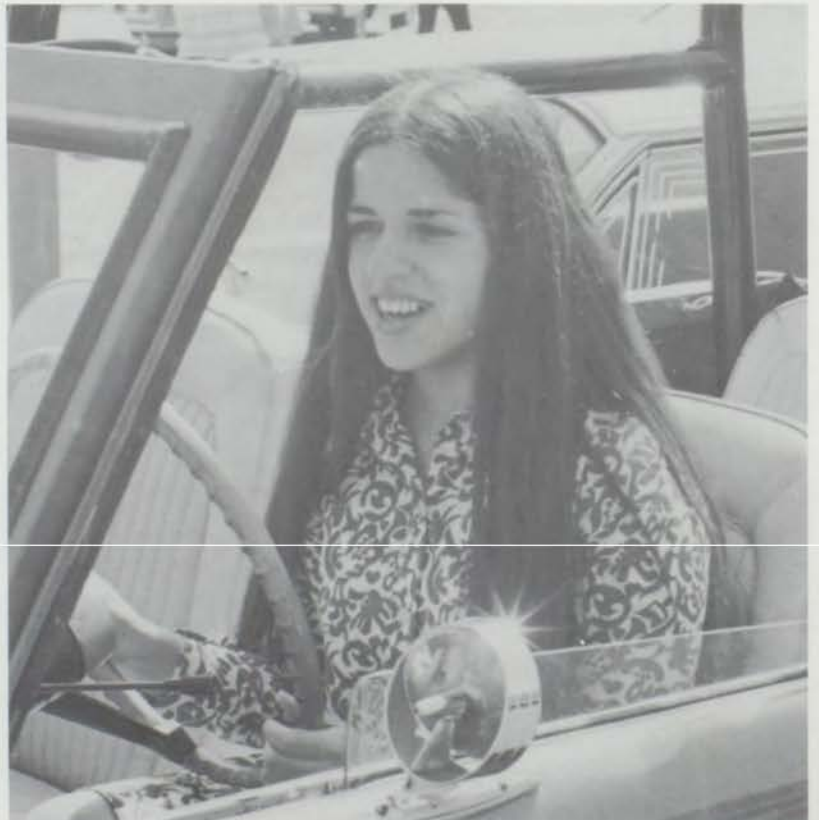

Fellow Students,

Through my A.F.S. experiences in Iran this past summer, I came to realize that there is more than just one way to live and more than just one type of person. No one's manner of thinking or way of living is necessarily right or wrong, and as long as it does not harm others, his choice of life style firstly should suit himself. Almost all of us must soon make a decision concerning the directions our lives are to follow. I only hope we can all open-mindedly observe and try to understand some other peoples' ideas and customs before choosing the one way for ourselves.

Thank you,
Kelly Cox

Mock Democratic Convention

Members of the Junior and Senior classes gained valuable insights into the workings of a national party convention during their work in the Model Democratic Convention held in Portland on May 17th, 18th, and 19th. The Seniors represented the great state of Minnesota while the Juniors sent delegates for the Bluegrass State of Kentucky.

Each class was required to research their state fully to find out the state's priorities and favored Presidential Candidate. With this information, a state platform was written up. Both classes also contributed largely to the writing of the National Democratic Platform. Credentials were obtained and presented at the Credential Hearings to prove each the official delegation of their state. Much work went into this convention but not without benefits. Each student that participated not only gained a lot of knowledge, but had a great time in doing so.

SENIOR CLASS SUMMARY

We, the Class of '72, end our four years at L.U.H.S., but leave behind a record of memories.

Trembling in our boots as we were marched in through those cruel iron doors we began our high school career. The crowded halls seemed cold and strange, and towering lockers so rigid and impersonal were depressing. We trudged through the halls burdened with questions and worries about coming classes and stern instructors. Soon our fears were calmed, friends were made, and the invisible shields and walls were gradually shed.

Chosen to guide our class as leaders were: President Dan Hayes, Vice President Jeff King, Secretary Shauna Hartle, Treasurer Nina Nott, and Representatives Dan Powell, Mark Smetana, Ron Shanks, and Crystal Copeland.

With good leadership we struck into school spirit. We elected six frosh cheer leaders: Marsha Cutts, Captain Debbie Mitchell, Kathy Hern, Jill LeMert, and Jean Denker. With these peppy squad members to lead us there was rarely a quiet moment.

At our first class assembly we invited the audience to our "Wax Museum." In spite of upper classmen skepticism, our ingenuity and superior imagination was impossible to be down graded.

Homecoming was an exciting and new experience with Regina Smith as our Freshman Princess. When the Girls' League Formal was sponsored, we presented Princess Becky Cray.

Advancing into our sophomore year, we were just a bit more experienced in high school survival. President Jeff King, Vice President Craig Cowgill, Secretary Becky Cray, Treasurer Nena Nott, and Representatives Russ Salvage, Shauna Hartle, Pat Hellberg, and Jeanne Denker were chosen to suppress all evils of the year and carry us safely through.

Voted in as J.V. Cheerleaders were Captain Marsha Cutts, Debbie Mitchell, Kathy Hern, Leann Chambers, Shaun Daily and Linda Hoover.

As football season rolled around it was time again to select pretty Princess Becky Cray to represent us. At the Winter Formal, "A Groovy Kind of Love," Vicki Gerig was chosen for our sophomore princess.

During this year we faced our first big decision—class rings.

Proceeding on as juniors, we entered under the direction of President Craig Cowgill, Vice President Dave Schmidt, Secretary Vicki Gerig, Treasurer Dan Hayes, and Representatives Pat Hellberg, Shauna Hartle, Jeff King, LouAnn Kindopp. Joining forces with the seniors were Debbie Mitchell, Leann Chambers, and Linda Hoover as Varsity Cheerleaders.

Again we were faced with making a decision for homecoming princess. Janice Sanderson was a choice that no one argued with. Lovely Lynn Moody was our decision for the Winter Formal.

The most exciting event of the year was the Junior—Senior Prom, "The Morning of Our Lives." Bright as morning were the faces of Queen Pam Erickson, her escort LaVerne Gerig, and the princesses and their escorts: Linda Hoover and Malcolm Ross, Nena Nott and Bob Chandler, Jill LeMert and Dan Hayes, Becky Cray and Jon Powell, Janice Sanderson and Mark Smetana, and Leann Chambers and Jeff King.

To end the year and prepare for the future, student body elections took place. Many a poster and tag were seen, and pure mania politics were constituted here. But at last the results were revealed. Student body officers to lead in '72 were: President Scott Fancher, Vice President Craig Cowgill, Secretary Shauna Hartle, and Treasurer Polly Scheele.

Descending upon us, then, was our senior year. To pilot us were our officers: President Eddie Dahl, Vice President Mike Bellinger, Secretary Kriscina VanHoutan, and Treasurer Nancy Nelson. Representatives were Pat Hellberg, Dan Hayes, Jeanne Denker and Nena Nott.

A sincere welcome was given to our four wonderful foreign exchange students; Juliana Michaelson and Juan Sandy from Micronisia, Freddie McFadden of Swaziland, and Cristi Requejo of Argentina were the life of our senior year.

We now led the Varsity Yell Squad with the pep and spirit of Leann Chambers (Queen), Jill LeMert, Kathy Hern, and Debbie Mitchell.

Homecoming, for us the last, was an opportunity for us to display four of our girls, Queen Patsy Wyatt, Maid of Honor Nancy Nelson, and Honorary Princesses Juliana Michaelson and Cristi Requejo. Our winning float was, of course, well deserved of its reward. When Winter Formal time arrived, we announced Queen Kay Coleman to the student body.

Spring came blooming and with it came the selection of Strawberry Fair Court. The evening of April 15 was an evening of great tension as the girls awaited the judges' decision. We were happy to have Queen Kriscina VanHoutan reign with her court of Princesses Leann Chambers, Kay Coleman, Terri Greenly, and Ruth Mays.

Graduation is now upon us. Each of us is a different and unique individual and will pass our separate ways, but always in common will be these halls of L.U.H.S. we leave behind us.

JUNIOR CLASS SUMMARY

As they passed the halfway mark, the Class of '73 quickly gathered speed as the lower upper-classmen at L.U.H.S. They selected as their leaders Bruce Jones, President; Mark Johnson, Vice President; Susie Johnson, Secretary; Marlene Johnson, Treasurer; and Richard Brush, Charlie Grove, Lori Nelson, and John May, Representatives.

The year started with football, which proved to be very exciting. Twenty-six boys participated on the varsity level, with Jeff Edwards a recipient of First Team All-District honors; Bruce Jones, Second Team All-District; and Pat Campbell, Stan Hinderlie, and Charlie Vesper receiving honorable mention. Helping to lead the Warriors to victory throughout the year was Erika Gardner, the only junior member of the varsity rally squad. The junior princess for homecoming this year was Robin Moran, escorted by Robin Looney. Also during the fall, seven juniors were on the cross-country team. Basketball then followed with five junior boys playing on the varsity squad; Jeff Edwards, Ward Harriman, Bruce Jones, Stan Hinderlie, and Jeff Chapman. In wrestling, four junior boys lettered; John Marshall, Greg Barreto, Chris Otta and Jeff Reynolds.

The next big event was the Winter Formal where the Junior Class was represented by Princess Judy Atchley and her escort Brian Hartl. Track and baseball then followed in the spring with sixteen juniors participating on the track team, while Kevin Brannon, Bill Croco, Rick Harris, Jeff Edwards, Kevin Loree, Malcolm Ross, and Steve Searles represented the juniors on varsity baseball.

The end of the junior year was capped off by the Junior-Senior Prom. It was held for the first time in the new Student Lounge with the theme "An Old Fashioned Love Song." Synthia Craig was crowned Queen, and her court consisted of Cheryl Adams, Rhonna Burrelle, Erika Gardner, Vickie Garver, Eileen Greiner, and Robin Moran.

As the Junior Class comes to a close, the Class of 1973 is looking forward to a most successful senior year.

James Nutter drops by to discuss politics with Merle Ackeret.
